

AMONG OUR NEIGHBORS

South Hill

Mar. 14. — Many changes in weather, but after the passing of St. Patrick we hope for something more spring-like.

A number of our farmers are drawing lime preparatory for the spring seeding.

E. M. Livermore was called to Independence recently by the death of a sister Mrs. D. Livermore.

A slow improvement is reported in the condition of Mr. Youngs, at the Memorial Hospital, in Wellsville.

Frank Holmes was a South Hill visitor Sunday.

With the removal this week to Andover of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Appier, we have lost another family for whom their South Hill friends wish much success in their new field of labor. They are to reside on Chestnut Street, South Hill's suburb.

Ed McAndrew, while steaming oil on his lease, remained on the hill, Monday night.

A niece of the Youngs family, from Wellsville, was their guest over the week-end.

Mr. Crance, of Andover, was doing business on the hill, Wednesday.

Elm Valley

March 14. — Linford Horton and Kenneth Alvord, of Andover, attended Sunday School here last Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Merle Hibbard and sons spent the week-end at Charles Dodge's.

Judson Burdick was a guest of his sister, Mrs. Grace Nevell, over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Tucker were called to Stanards Monday afternoon, by the sudden death of her father, Henry Williams.

Paul Caple has accepted a position in the Swain Hardware Store in Hornell, and commenced work there Monday.

Mrs. Mabel Caple and daughter, Eloise, and Mrs. Mary Cole were in Hornell, Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Dodge entertained friends from Andover Sunday.

Mrs. Simeon Hann, of Wellsville, spent Friday with friends here.

Park Burdick was happily surprised last Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mead, by his Sunday School Class, the "Busy Bees." The party was a pre-birthday affair, his thirteenth birthday occurring on Tuesday, March 13. A delicious supper was served by Mrs. Mead and a pleasant time reported by all present.

Pupils perfect in spelling for the week ending March 9th: Gertrude Jackson, Edna Guinn, Eloise Caple, and Lester Dodge.

Thieves broke a window in the front of Ben Sawyer's store here, about 1 a. m. Saturday morning, but only secured a few cans of salmon and packages of codfish, being frightened away before they entered.

Some people never forget an act of kindness because they never recognize one when they see it.

Davis Hill

Mrs. Paul Childs is teaching school in this district during the illness of Miss Marie Joyce.

Dr. Robert W. Fuller, of Angelica, is testing cattle in this section for T. B.

Charles Halsey was a visitor of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Davis, recently.

Joseph Walden and mother were callers at Elmer Walden's, last Thursday.

Mrs. Harry Sweezy is ill with pneumonia. Dr. Cleary, of Andover and Nurse Rena Parker, of Whitesville, are caring for her.

E. J. Kilbane spent Tuesday evening at the home of Floyd Slocum.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Slocum, who have been sick, are gaining and are able to be out again.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Childs visited his parents last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Slocum and granddaughter spent last Sunday at the home of Frank Halsey and family.

Miss Mary Norton returned to her home in Birdsall, last Friday, after passing several weeks with her sister.

Ed Wilcox is spending several days with his sister, Mrs. Flora Bess.

Chas. Hulse was a guest of his mother, Mrs. Clara Scribner, recently.

Arling Briggs has been driving a rig for Dr. Cleary this week.

Cobb District

Mrs. Vivian Sweet and children were Saturday guests at the home of Robert Church.

Mrs. Clayton Baldwin spent Friday evening with Mrs. Ray Collins.

Mr. and Mrs. James Dean and family were Wednesday evening visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dean.

Mrs. Robert Clark was shopping in Andover, Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Slocum and daughter, Kathleen, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Halsey, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dolson Shelly and daughter, Nina, were Sunday guests of Andover relatives.

Mrs. Henry Sweet is spending a few days with Miss Mary Hinchey, of Elm Valley.

Mrs. Harriet Broderick, of Hornell, also the Misses Dorothy and Katherine Dean, of Pingrey Hill, were Sunday visitors at the home of Mac Dean.

Everett Clark was a business visitor in Belmont, Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Vivian Sweet and family were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Dodge.

Louise Butler, of Genesee, and Thos. O'Hagan, of Greenwood, were visiting at Jos. McDonough's, Wednesday.

The school children greatly enjoyed the Ladies Aid dinner at Henry Sweet's, Wednesday.

Pupils perfect in spelling for week ending March 9th, were Charles Halsey and Teresa Dean.

A good deal of time, in the aggregate, will be spent to-day in answering classified ads — and none of it will be wasted.

Voorhees Hill

March 14. — The sleet storm Sunday night did considerable damage to the trees and telephone wires in this section. The wires are broken so that there is no communication from either Wellsville or Andover. The Sherwood Hill-Andover Tele. Co. held a meeting at R. B. Church's last night.

There was no school Monday as the icy roads prevented the teacher's arrival.

Carroll Church again took up his abode at the farm Monday.

Sunny Side

Mrs. D. W. Driscoll is spending a week with her sister, Mrs. Alex Bessette, of Whitesville.

Edmund Fitzgerald was a pleasant visitor at Deery's, Tuesday evening.

Captain Richard Burns, of Detroit, Michigan, called at Ray's last week.

W. J. Rockwell, who has been confined in his home for six weeks with gripe and neuritis, has gone to Hornell for medical treatment.

Joseph McDonough was in this neighborhood on business, Friday.

Mrs. James Deery and daughter, Elizabeth, were visiting relatives in Wellsville, Saturday and Sunday.

John Lewis is the latest victim of the gripe.

We hear that John Murphy has sold his farm to a couple from South Hill. — It is like a game of "Give Away" in checkers, the way South Hill and Sunny Side are exchanging residents lately.

Some people are out for the money, while others are out of it.

Honesty is the best policy, but policy doesn't always win.

Very likely the real estate ad which you ought to read and answer, is printed to-day.

$ DOLLAR DAY $

Hornell Merchants Yearly Cooperative Event

A Great Community Event in Which This Store Plays a Leading Role—The Attention of Three Counties Will Be Centered on Hornell and Babcock's for These Sale Days

Only once a year—and that when a great co-operative event is planned by all the merchants of Hornell—does this store hold a Dollar Day. But that once—nothing short of the spectacular in values will do.

Hornell is the center of a great agricultural district—it is surrounded by many flourishing villages—and is more and more becoming a great shopping center. So when the purpose of an event is to strengthen the hold Hornell has as a shopping center and to bring to Hornell great crowds of bargain seekers from far and near—actual losses are cheerfully taken and we enter into the event whole-heartedly and sincerely.

As always, Babcock Quality Standards will be maintained—special purchases to sell at one dollar will be avoided and only extraordinary values in standard merchandise offered for one dollar.

We will quote here only two from hundreds of Dollar Day Specials To Be Offered Thursday and Friday only.
