Sign-Boards on the Up-Road

Wherever broods a soul Upon the world of folk—
He knows God's passion.
Wherever stands a soul Before a human need—
There, a beautiful gate
Is being fashioned by the fingers God.

Where, ever swiftly,
On love-sandaled feet
A soul goes interpreting Good Will—
There is a highway for the Friend.

How beautiful the feet
Of those who bring from the Shining Mountains Kindled by the breath of God,
Fire for gray hearths.
How beautiful the feet
Of those who from the River's Gardens.
Bring the nard of myrrh
And of lilies, sweet and comforting.

They know whose torches
Have been lighted of the Light
How surely He would find
The Streets of Rue
And Houses of Shattered Hopes.
He would stand by the Looms of Tangled Threads;
He would bring faggots
For the graying hearths to warm
old Dreams;
He would restring and tune
The Silent Instruments,
And teach anew Life's Song.

They know whose shoulders ache Because they stopped along the roads, How heavy was the Lord Christ's Cross.

They know whose souls look Upon God's Kindly Face,
Why Jesus gladly climbed his hill.
They know whose house the Lord,
And eat and drink with Him,
Why He looks from the windows
Adown the darkling roads.
Harold Begbie has written a book called "Twice-Born Men" in which he shows remarkable transformations of uttermost men through religious experiences. A religious experience is simply a life-experience. Jesus never said "ye must be born again," ... but "from above." Unless one has eternal life capacity no magical outside process can create it. Every religious experience analyzed properly will be found to be the result of growth-laws. Otherwise the universe is ruled by whim, chance, opportunism.

Eliminate mystery—find God in the sunlight — always. He travels openly. He reveals Himself in mental phenomena. He reveals what He is through that which we may be.
Growth is revelation.

I desire to condense somewhat of the preface to his book which he calls a footnote in narrative to Prof.
William James' book, "The Varietties of Religious Experience."

Prof. James defined religion as the,
'feelings, acts and experiences of individual men in their solitude, so far as they apprehend themselves to stand in relation to whatever they may consider a divine." "Every man who thinks at all, however noisy his public worship of the no-God, does in his solitude feel himself to stand in some relation to the universe.
Every man has a religion."

"At the beginning is the revelation that the lost can be saved. What is conversion?" Prof. James says, "to be converted, to be regenerated, to be regenerated, to
be regenerated, to
be regenerated, to
be regenerated, to
be regenerated, to
be converted, to be regenerated, to
be converted, to be regenerated, to
be converted, to be regenerated, to
be converted, to be regenerated, to
be converted, to be regenerated, to
be converted, to be regenerated, to
be converted, to be regenerated, to
be converted, to be regenerated, to be converted to the resultion that the lost can be saved

A TALK WITH AN
ANDOVER MAN
Mr. L. Johnson, of Main Street, Tella
His Experience

There is nothing like a talk with one of our own citizens for giving hope and encouragement to the anxious sufferer from the dread kidney disease. We, therefore, give here an interview with an Andover man:

"Kidney trouble had a pretty firm grip upon, me" says Mr. Johnson," "My back ached terribly and every time I stooped to shoe a horse or do any heavy lifting, a sharp twinge would catch me in my back. The kidney secretions' passed too frequently and were highly colored. I was all out of shape, lame and sore all over, until I began to use Doan's Kidney Pills. Doan's worked like magic in my case and soon had me feeling better. It only took three boxes to cure me of the trouble."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy get Doan's Kidney Pills — the same that Mr. Johnson had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

Notice to creptors

So many times that the very approach of the professional saver fills him with disgust. The tragedy of the half-baked religion that is emotionally worked up is that the victims are persuaded that the whole thing is a fraud. They are "saved" to die—again. The soul of a soul is self-respect. Make the man feel that God and man that God is very human, loving, and very near. A far-off God twiring and every near. A far-off God twiring and acpr of wrath will not save a soul, a near God will. Let this man be persuaded that God is a Father. He will believe this if the news is brought by a brother who understands, who gets under the skin of his trouble, Professional religious-hawkers will fail utterly. The gross evangelism will fail.

Many a man has been "converted" so many times that the very approach of the Dornor of Hon. Bernard B. Ackerman, the Serrogate of Hon. Bernard B. Ackerman, the
