Reportorial

Merry Christmas to all. Using the classified columns is a business method. J. M. Hartum is driving a new passenger, 8 cylinder Oldsmobile. Andover stores are showing some very attractive holiday window displays. A severe wind storm Saturday night and Sunday rattled around this locality. Andover merchants say they have had a fine holiday trade. That is as it should be. Fred Slocum has been at Alfred Station recently on a job of carpenter work for L. L. Spence. The home paper as a Xmas gift will remind that friend of your thoughtfulness 52 weeks the coming year. The weather began to strengthen all right Tuesday night. It reached zero at 7 p. m. the first time this year. R. D. Howe and C. Holtz, of Angelsea, have purchased of Paul Brown his grocery business at Cuba and moved to that village. Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Cleveland and daughter, Erma, were at Fillmore, Monday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Cleveland's father, O. R. Day, who died at Smethport, Pa., Friday, Dec. 16th. Wellsville Democrat. The News office and force will observe Monday next as Christmas Day, as Christmas falls on Sunday. Therefore the office will be closed all day Monday, Dec. 26th. The Alfred Grange has extended an invitation to the Almond and Andover Granges to meet with them on the evening of Dec. 31st, and help them watch the old year and the new year in. Mrs. Emily Chase, who recently sold her home on Grove Street to Mark Kemp, has rented the tenant rooms in the residence of Miss Minnie Clair, on Greenwood Street, and will move thereto. New imported Wool Hose for Christmas at Cannon's.

To-day is the shortest day of the year. The next issue of the News will be "Review of the Year" number. Clean hunters claim to have seen a panther in the woods near the city. Miss Mary Raufenbarth is clerking at the M. A. Fowler Bargain Store. Dr. Harry Stewart, of Canisteo, is reported quite ill with an attack of pneumonia. The First State Bank of Canisteo has installed the latest burglar-proof alarm system. Several cases of diphtheria have been reported at Cuba within a few weeks, two new ones last week. No bird is more prolific than the partridge, the hen laying from 14 to 18 eggs and usually hatching them all. Harry Craig, of Canaseraga, has been re-appointed county superintendent of highways for a term of four years. Mr. and Mrs. John Breiding have the sympathy of friends in the death Monday morning of their little four-months old daughter. Comrade Joseph C. Maxson, of Little Genesee, has been granted an increase of pension from $50 to $72 a month. He belonged to Co. C. 85th Regiment, N. Y. Vols. Grand Jurors from Andover to serve at Supreme Court at Belmont, beginning Jan. 3rd, 1922, are F. S. Potter, Archie Baker; Trial Jurors, E. B. Rollins, A. M. Wood. Thirty-eight inmates of the Broome County jail pooled their resources, amounting to $6, and purchased a casket, which were placed on the casket of the late Sheriff Perrine in Binghamton. At the last moment, beat it for this office and leave a year's subscription to the News or any magazine. We handle them all. A neat Xmas card will be sent your friend announcing your gift. LeClair Wheaton, of Canaseraga, who was injured last July when working on the county highway near Farnsworth's, by a heavy truck he was driving going over the bank, has settled with the county for $3,500. The city of Philadelphia has a fine farm to which it takes all its superannuated horses when their day of service is done. There they live in comfort so long as life lasts, or until it becomes a mercy to put them painlessly to sleep. Bent Ross and Leon Kettell, of Canisteo, have brought against Arthur Finneran, ex-state trooper, suit for $10,000 each for personal injuries, resulting to them from a collision which occurred to them on the evening of Nov. 30th, on the state road between Hornell and Canisteo. The gentlemen were on their way to work, when they were run into by an automobile, said to have been driven by Finneran.

NOTICE TO TAXPAYERS

The undersigned collector of the Town of Andover, hereby gives notice that she has received the tax roll and warrant for the collection of State and County Taxes, and will receive taxes at the store of J. D. Cheesman, in the Village of Andover, Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays of each week for the next 30 days at 1 per cent. EDITH BRAINARD, Collector, Andover, N. Y., Dec. 22, 1921. A repetition of your Want Ad or even a dozen publications of it would be a really expensive way of selling the property. New Silk Shirts for Saturday customers at Cannon's.

Hidbits From Our School

The program for last Friday was as follows: Song by School "Flower Song" Recitation by Maris Joyce "Disputed Authorship" The simple questions asked on last Friday morning were as follows: What is meant by by-products? Mention five by-products from crude oil. Which is the smallest planet, and the largest? What is the proportion of the width of our flag to the length? What fractional part of the flag is occupied by the blue field? The perfect spellers for last week were as follows: Third Grade Marion Cook, Helen Martin, Loretta Boyd, Florence DeRemer, Kenneth Gardner, Bert Campbell, Francis Cable, Francis Vickers. Fourth Grade Florence Vereley, Marguerite Perry, Lucile Dawson, Loretta Lehman, Mary Branch. Seventh Grade Ruth Whisten.

Our Christmas vacation will begin today at 3 o'clock and will continue until Jan. 2nd, 1922.

There will be a basket ball game to-night on the High School court, between Bolivar and the Andover town team.

There was a game Thursday night between the Friendship girls and Andover girls, on the High School court, also a game between the Arkport boys and Andover boys. The report of this game will be given in next week's paper.

A week ago last Thursday night Dec. 15th, the Andover High School girls and Town Team went to Richburg to play basket ball, but by some mishap neither team had any luck at all. The Andover girls were defeated to a score of 22-6, while the Andover Town Team was defeated to a score of 38-8. This is the first game the girls have lost, and it is the last, "so they say" at least we hope so. The next evening the girls sallied forth with all strength on their opponents. Not only the girls' team but the boys' "midgets" team, who played the "Giants" of Arkport the week before, came forth and defeated their opponents. The opponents were Angelsea, both boys' and girls' High School Team. The score was Angelsea girls 4, the Andover girls 32. Angelsea boys 8, Andover boys 19.

Basket Ball League Games Boys. won lost standing. Alfred 3 0 .000. Almond 0 1 * .000. Cuba 2 0 1.000. Friendship 2 0 1.000. Wellsville 1 1 .500. Girls won lost standing. Almond 0 3 .000. Andover 1 1 .500. Friendship 2 0 1.000. Richburg 1 2 .333. Wellsville no games.

Perfect Spellers Sixth Grade George Dean, Harold Lehman. Gertrude O'Connell, Howard Baker, Frances Brundage, Derward Williams, Mary Gunn, Rose Dawson. Fifth Grade Cecelia O'Connell, Lillian Halsey, Mildred Campbell, Raymond O'Boyle, Margaret Folsing, Robert Common.
