The Eastern Star installation of officers will take place at the first regular meeting in January. A tureen supper will be served. Bring sand wicks and on other article of food.
The News has added a new correspondent to its list from Davis Hill which we are confident will be enjoyed by our readers. Other new ones are soon to be found "Among Our Neighbors."
The families of G. H. Beebe, L. E. Howland, R. G. Collins and F. S. Potter had a "Good Time Party" Christmas day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Hanna, a big dinner, music and another good time has gone on record.
A Ford car, driven by Charles and Merle Carlen, of Whitesville, turned turtle between West Union and Whitesville. The machine landed bottom side up with the engine running, the lads soaked in gasoline beneath. It was a fortunate accident as neither were seriously injured.

The summer home of Mrs. Juliet W. Williams, near Belmont, on the Scio road, was entered recently while the owner was absent and a truck load of articles of value carted away. This is the second visit of the burglars. The state police are investigating.

County Clerk D. P. Snyder begins his tenth year in that office Jan. 1st. He also begins a new term of three years on that date. His office force is six instead of four now, two extra helpers being necessary to care for the work of issuing automobile plates.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Presbyterian Church will meet with Mrs. J. Owen on Wednesday, January 4th, at 3:30 o'clock. Mrs. J. Owen and Mrs. E. Bess, hostesses. This meeting is election of officers for 1922. Be sure and come to this meeting.

L. B. Stuart, of Almond, had a close call from a fatal accident last week Thursday evening when a defect in the wiring on a new auto which he was driving set fire to the machine which was totally destroyed. Mr. Stuart's hair and clothing were scorched before he could get out of the car.

D. D. G. M. Care, of Bolivar, will be in Andover Tuesday evening to install the newly elected officers of Andover I. O. O. F. Lodge. The third degree will be exemplified in full form. A luncheon will be served. All Odd Fellows are invited and every Andover Odd Fellow is expected to be present.

Foxes are numerous in the Allegany state park region this season, hunters and residents say. Most of them are of the red variety, which are not valuable as compared with the black fox, seldom seen, but some of the red foxes taken indicate a strain of the black fox. There is no law governing the taking of foxes.

The members of the Entre Nous Club and their gentlemen friends began the holiday festivities with a Christmas tree and dinner Thursday evening, Dec. 22nd, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Claire Backus, on Chestnut Street. The rooms and trees were attractively decorated in keeping with the Yuletide. It was a jolly good crowd and a merry evening.

Mrs. Eugene Slayton, of Friendship, was thrown from a wagon near the Erie Station at that place, last week, and suffered severe bruises and cuts about her head and arms from contact with the steel ties and cinders. Mrs. Slayton was holding the reins while her husband was loading coal into the wagon when the horses became frightened and bolted.

The News is in receipt of a very interesting pamphlet issued by the department service department of the Erie Railroad Company, bearing the title "Southern and Western New York Farms." It tells of the many advantages to be obtained by farmers living in this section. It would be a good publication to send out to our farmer friends when they get discouraged. We sometimes fail to appreciate our blessings when they are close at hand.

Carl Richardson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Richardson of Baker Street, had a narrow escape from serious injuries Wednesday evening. The lad was coasting on a sled and shot out across Main Street in front of a large Nash touring car, driven by James McAndrew of Pingree Hill. The front wheel struck the sled and bounded high enough to pass over the boy's body without seriously injuring him. The boy was taken to Dr. Grenold's office, where an examination showed that he was not seriously injured. Mr. McAndrew was in no way at fault for the accident. This should be a good lesson to the boys who have been riding on sleds in our streets for the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Gleason entertained for dinner Christmas day Mr. and Mrs. Grant Stephens and son Estier, of Shinghouse, Pa., Mr. and Mrs. Leo Dugan, of New Castle, Pa., and Mr. and Mrs. George Gleason, of Andover.

Congressman Dan A. Reed has issued an announcement that the free distribution of garden seeds will soon begin, and Mr. Reed's office, 319, House Office Building, will furnish them to those applying. Requests should specify whether flower or vegetable seed or both, are desired. Only persons intending to use them should ask for the seeds.

RESOLUTION OF RESPECT

In memory of our departed sister, Isabelle Cronk, who died December 13, 1921.

Again that unwelcome yet relentless visitor, death, hath entered the portals of our lodge room and summoned a dear sister to the beautiful home beyond. Her zealous work in the interests of our beloved Order, and her life, laden with gentleness and kind deeds, has won for her the plaudit of the good Master and will cause her name to be cherished in the affectionate memory of our lodge.

And whereas, the all-wise Father hath called our beloved sister to the New Jerusalem, where "happily she hath heard the signal of her release on the belts of the Holy City, the chiming of eternal peace." And she having been a faithful and ardent worker in the teaching of Friendship, Love and Truth, therefore be it Resolved, That Andover Rebekah Lodge No. 308, in testimony of its loss, and to express its Rebekah love, be draped in mourning for thirty days, and that we tend to the family of our deceased sister our sincere condolence, and that a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family.

And when a few more days are flown,
And the last lingering sand is gone,
With Jesus nigh;
How blessed then to lay me down and die.

It seemed such a little way to me
To that strange country, the Beyond,
And yet, not strange for it has grown to be

The home of those of whom we are so fond:
FANNIE C. BACKUS,
FRANCES E. BEEBE,
LAURA M. WITTEB,
