Farm and Stock Market

Majority of feed markets reported lifeless situation with weaker tendency in most feeds. Transal bran and hominy feed fairly firm but oil meals and heavy wheat feeds weak and offered at considerable discounts for deferred shipment. Production wheat feeds increased and appeared to be in excess of present demand. Surplus offerings being applied on old contracts helped to maintain prices. Little demand for gluten feed in spite of second reduction of two dollars per ton with resellers shading prices. Supplies and stocks fair but ample. Receipts and the movement good. Quoted-April 7th: Bran $27, middlings $26.75, flour middlings $28.50, Minneapolis white hominy feed $29.50 Chicago, $29 St. Louis; gluten feed $38.65 Chicago; $39 Buffalo; 36% cottonseed meal $38 Memphis, $39.50 Atlanta.

Feed

Grain markets strong during week and closed sharply higher on unfavorable crop and weather reports from Southwest and Northwest and improvement in foreign demand. Chicago May wheat advanced 3/4c; Chicago May corn advanced 4/8c. Heavy selling on the 9th to take profits. Heavy buying by shorts kept market on narrow but firm basis and close was fractionally higher. Visible supply of wheat 45,387,000 bushels compared with 34,163,000 bushels last year. Visible supply of corn 7,469,000 bushels compared with 45,305,000 last year. Corn continued strong despite decent sharp advance in prices and considerable profit-taking by previous buyers. Closing prices in Chicago cash market: No. 2 red winter wheat $1.35, No. 2 hard winter wheat $1.25, No. 2 mixed corn 80c, No. 2 yellow corn 80c, No. 3 white oats 46c. Average farm prices No. 2 mixed corn in Central Iowa 66c, No. 2 hard winter wheat in Central, Kansas $1.07. Closing future prices: Chicago May wheat $1.23 1/4, Chicago May corn 78 1/4c, Minneapolis May wheat $1.23 1/4, Kansas City May wheat $1.15, Winnipeg May wheat $1.20 1/4.

Dairy and Poultry Products

Butter markets unsettled and irregular throughout week, altho at the close today the tone was steady to firm. Considerable foreign butter and butter from western states has appeared on eastern market and this, together with necessity of future supply has had a tendency to keep markets very sensitive. Closing prices, 92 score butter: New York 49c, Phila. 49 1/4c, Boston 51 1/4c, Chicago 48 1/4c. Cheese markets weak. Declines on Wisconsin Cheese Boards Monday, April 2nd, placed trading on a basis averaging from 1 1/2 more than a week ago. Absence of export buying which featured markets during the middle of March, and the approach of the flush production season caused weakness. Prices at Wisconsin primary cheese markets April 7: Flats 21 1/4c, Single Daisies 21 1/4c, Double Daisies 21c, Longhorns 20 1/4c, Square Prints 21 1/4c.
