Hay

Scarcity of cars and bad road conditions restricted hay movement in Central West. Prices generally held firm especially in the better grades of timothy. Higher alfalfa prices at Kansas City attracted larger shipments and the market weakened slightly. Warmer weather in South-west was also a weakening factor in both alfalfa and prairie prices. Quoted March 24: No. 1 timothy, Boston $25.25; New York $27.50; Phila. $23; Pittsburgh $21.50; Cincinnati $20; Chicago $23; Atlanta $26; Kansas City $17.50. Feed

Feed stuffs receipts in most markets were slightly in excess of the demand which created a weak, unsettled and dull situation. Many mar-ets report a decline of from $5-7 per ton in linseed meal. Future shipments offerings of wheat feeds continued to depress the market and at the close of the week May bran was offered at $5 per ton below prevailing prices. Corn feeds held fairly steady, but were in ample supply. Hominy feed prices were a shade easier. Cotton seed meal declined $1 per ton, demand very light at reduced quotations. Stocks and receipts all feeds appear ample. Quoted March 24: Bran $27.75, middlings $27.50, flour middlings $29.25 Minneapolis. White hominy feed $28 St. Louis; $28.50 Chicago; gluten feed $42.65 Chicago; 34% linseed meal $44 Minneapolis; 31% linseed meal $39.75 Buffalo; 36% cottonseed meal $39 Memphis, $41 Atlanta.

Grain

Grain prices held firm the first half of week on buying to remove hedges against export sales, but subsequent liquidation caused declines and prices closed under a week ago. for the week Chicago May wheat down 2½c; Chicago May corn down 1½c. Market weak on the 26th, under continued liquidation of long holdings. Visible supply wheat 46,544,000 bushels compared with 37,102,000 bushels same date last year. Corn firm early but weakening later with wheat. Visible supply corn 29,874,000 bushels compared with 49,596,000 bushels same date last year. Closing prices in Chicago cash market: No. 2 Red Winter wheat $1.31; No. 2 mixed corn 73c; No. 2 yellow corn 73c; No. 3 white oats 44c. Closing future prices: Chicago May wheat $1.18½; Chicago May corn 72½c; Minneapolis May wheat $1.118½; Kansas City May wheat $1.10½.

Dairy and Poultry Products

Butter markets unsettled during the week. Some California butter on eastern markets at selling prices is slightly under corresponding grades of regular receipts. The steamer Geddes cleared the port at New York to-day carrying 10,000 boxes of New Zealand butter which was received at New York early in the month. Closing prices, 92 score butter: New York 50½c; Chicago 51½c; Phila. 50½c; Boston 52c. Cheese markets steady during the week although there were signs of weakness in distributing markets at close of to-day. No export trading during past few days.
