

AMONG OUR NEIGHBORS

South Hill

Jan. 17. — We are surely in the grasp of winter, much snow having fallen, accompanied by high winds for three successive days. Country dwellers are snow-bound, all roads being out of sight.

Our mail carrier, Mr. Church has not been able to cover this section of his route since Saturday, but we hope to receive news from the outside world to-day (Wednesday.)

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dean entertained a company of Andover friends one evening last week.

John Dean visited the Harrington home in Wellsville, Saturday, where his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Herman Dean, is very seriously ill.

Mike Dougherty and Robert Lynch of Andover, visited the Dougherty family Saturday.

Frank Holmes braved the gale and the drifts, on a trip from Andover to the Atwood lease, Tuesday.

The fine sleighing of last week enabled many of our farmers to move potatoes to market, but "nothing doing" in that line as present.

Ed McAndrew, of Andover, remained on the hill with Mr. and Mrs. Apple, Monday night.

Mrs. Robert Dean was the guest of her mother, Mrs. E. Doran, of Andover, Saturday night.

Our residents were again startled by the alarm of fire over their telephones, about mid-night Sunday night, the reflection of which was so brilliant on the snow each one on awakening thought it on their own premises. It proved to be what was formerly the Mings cheese factory, which had been used by Mr. Mings as a storage for his farm machinery and tools all of which were entirely destroyed with the building. Like the very recent burning of the Atwood barn in the same location, the origin of this fire is unknown. Our fire ladders contemplate organizing a hook and ladder company as the bucket brigade seems altogether too slow.

Mercury 10 below zero is reported on the hill this morning Ray Hurlburt who breaks road to the condenser each morning from the Horan farm, brought the mail to residents in this section.

Elm Valley

Miss Katherine Guinn was unable to return to her school work in Hornell, this week because of illness.

George Tucker left last Thursday for Kansas City, Mo., where he will take a course in an automobile school.

Many from this vicinity went to Andover Saturday and Sunday to pay their last respects to their friend and neighbor, Mrs. Lottie Wahl, whose sudden passing away has saddened the community. Deepest sympathy is extended to the bereaved families.

"I know there are no errors in the great eternal plan. And all things work together for the final good of man; And I know as my soul speeds onward

On its grand eternal quest, I shall say as I glance backward, Whatever is, is best."

Write Well Says That Breaking Them Causes Man to Lose Love Needed Confidence in Himself.

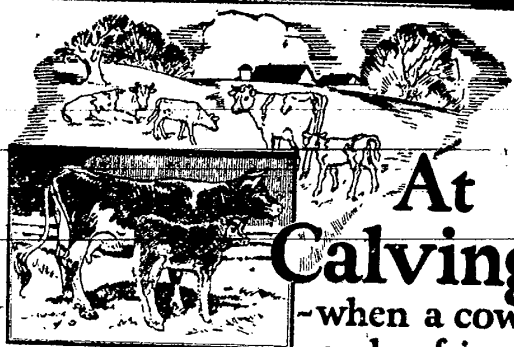

Be miserly with your good resolutions. Make them only after careful deliberation and when you are really determined to live up to them, because every time you break one you weaken your power of self-direction. "Never again" rolls easily from our lips after some foolish act has proved disastrous, and under the stress of emotion we mean it, but through the healing effect of time our resolution grows fainter, and when the circumstances invite us again, we succumb to the same temptation. Every time that happens our power of resistance decreases.

Habit plays an important part in our lives, and with sufficient effort we are able to direct and strengthen our habits of mind. The correct way to overcome one habit is by cultivating the directly opposite one. If you fall into the way of continually making and breaking resolutions you finally arrive at the point where you realize when you make them that you are no really serious about it and that you will probably break them later on. You begin to lose confidence in and respect for yourself and the tone of your character lowers. You are carelessly in juring yourself in a most vital way.

Make up your mind that you will not allow yourself to make resolutions under the stress of emotion. Treat the consideration of them as a serious affair and make no decision except when you are mentally calm. Come every day and read our important point lost in the crowd of others.

"The Home Cow Doctor"

—this is the title of a genuinely authoritative book on cow diseases, and how to successfully treat them at home.

We want you to have a copy of this book, and will send it free on request. We merely ask you in return to give us the name of your local dealer.

It is a portable book for your pocket. The book has been written by a practical man who has treated thousands of cows in his own practice, and who has been successful in many cases where other methods have failed.

The use of Kow-Kare is neither expensive nor difficult. Just a tablespoonful of the medicine in the feed twice a day for two weeks before and for two or three weeks after calving. A few cents spent to assist nature will repay you with a healthy, productive milker and a vigorous calf.

Kow-Kare is equally effective in treating Retained Afterbirth, Abortion, Barrenness, Scouring, Bunches, Milk Fever, Loss of Appetite, etc. Many dairymen feed Kow-Kare one week each month to every cow, and realize big increases in milk yield thru the added vigor of the herd.

Try Kow-Kare and you will use it always. Feed dealers, general stores and druggists sell it, large size $1.25, medium, 65 cts. Sent prepaid if dealer is not supplied.

OUT OF THE DARKNESS

A NEW story, bringing in John Bartley, investigator of crimes. The talented detective, returned from secret service work in the war, was immediately engaged by the governor of the state to ferret out some facts in connection with an application for a pardon.

It seemed a small case, hardly justifying the employment of such a prominent sleuth, yet it led to something big; to a mystery which, for a time, baffled all of his keen abilities. Those who read a detective story in order to match their wits against the author's, will find a rare treat in this new serial.
