RADIO COMMENT

We wonder if Andover people know of the wonderful development of the radio, and realize what is going on in the radio world, and what the possibilities are for this wonderful invention.

We are free to say we were not up on radio stuff at all, until last New Years night when by special invitation the editor and wife were guests and royally entertained by Frank Graves at a wonderful radio concert. He is an expert in the radio business, and it troubled him but little to connect up with the broadcasting stations at Schenectady, Newport, R. I., Pittsburg, Davenport, Iowa, and many other places. Every word of the numbers from the various places came to us much plainer than the ordinary conversation over the telephone.

Among the features we listened to from Schenectady was an address by Gen. Pershing. This was most distinct. It was from a film used with the new speaking moving pictures which at last is being perfected and becoming usable.

Mr. Graves made his first radio set himself, and has now perfected a most enjoyable receiving outfit. We have heard other radios, but we never were just satisfied with what we got until last Monday evening. Frank is surely a radio wizard.

Tabbits From Our School

During the Christmas vacation two games of basket ball were played by the High School teams. On Saturday, Dec. 23rd, the boys' quintet journeyed to Alfred to engage in a league contest. They were defeated but this was partly due to the injury of the first string men and to the large court. On Wednesday, Dec. 27th, both boys and girls went to Canisteo. The girls were defeated, but the boys game was a disputed one and also played under protest on account of Canisteo putting in an unknown man who later proved to be a ringer. Therefore Andover claimed the game by the score of 15 to 13. Two first string men were on the bench but the substitutes proved their worth very well indeed.

Mr. Tubbs was absent from town for a few days during the Christmas vacation. He attended the principal's conference, held at Syracuse, N. Y.

Mrs. Thorne was kept from school Wednesday by severe illness. Mrs. Watson substituted.

Comments

None of our basket ball forwards are a bit backward in coming forward.

The small word, "yes," is said to be the most used word in our language.

A party of merry skaters visited the Andover Lake Tuesday evening. It is reported that many of the students had a "skate" on. Many went home with a headache partly due to the "skates" that they had on.

Almond High School visit our local court Friday evening, Jan. 5, 1923. Be sure and stand back of your team for they are good enough to deserve all the support possible. Come!!!

A bake sale will be held at Mrs. C. W. Williams' Store, by the Senior Class. Only fresh-baked goods will be on hand. You will need them for Sunday dinner, so do not forget the sale at 10 a. m.

Only 12 months before Christmas. Be sure and shop early.

It is reported that many young "chickens" were killed Dec. 24, 1922.

Have you broken your resolutions yet?

One old lady seeing her first basket ball game, returned home and told her young son that he could never play that game because she at least wanted him to be always dressed.
