—The fuel shortage in Northern New York has been a serious problem suffering is being experienced with buildings and furniture.

—In some instances the fuel shortage of ill and aged members of homes. At Whitehall, Mrs. Alice Davis, aged 72 years, was found frozen to death in her home. —Toad Needs Little Water. The horned toad, rather than the camel, should be the prohibitionists' emblem, says the Popular Science Monthly. That this animal can live for 119 days not only without water, but in an absolutely dry atmosphere has been demonstrated by Prof. E. U. Hall of the University of Wisconsin.

—Need New Supply of Nitrogen. The more we get power from oil, the greater the need is of obtaining nitrogen from the air. A vast amount of fertilizing material has been lost to American agriculture through the crowding out of millions of horses by millions of gasoline-driven vehicles.

OUR CHURCHES

METHODIST CHURCH NEWS

Rev. C. H. Whelan

Sunday morning: 10:30, worship and sermon: "What think ye of the Christ?" "Not he that repeateth the Name, but he that doeth the will."

Sunday evening, 7:30, worship as a union congregation in the Methodist church. "All at it and always at it."

Thursday evening, March 1, 1923, we will resume our union mid-week meetings at the Methodist church. At this time we will open our study of "Jesus of Nazareth" especially suited for individual as well as class study. Our first lesson will be "How the Story of the Life of Christ was Preserved." Read Luke 1:1-4.

Last Sunday I went up East Valley and saw how desolate life must be when deprived, by distance, from the church and by bad roads, of the consolations and joys of worshipping each Sunday in the House of God. What would Andover be if all willfully, not on account of distance or bad roads, deprived themselves of the opportunity of worshipping in church! And yet many do each Sunday forget, habitually and willfully, to seek their Lord in His House. Next Sunday will be a day for you to better your ways and come to church.

BAPTIST

A. D. Shepard, Pastor.

"There is something about the Bible that goes straight to the heart. It has a flavor all its own which is most delicious to the spiritual taste. It carries with it the one thing no other book has the note of authority. You feel it, and your heart responds to it." — Dr. Balcorn Shaw.

PRESBYTERIAN

Royal E. MacGowan, B. D., S. T. B. Pastor

Sunday, February 25th—Morning service, 10:30 a. m., sermon: "Our Heavenly Citizenship."

Evening service, union service at the Methodist Church.

Sunday School immediately following the close of the morning service. There are classes for all and everyone is cordially invited to attend and join one of our classes.

Junior Christian Endeavor meeting at 4 o'clock in the afternoon.

Senior Christian Endeavor meeting at 6:45 in the evening. Topic: "What are Some Temptations to Lie, and How Can We Overcome Them?" Prov. 12:17-22.

"The Christian spirit touches and affects every department of life. Christian practice contains many a form into which fresh meaning has come. This is true of baptism (a residual of totemistic eating of the god); our processions and our bowings, kneeling, or standing in public worship; finally, a great part of our religious terminology. Creeds are flags that remind the people of their group loyalty. That which is unique in the Christian religion is the spirit and personality of Jesus that lifts mankind to God."

We welcome YOU to all the service of OUR church.
