COMPANIES UP STATE

e entire state.

That there is a steadily growing business the entire state.

That there is a steadily growing confidence toward batter business conditions is reflected in Mr. Lyons report covering the incorporations during Novamber. Not only have more companies incorporated during the month than in any similar period since last spring, but the records show a greater diversity in the launching of new business enterprises, as well as the fact that practically every county in the state is doing its part in the general stimulation.

Reality, companies still command major attention, $15.05.00, Movember, with a capitalisation of $2.494.900 Spurred on by the demand $67 more and better pictures, each month finds from thirty to fifty motion, picture companies in corporated in the state. Lest month there were 33 with a capitalization of $1.563.900.

BELMONT WANTS ERIE TO BUILD NEW STATION

Project Takes Up by Newly-formed Chamber of Commerce

Belmont, Dec. 10. — A Chamber of Commerce has been organized to boost Belmont by improvements, by telling of her opportunities, etc.

The committee on relironds, County Judge B. Ackerman, Rallroad Land, Attorney William R. Van Campan and Bank Prisident W. J. Paul will confer with the Eric officials

Family and Bank Prisident W. J. Paul will confize with the Eric officials regarding a new station.

Supervisor-elect William Canfield is on the improvements committee. Paving and putting in additional sewers will be considered.

The chamber is non-partisan and will work, its officers say, with the town and village officers. Meetings will be held monthly and committees will report their progress.

New industries of the "hand me out" type are not to be sought. No sensational growth is expected, but when a good nterprise wishes to locate in Belmont, they will be referred to the committee on new industries headed by George M. Horner.

The editor of the Dispatch, B. E. Pierson, C. E. Ackerman and William E. Francisco; have the publicity end of the work. Signboards at the village entrances on the state roads will be erected.

"How to Keep the Home Coin Turn.

"How to Keep the Home floin Turn-ing" will be the problem for the heads committee, headed by L. C. Allen.
