

Sign-Boards on the Up-Road

By Hamilton B. Williams

Forth of my heart shall blaze a flame,
God-lighted,
If I come on any soul benighted.
Forth of my heart shall sing a word

Forth of my heart shall sing a word
God-spiced,
If I come on souls gray-lipped from dread.

Forth of my heart shall leap a flood,
Love's heart'ning stream —

To wake, to urge souls to their dream,
Shall He who bids me play a god.
Not comrade be,
On every road, for every load,—with me?

Prof. Charles Ellwood, University of Missouri, in a recent article on education, says that thoughtful folk are beginning to see that intellectual education is insufficient to meet the needs of this complex and divided world. Education must develop Will and Emotional attitudes. That means spiritualizing the home of life.

We have before us the world shattered by hate, the destroyer. God forbid that we should reconstruct it in the likeness of anything that has existed. Construction is the word. The nationalism and churchism are social attitudes which permitted if not actually the curse of the hellliness of 1914 will not permit another catastrophe.

Educated wills and emotional attitudes developed up to man-elevation shall only give the race a spiritual impulse.

The jungle dies hard.

Social idealism means saturating the boys and girls with a world-program. And when they grow up they will not depart from it.

The social demand indicates what training should be given the children.

If it is expected of men and women to be visioned citizens, honest workers, with an industrial objective of personality-value — not profits in wages — artist in love expressed in husband and father, and wife and mother relations, brothers and sisters having a world wide interest, men of horror and women gentle train that into the blood of life.

The wonder is that we are not overwhelmed in the absence of ignorance and blunders we incline the vines with greater wisdom.

The social sciences want the inspiration and light and dynamic of the Nazarene-personality who being a man related himself to every humane interest. He had a certain emotional attitude — friendly; a certain determination of will-service. That made Him the power of God unto salvation and solution.

If the world needs strong men and gentle women it is as simple as telling them so beginning at the mother's knee.
