

The Best of Business Friends And Personal Friends as Well

maintain close communication by word of mouth or by mail as may be most convenient.

And it's just as true of this institution and its friends. Business is transacted personally when possible and by mail at other times. Communication need never be interrupted.

Ask us about our facilities that enable you to make withdrawals or deposits here by mail or secure counsel or information as desired.

The Burrows National Bank

JESSE S. PHILLIPS, President

EDWARD J. ATWOOD, Vice Pres.

JOHN E. CANNON, Cashier

RALPH E. TEMPLE, Asst. Cash.

F. W. BURROWS, Director

J. C. LEVER, Director

ERWIN D. BAKER, Director

P. C. LYNCH, Director

Foreign Advertising Representative
THE AMERICAN PRESS ASSOCIATION

MAILS CLOSE

Train No. 24 East 8:45 A. M.
" 26 West 2:00 P. M.

Train No. 7 10:00 A. M.
The Post Office closes at 7:30
Mondays, Wednesdays and Saturdays and 6 o'clock Tuesdays, Thursdays and Fridays.

JOHN COMMON, P. M.

Reportorial

—Twin sons were born last week to Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Alderman, of Rushford.

—Just received a consignment of Easter gowns. Ladies call and see them. Ella Bundy.

—The water pressure has been very low for the past few weeks in some parts of the village.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Cheesman are both ill with the flu at their home on Center and Church Streets.

—C. A. Robinson has purchased a new Overland touring car of Jos. McDonough, local Overland agent.

—A number of Andover Masons were in attendance at the Masonic Smoker, in Wellsville, Tuesday night.

—George Wercely, Jr. has decided for the printing business, and has entered the News office to learn the trade.

—Fifty-cent potatoes this week is stimulating the market and the farmers are busy drawing them to the warehouses.

—Regular meeting of Edward Seaman Relief Corps Saturday night, program in charge of Mrs. Livermore and Mrs. Carr.

—The Presbyterian Ladies Aid Society will meet with Mrs. Mary Wilcox, March 7th. Mrs. Wilcox and Mrs. Fannie Slocum, hostesses.

—Jesse Ostrander, of Wellsville, is in a critical condition at the Jones Memorial Hospital, where he had a large tumor under his arm removed.

—Wm. H. Marvin of Cuba, started last week, in his Hudson car, to drive thru to Los Angeles, Calif., where he expects to make his future home.

—The marriage of Miss Florence Milligan and Ralph Wickwire was consummated at the Methodist parsonage, Sunday, February 25th, by Rev. C. H. Whelan.

—Rev. O. L. Miller, Superintendent of the New York Civic League, will have a bill introduced in the New York Legislature giving the state control and regulation of all soft drink places.

—When starting cuttings of plants, insert the cut end in a small potato and plant in the ground. The potato will furnish moisture and hasten growth. This is a particularly good way for rooting rose cuttings.

—Mrs. B. S. Brundage, who has been seriously ill, is reported as improving.

—Mrs. Raymond McGill is ill with pneumonia at her home on Church Street.

—Raymond Collins, of Almond, will work the R. Hardy farm the coming season.

—Rev. C. W. Mills has tendered his resignation as pastor of the Baptist Church of Hume.

—Mrs. Mary Snyder is staying at the home of Miss Mary Snyder, who has had a bad attack of flu.

—Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Slade, of Little Genesee, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary Feb. 22nd.

—The Inasmuch Society of the M. E. Church will meet with Mrs. Floyd Hann, Monday evening, March 5th.

—G. M. Lewis has been appointed postmaster at Whitesville to succeed Raymond Robbins, the present incumbent.

—F. R. Emery received 2104 eggs from a flock of 120 White Leghorn hens during the short month of February.

—A carload of wild deer are to be shipped from Michigan to the state game preserve near Smethport. This is the second installment of deer in this preserve.

—March 4th to 11th is Religious Book Week. Publishers of religious books are making an effort to dispose of a large number of religious works during that week.

—The condition of the highways is about as bad as they can be. Deep ruts have been worn in them and when an automobile gets in one it is usually there to stay until helped out.

—An exchange says "that Washington never told a lie of course, is very true, but George went into politics when the thing was really new."

—Gasoline took a jump of two cents a gallon recently. This jump is due to the fact that the Standard Oil Co. boosted the wholesale price Monday.

—The Village of Prattbury, 12 miles northwest of Bath, suffered a most destructive fire loss Wednesday morning when the Presbyterian Church and Franklin Academy were destroyed.

—Beginning Thursday, March 1st, the Dairyman's League milk went to Whitesville instead of Belmont. On account of the road conditions it is necessary to make the trip with horses for the present.

—Word reached Alfred late last Friday of the death of Dr. Archie L. Ide, for two years head of the department of Psychology. Dr. Ide was taken sick last year and never fully recovered. An hour of silence was observed Monday at the university during the time that the funeral was taking place at Philadelphia. A memorial service will be held next Wednesday during the regular Assembly period. Dr. Ide was especially well liked by the students and he took a deep interest in their problems. His loss will be keenly felt. Press Club, Alfred University.

—Mrs. Roy Nichols returned Wednesday from a visit to Mrs. Corwin of that place, was in the hospital following flu. Mrs. Corwin was formerly Miss Louise Cochran of this village.

—Lawrence Graves, formerly a resident of Wellsville, has been appointed to a position in the Department of Federal Income Tax at Washington, D. C., and will begin his work March 1st.

—Don't forget the Union Caucus Saturday night. Every voter interested in the advancement of Andover should be on hand to help place in nomination men for public office who have only the best interest of the village at heart.

—Editor E. Willard Barnes, of the Wellsville Reporter, left last Friday for Baltimore, Md., for medical consultation for stomach trouble. His brother editors trust he may return soon, restored to health.

—The free distribution of garden seeds by the Government will soon begin. Requests should be made to Daniel A. Reed, M. C. 319. House Office Bldg., Washington and should specify whether flower or vegetable seeds or both are desired.

—Mrs. Earl Richardson has been in a critical condition from pneumonia the past week. Thursday morning Mr. Richardson informed the News that his wife had passed the crisis of the disease, which was welcome news to her many friends.

—Word was received by Andover relatives of the death on Tuesday morning, Feb. 28th, of Mrs. Lena Graham Collins, of Olean. Mrs. Collins was a former resident of Andover and a cousin of Earl Richardson and Mrs. Geo. Cummings of this village.

—It seems no one wants the job of building a sewer system for the Village of Cuba. The time limit for bids passed and not one had been submitted, even tho several firms had been there to look the ground over.

—Irene Claire, of Alfred Station, won the prize, a beautiful doll, awarded by Senning Dromazos to the girl, between seven and eleven years of age, who made the best doll dress, the dress to be made from orquid and made by hand. The contestants were seven Alfred girls.

—W. L. Jones, of the Pleasant View Poultry Farm, town of Bolivar, reports that he is receiving 600 eggs a day from 1200 hens. The eggs are shipped to New York City, where they bring from 45 to 50 cents per dozen. —Bolivar Breeze.

—Simeon Reisman and family were called to Corning last week by the illness and death of his grandson, Simeon Reisman Wickery, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Wickery. Funeral was held last Wednesday afternoon, at Hornell.

—We have missed the Whitesville News from our exchanges the past two weeks. We learn that Editor Robbins has been having trouble with gas engine and linotype. We know how to sympathize, brother, and sincerely wish that you will soon get the best of the balky gas engine and intricate linotype.

—Mr. and Mrs. Fayette Robinson, residents of Canaseraga, died Feb. 19th, at their home in that village. Mr. and Mrs. Robinson were aged 82 and 83 years; both died of influenza, the wife at 5 o'clock a. m. and the husband at 11 o'clock. Mr. Robinson was unconscious when his wife died. The double funeral was held Wednesday, Feb. 21st.

—The last number of the I. O. O. F. Lyceum Course was held Monday evening. The Warren Colston Company gave a splendid program of impersonations. Mr. Colston's interpretations of Rip Van Winkle, David Harum and Eben Holden, were very good. Mrs. Colston is unusually clever in depicting the characters of every-day life. The audience was well pleased with the entire program.

—Creditors of the defunct Smith Tea Rooms Inc., have brought action in Supreme Court against some 23 of the persons who subscribed to the stock of the company, in an effort to get them to pay the amount of their subscriptions. The company was a Hornell concern formed for the purpose of operating a chain of tea rooms in southern tier cities. The list of defendants in this action are those who subscribed to stock but did not pay the full amount of their subscriptions. Those who bought and paid for stock are not involved in this action.

—Elmer Caple is moving this week from his farm on Pingrey Hill to his house on Water Street.

OUR CHURCHES

PRESBYTERIAN

Royal E. MacGowan, B. D., S. T. B.
Pastor

Sunday, March 4th. —
Morning service at 10:30 a. m.
Sermon by the pastor.
Evening union service with the Methodist congregation in the Presbyterian Church.

Sunday School immediately following the morning service. There are classes for all and every one is cordially invited to attend and join one of our classes.

Junior Christian Endeavor meeting at 4 o'clock, Sunday afternoon.

Senior Christian Endeavor meeting at 6:45 in the evening.

We welcome YOU to all the services of OUR church.

BAPTIST

A. D. Shepard, Pastor.

"If ye abide in my word, then are ye truly my disciples." John 8:31.

Morning worship, 10:30. Theme:

"The Way Into Life."

Bible School, 12 M.

Y. P. S. C. E., 6:15. Topic, "The Refuge Psalm." Leader, Miss Inez

Younmans.

The prayer meeting committee and leaders for the month will meet at 6 o'clock for prayer and conference.

Evening worship at 7:30. Subject:

"The Chosen Son" illustrated with pictures.

Monday evening, Junior social time.

Wednesday night, Baraca social and election of officers.

Thursday evening, Bible study, prayer and testimony meeting.

Saturday evening, Teacher training class.

METHODIST CHURCH NEWS

Rev. C. H. Whelan

10:30 a. m. worship and sermon: "The Transfiguration of Jesus Christ."

7:30 p. m. union service of praise and worship in the Presbyterian church.

After two months of bad weather and sickness, appearances lead us to believe that enough people are well again to crowd our churches. What about your Lenten reading and devotions? We shall have some things to say about these Sunday morning.

Thursday evening: The second session of our mid-week study and worship services at 7:30 in the Presbyterian church. The topic for study will be "The Youth of Jesus and His Family Life." None should miss these meetings.

Friday evening, March 9th, the Official Board of the Methodist church will meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Robinson on Elm Street.

Prepare for our week of home prayer services during the week of March 18th, and our Holy Week services during week of March 25th.

The News Classified Ads keep real estate active in this village, even when natural conditions oppose. Without the help of the real estate ads, the transactions in real estate would be too few to establish any standards of values at all.

GARVIN BROS. & MULLEN

WILL LOAD

YEAL

CALVES

At Andover

Monday
March 5th

Highest Market Price

F. L. BLOSS, Corner Grocery

How's Your Stock of Groceries?

If it is running low, let us replenish it. We have everything that a first-class grocery should keep and every article in the store is pure and fresh.

K. & B. GUARANTEED FLOUR PREMIER GOODS

CHOICE TEAS AND COFFEES

BANANAS CANNED GOODS ORANGES

Prompt Deliveries Give us Your Order

Phone 238 Prompt Deliveries F. L. BLOSS

NOTICE!

HONEY is Nature's Own Sweetness

As a food, it is delicious and healthful. Doctors recommend it for coughs, colds and digestive disorders.

A delightful blend, 5-lb. pail $1.00

Gallon cans, 12 lbs. net $2.00

Try Pancakes and Honey for breakfast while sugar is high.

I have only a limited quantity left.

C. H. WATSON

WE ARE BUILDING UP OUR STOCK OF DRY GOODS, KITCHEN WARE, CROCKERY AND NOVELTIES, WITH NEW GOODS WHICH ARE ARRIVING DAILY.

PRICES AS LOW AS CAN BE CONSERVATIVELY MADE. COME IN AND GET ACQUAINTED.

A. E. McFerridge
Dry Goods and Variety Store
Successor to M. A. Fowler

THE AUDITORIUM

SATURDAY, MARCH 3rd

Wallace Reid

IN

"THE WORLD'S CHAMPION"

The smashing tale of a ne'er-do-well who put his snobbish family on the map with a few straight rights into pudgy pride and love going strong when the bell rings. Cast includes Lois Wilson

Comedy, "A RAG DOLL ROMANCE"

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 7th

Douglas Fairbanks

IN

"THE NUT"

A picture with thrilling feats and side-splitting laughter of the man who invented his way to the altar.

With Stanley in Africa No. 4.

"FIND LIVINGSTON"

ICE CREAM

LOL-A-POP

Try some of our home-made Ice Cream Novelties in the Stick. Pure, delicious and lovely. Price 5 cents.

The SUGAR BOWL

Cash & Carry Grocery

MAPLE SUGAR

We have a quantity of Maple Sugar that we are offering at a very low price.

B. C. WILLIAMS

Open Every Night Except Tuesday and Friday

Our Job Printing Department is supplied with the latest designs in type.

Results are what you want, and results are what you get when you advertise your wants in the News "Want" Columns.