—The Reading Club will meet with Mrs. J. H. Backus, Monday afternoon.

—J. L. Williams is very ill with pneumonia. Nurse Mary Casey is in charge of the case.

—The home of Arthur Dickens, east of Friendship village, was destroyed by fire Feb. 24th. Nothing was saved from the building.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Cheesman are reported as gaining slowly from influenza. Mr. Cheesman is about the house, but his wife is still confined to the bed.

—Mrs. Wealthy Burrows, aged 88 years, died at her home near Ceres, Feb. 24th. Mrs. Burrows was the mother of 22 children. Burial was made at Port Allegany.

—The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the M. E. Church will meet with Mrs. Baker and Mrs. Burgett, Tuesday, March 13th, at 2:30. Quarterly meeting. You are urged to be present.

—There was no service at the S. D. Baptist Church this week. Rev. W. L. Green, the pastor, drove part way from his home to Andover and was obliged to turn back on account of the condition of the roads.

—George E. Brown, for years a resident of Wellsville, prominent in church, business and political circles of that village, died March 3rd, at Cambridge, Mass. The remains were brought to Wellsville and interred in Woodlawn Cemetery, Tuesday.

—Mr. and Mrs. Ray Seely, of Candor, formerly of Andover, have lost two daughters, Lida, aged 7 years, and Pearl, aged 4 years, from influenza. Their deaths occurred about a week apart, Feb. 18th and 24th. A third child, 2 years of age is critically ill.

—The fifty-seventh annual encampment of the Department of New York, G. A. R. will be held in Buffalo, on May 22, 23 and 24. The railroad rates will be one fare and a half for the round trip. Headquarters will be at the Hotel Statler, at McKinley Square.

—The dates for Cuba's Fair this year have been set for Sept. 11th to 14th, inclusive.

—February 22nd, the Chevrolet Company claim to have produced its one millionth automobile.

—Mrs. Emma Clair is at the home of B. S. Brundage assisting in the care of Mrs. Brundage, who is ill.

—Mrs. Edw. Teasdale has been suffering with a sprained wrist the past week, the result of a fall on an icy walk.

—At present there are six strings of drilling tools in operation on the Forest Oil Co.'s lease on the Reed farm, Town of Bolivar. Breeze.

—"Tally" Martin is recovering nicely from the severe scorching he received from a gas explosion over in the "notch" several days ago. Belmont Dispatch.

—Stanley Mills, of Fillmore, died at the home of his son in Salamanca, Feb. 21st. He was well known throughout Allegany County as a professional violinist. Mr. Mills was 78 years of age.

—Miss Helen Folsing has had her tonsils removed following a severe attack of tonsillitis and was back on duty at the Cannon Shoe Store, Wednesday afternoon, after three weeks' absence.

—The Spring robin may fool us, but when you see five boys flail on their stomachs on a cement walk matching marbles and dodge a dozen more weaving along Main Street on roller skates you may rest assured that Spring is not far away.

—Harold Tucker, of Alfred Station, had a finger amputated at the second joint last week. The operation was made necessary because of injuries received July 4th, when a large firecracker exploded in his hand and the wound never healed.

—W. L. Hunt and Carl Shaner, of Bolivar, were severely injured last week Thursday when a twelve-cylinder car they were driving, in the Friendship-Cuba road struck a deep rut, jumped out of the road and into the creek. The front of the car was damaged.

—An exchange has this pert statement: "It is all very fine for scientists to search for a way to make us live 200 years or to rejuvenate old age by making glands, but the world is in greater need of something that will annihilate colds — from the common type to gripple and flu. Medical science has no greater field."

—Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Sawyer, of Wellsville, are celebrating their golden wedding anniversary to-day (Friday) at their home on South Main Street, that village. Mr. and Mrs. Sawyer are well known throughout Allegany County and the News is pleased to extend hearty congratulations to the worthy bride and groom of fifty years.
