METHODIST CHURCH NEWS

Rev. C. H. Whelan

Sunday morning, 10:30, worship and sermon.
 Sunday evening, 7:30, union service. Teaching Mission. Preaching by Mr. Whelan on topic: "The Kingdom of God!" Do you ask questions such as these: "What is This Kingdom of which Christianity speaks?" "How shall this Kingdom come?" "Is the Kingdom here?" "Is it in the future?" "When will it come?" We have an answer which will help you. Nothing fanciful. Just plain truth for the man who wants to be held in his Christian living.
 For weeknight meetings see notice about the Teaching Mission elsewhere.

PRESBYTERIAN

Royal E. MacGowan, B. D., S. T. B. Pastor

Sunday, January 14th. —
 Morning service, 10:30 a. m. sermon: "The Consecrated Life."
 Evening Service, 7:30 p. m. A union service in the Methodist Church, continuing our special two weeks' "Teaching Mission." The subject for this Sunday evening will be "The Kingdom of God." An opportunity for raising questions and discussion will be given at each meeting. These services are your services.

 Junior Christian Endeavor at 4 o'clock in the afternoon, in charge of Mrs. MacGowan. All the boys and girls of the church, who are thirteen years old, or under, are invited to attend.

Senior Christian Endeavor at 6:45 in the evening. Topic: "Why Do You Think the Bible is the Word of God?" 2 Tim. 3:14-17.
 Our special union services will continue thru next week, with the exception of Monday and Saturday evenings, at the Methodist Church. The topics for study and discussion, beginning Tuesday evening will be "The Church," "A Man's Life," "The World To-Morrow," and "The Life Beyond." The value of these services will be increased by YOUR presence, and by your part in the questions and discussions.

"Religion, to satisfy the modern spirit, must be rational, reasonable, in harmony with every advance in knowledge. Rational religion is simply religion—conceived according to reason, attained by the use of our reason, subject to no authority but the mind and conscience of each individual. It reverently appropriates whatever it finds true, wherever it finds it. But it rejects the claim of any pretended authority, of church, council, book, creed, to override the sincere convictions of the private mind. The holy revelation of truth is the divine impression which it makes on each private heart. Reason in religion does not mean reasoning about religion, but reason so permeating religion that nothing untrue can be held sacred, nothing brutal can be called divine, nothing unworthy of reverence can be worshipped. Reason in religion means the consecration of the whole mind, as well as the whole heart, to the cause of God and Man."
 We welcome YOU to all the services of OUR church.

THE TEACHING MISSION!

Interest in these meetings is making our effort well worth while. The people do want to know what they may believe without being untrue to the best of the day.
 Beginning with to-night (Friday) our topics will be:
 "Man and His Making." Mr. MacGowan preaching. Sunday evening Mr. Whelan will speak about "The Kingdom of God." What can we think of this Kingdom which is God's great purpose? Beginning with this Sunday evening meeting services will be held in the Methodist Church. No service Monday. Tuesday: "The Church." "Has it a place in the life of the world, and in God's purposes?"

Mr. MacGowan, Wednesday: "A Man's Life—What does it mean in the light of the faith of which we have spoken night after night?" Mr. Whelan, Thursday: "The World To-morrow—What does this faith of ours mean for the life that we live together, for this order of society which seems so far from us, but which is made by us and which means so much for us?" Mr. MacGowan, Friday: "The Life Beyond—Why do we believe in a life beyond? What is this life beyond for which we hope?" Mr. Whelan.
 That you may live properly and intelligently is our wish in preparing these lessons. Come and let us reason together.
