

THE STUBS OF YOUR CHECK BOOK TELL A STORY

The stubs of your check book tell a story. They tell where your money went — whether it was spent wisely for useful things or wasted for luxuries.

Each one forms a little chapter in the record of your affairs.

You can trace your progress in the story they tell.

Do you realize the value to you of a check book which gives you a permanent record of all bills paid? It encourages a methodical handling of your affairs and leads the way to success.

Have YOU a checking account here?

Reportorial

—Mrs. Lee Trowbridge has been ill the past week.

—Melvin Henderson has been painting and papering for Edw. Mc-Andrew, this week.

—At the annual meeting of Friendship Fire Department, A. McKee was elected Chief and Glenn Foster, 1st Ass't. Chief.

—Grant Post has been appointed postmaster at Belvidere to succeed Eugene Duffy, who has served in that capacity for many years.

—Miss Freeda Updyke is ill with tonsillitis, but is better at this writing.

—Burr Reger has purchased the Floyd Scott residence on Dyke Street, and will occupy same.

—The home of W. J. Cook, between Friendship and Nile, was destroyed by fire April 15th. The fire was caused by an over-heated stove.

—Mrs. E. W. Green had two ribs broken and sustained other injuries when a rail upon which she was leaning on a second story veranda, broke precipitating her to the ground.

—The endurance dance contest craze, which has been prevailing in our cities of late, is most disgusting.
It simply shows, to tell it plainly, that the participants have stronger legs than brains.

—New York State led in the total production of apples in 1922, but was second to Washington in the commercial output, according to the United States Department of Agriculture. Either of these states produces more apples than any other two states.

—Little Margery Trowbridge, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Trowbridge, is ill with bronchial pneumonia. This is the second attack of pneumonia the child has had this winter. Mrs. Trowbridge's mother, Mrs. A. R. Meade, has been assisting in the care of her granddaughter.

—The Daughters of the American Revolution had a stormy time electing Mrs. Anthony Wayne Cook, of Pennsylvania, President General. The rivalry between the candidates for the office was bitter and the excitement became so high during the balloting that the police were necessary to restore order.

—The fire department was called out Thursday noon to the house of Jesse Baker, on Baker Street. The fire had a fairly good start, so water had to be used. Considerable damage was done. The fire caught from burning grass back of the building running up the side into the cornish.
The origin of the fire in the grass is unknown.

—Clarence Wallace, of Hornell, committed suicide Sunday morning, at Willard State Hospital, where he had been for two months. Mr. Wallace was a well known resident of Hornell, where he had owned and conducted a barber shop for over twenty-five years. His mental trouble developed from a mastoid operation following an attack of flu, this, coupled with discrepancy at the death of his wife, caused the mental unbalance. He cut his throat with the metal part of an eye glass case.

—During the hail storm last Monday a carrier pigeon came down, exhausted, near the J. E. Cannon Store.
George Barrett, seeing the bird alive, brought it in the store, where it has sufficiently regained its strength so that Mr. Barrett expects to release it to-day. The pigeon is carrying bands on both legs with codes on them.
