

AMONG OUR NEIGHBORS

South Hill

Feb. 14—St. Valentine's Day. D. J. Appier was a Wellsville visitor last Friday.

We have lost another of our old time, substantial citizens; A. M. Mings and sister Mrs. McCann having moved to their new home in Andover last Friday. Andover's population is now increased by the most of our "Old Timers" and many of the younger, but we still "boost" for Old South Hill.

Dr. Cleary of Andover was a professional caller on the Hill Saturday.

Ed. Lynch and Steve Ordway moved A. M. Mings's household goods to Andover Friday.

John Dean was called to Wellsville Thursday by the death of his daughter-in-law Mrs. Herman Dean.

John P. Dean visited the Harrington home in Wellsville Thursday night and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dean were there on Friday.

Mrs. Wm. Dean has been ill with the grippe for a few days and Miss May came home from Syracuse Sunday to spend the week.

Misses Anna Gallagher and Mary Driscoll of Andover spent the Lincoln holiday with Mrs. Robert Dean.

Dan Appier was doing business in Hornell Tuesday.

Mr. Young the new tenant of the R. McAndrew farm has begun moving from the Dave Hunt farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Holmes drove up from Andover Tuesday. Mrs. Holmes being the guest of Mrs. Robert Dean, while Frank was doing business on the lease.

A number of our residents attended the funeral of Mrs. Herman Dean from Immaculate Conception Church in Wellsville Saturday. Mrs. Dean was well known in this vicinity, had taught school in the Dean District for two years, and after her marriage to Herman Dean, they lived two years at the farm home here. She made and retained friends easily by her cheerful, happy disposition which enabled her to bear her long illness so bravely and patiently and when hopes for her recovery failed to be reconciled fully to "The parting of the ways" Our heartfelt sympathy is extended to the stricken husband, little children, mother, sister and brothers in their sad affliction.

Cobb District

Newton Clark has been confined to the house for several days with grip.

Mrs. Frank Halsey attended the Home Bureau meeting at Andover last Friday afternoon.

Dolson Shelley has been working in Hornell this week.

Mrs. Emma Baldwin and Mrs. Clayton Baldwin spent Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Ray Collins.

Mrs. Frank Dean was a guest of her mother, Mrs. D. Shine in Wellsville a couple of days last week.

Mrs. John Dodge was a caller at Oliver Baker's Tuesday afternoon.

Robert Church was a caller at Henry Sweet's Monday evening.

Mrs. Wm. Burger visited Mrs. Jos. McDonough Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. McCormick, Charles and Kathryn McCormick, also Mr. and Mrs. Thos. O'Hagan and children were guests at Jos. McDonough's the latter part of last week.

A number of the pupils have been absent from school on account of illness. There was no school the first of the week as Mrs. Church was at Whitesville, helping in the care of her sister's child, who is ill.

Davis Hill

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Slocum spent Sunday at the home of Geo. Beebe. Glenn and Bert Halsey are helping C. F. Davis draw logs.

Fred Slocum was in Hornell recently to consult a doctor.

Lawrence Cornwall of Machias visited Clifford Burdick and family last Friday night.

Joseph Walden called at Elmer Walden's Tuesday.

Mrs. Elmer Walden is ill this week with the Grippe.

CITATION FOR PROBATE OF WILL

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK. By the Grace of God Free and Independent.

To Milo Brown, Nellie E. Brown, Lillian Brown, Frances Moore Griswold, Sumner K. Rowley, William R. Rowley, Harvey Palmer, and Ada Hawsell, heirs at law and next of kin of Emma A. Scribner send GREETING:

Whereas, Bert S. Brown, who resides at Painted Post, N. Y., has lately applied to the Surrogate's Court of our County of Allegany, to have a certain instrument in writing, relating to both real and personal property, duly proved as the last Will and Testament of Emma A. Scribner, who was at the time of her death a resident of Andover, Allegany County, N. Y., deceased.

Therefore, You and each of you are cited to show cause before the Surrogate's Court of our County of Allegany, at the Surrogate's Office in the Village of Belmont, N. Y., on the 9th day of March, 1923, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of that day, why the said Will and Testament should not be admitted to probate as a will of real and personal property.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, we have caused the Seal of the Surrogate's Court of the said County of Allegany to be hereunto affixed.

WITNESS, Hon. Bernard B. Ackerman, Surrogate of said County, at Belmont, N. Y., this 2nd day of February in the Year of Our Lord One Thousand Nine Hundred and Twenty-three.

LEON A. ACKERMAN, Clerk of the Surrogate's Court.

NOTE—This citation is served to give you Legal Notice of the proceeding; but you are not obliged to appear unless you desire to do so.

NEW FABRICS—The First Signs of Spring

Spring Fashions Revive the Use of Ratine

And the vogue of ratine will be especially welcomed for early spring since these weaves are especially adapted to between season wear. And what a wonderful range of colors—one who views them cannot help but long to fashion something NEW and look eagerly ahead to wardrobes waiting.

Our 98c Line of

Ratines

From plain colors you may choose coral, eddie, cinnamon, brown, toast, orchid, copen, champagne, grey, African brown and peach blow.

In the realm of fancy ratines the new diamond checks are smartest—black and white, copen and grey, coral and grey, copen and coral—are effective color combinations.

Other Spring

Cottons

GAZE MARVEL—the newest and loveliest of the tissue family—is now here in a glorious collection of patterns and colors. The price is 69c a yard.

COTTON CANTON CREPE—a new cotton of mark and here in white, coral, Alice blue, copen and navy 98c yard.

ETAMINE TURMOILE—A volle weave of a heavy cotton yarn with corded woven check—black and white, copen and white, peach blow and white—69c yard.

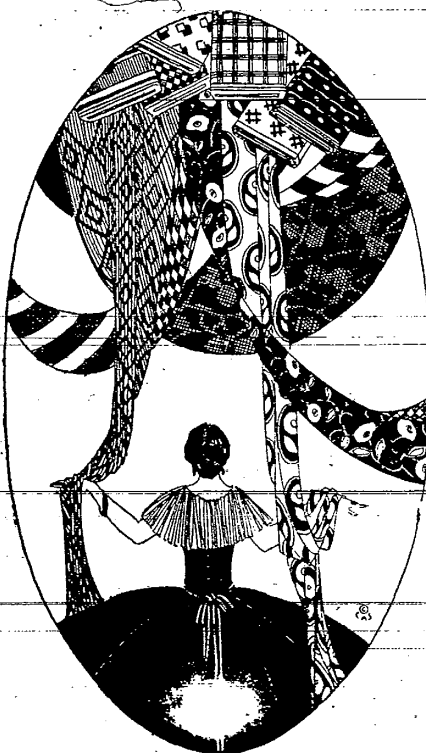

WHEN DOWNTOWN ALWAYS STEP IN

Babcock's

If only for a minute. Take a look at what is being offered that day on

The Bargain Plaza

A table in the center aisle on the main floor upon which is placed each day some amazing value. The item is never advertised—the price is always ridiculously low for the item in question—and sometimes it is necessary to replace the offering of the day with another several times due to quick disposal.

Colorful Egyptian Arabian and Hindoo Motifs in SILKS

The interest occasioned by the discovery of Tutankhamun's tomb and the countless objects of art and value it is filled, has fanned the fervor for Egyptian and Oriental designs to such a pitch that nowadays a fashionist's latest whims have been suggested from the robes of Queen Nefertiti to the better known Cleopatra.

Canton Crepes, Knit Silks and Crepe-de-Chines

The new patterns in these popular silks are all excellent examples of what effective design can be done with Egyptian, Hindoo, Persian, Arabian and Byzantine decorative art.

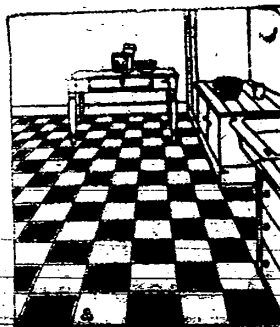

The Many Uses of Oriental Silks

The Decaville Scarf, The Band and the effective combination of the Oriental pattern with plain colors silk for frocks—all point to a new era for the Oriental.

Linoleum is Both a Decorative and Time Saving Floor Covering

One not only saves the floor by the use of linoleum, but linoleum saves one's strength in return. And these new linoleums provide a good-looking floor covering—in color to harmonize with the walls and furnishings, or in hardwood patterns. Easily kept clean, tastefully ornamental, it provides a simple way of simplifying housework.

Come in and let us show you a range of patterns in both printed and laid linoleums that make choosing a pleasure.
