

Progressive Times . . . . .

This is the day of the forward march. No farmer would now attempt to harvest his wheat with an old-fashioned cradle, nor thresh his grain with an old horse power machine.

There's the new radio outfit, the airplanes, wireless telegraphy, submarines, hydro-electricity — a hundred new things every decade. And in money matters, are we keeping step? Most of us are. We keep a balance at the bank and pay our bills by check, instead of keeping our money somewhere about the house, subject to loss every day. Our modern bank invites you to do business the modern way.

"How kind of you," said the girl, to bring me these lovely flowers. They are so beautiful and fresh. I think there is some dew on them yet."

"Yes, said the young man, in great embarrassment, "but I'm going to pay it off to-morrow."

We have never known a person yet who was willing to admit the full extent of his own knowledge. And why should they? Nobody wants to hold his limitations up to public view.

PRESERVING CHILDREN

This infallible recipe for preserving children comes from a Michigan health bulletin and is reprinted by The Journal of the American Medical Association, so it must be so.

"To preserve children take one large, grassy field, one-half dozen children, two or three small dogs, a pinch of brook and some pebbles. Mix the children and dogs well together and put them in the field, stirring constantly. Pour the brook over the pebbles; sprinkle the field with flowers; spread over all a deep, blue sky and bake in the hot sun. When brown remove and set away to cool in a bathtub.

Tidbits From Our School

Friday evening the girls basket ball team decisively defeated the Wells-ville quintet in a fast game. The Wells-villians did not make a field basket during the whole forty minutes of play, but they managed to cage three foul baskets. This completed their end of the score, but Andover caged three field baskets and also one foul. This was a league battle and as these are the only teams upon this side of the county Andover has the lead in the race now.

The High School boys played the town Team "Hustlers" and won. The game went into an extra period, but the High Boys outclassed the "Hustlers" at most of the time. The game was fast and exceptionally well played thruout.

Regents were in full-possession of the study hall the first three days this week and mid-year tests immediately took charge of the last two days.

No school will be held next week on Thursday and Friday on account of the teachers attending conference held at Hornell, N. Y.

The Boys' Basket Ball Team will journey to Angelica next Wednesday evening. This will be a league contest.

Uneasy lies the head that lies.

You must be as busy as a bee to keep from getting stung.

Oh, Boy! Two days off next week. This being my last chance to show my ignorance thru these notes most likely makes a few of the readers happy. But, I sincerely hope the next guy knows more than the fish who is leaving the office. Adios Senors or Senoras.

Pat—"If I get there first I'll make a mark on the tree with this chalk, Mike, and if you get there first you rub it off."

I could put a lot of real funny stories in these tidbits, but what is the use, you would only laugh at them.

I know a man who is so stingy that he goes to the postoffice to fill his fountain pen.

A wash board on exhibit the other day was claimed to be one hundred years old. I suppose that was why it was so wrinkled.

ATTENTION
BRYANT & STRATTON COLLEGE
GRADUATES

The following extract from a letter recently received from a well-known firm in Allegany County speaks for itself.

"If there are any graduates of your school in this vicinity whom you think might be interested, at a salary around $100 per month or better, I will be glad to have them communicate with me."

We should be glad to refer to the above position any Bryant & Stratton College graduate who is at present unemployed. Our Service Department has no difficulty in placing our graduates. The trouble is training students fast enough and in sufficient numbers to supply the demand for our graduates, and this in face of the fact that the College has just completed the most successful year of its history.

Young men and young women with high school training and a taste for business success, will find a Bryant & Stratton education the real key to opportunity. Its courses are designed for young people who possess the red-blooded American desire to achieve things worth while. Full particulars upon request. Booklets free.
