

AMONG OUR NEIGHBORS

South Hill

April 24. — Our spring has suffered another relapse.

Veterinary Mr. Fuller, of Alfred, is this week giving our dairies the tuberculosis testing.

Mr. Kibbie and family visited Wellsville friends Sunday, Mrs. Kibbie and children remaining until Monday evening.

Mrs. Thomas Youngs spent the week-end with her family on the McAndrew farm. Mr. Youngs was removed from the Memorial Hospital a week ago and is now being cared for at the home of a daughter in Wellsville.

Homer Stearns, of East Valley, visited the Youngs family Saturday, and Mr. and Mrs. Randall Stearns, who have been helping them in sugarmaking, returned to their home in Greenwood, Sunday.

Mrs. Robert Dean was an Andover visitor over Sunday.

The Halsey family motored to Davis Hill Monday evening.

Those of us who were unable to attend the Dairymen's League picture show think our local newsman missed it also.

Road men with machines are straightening out our roads somewhat, and they certainly needed it in places.

Where possible, our farmers are busy preparing ground for seeding.

Davis Hill

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Childs spent the week-end in Greenwood.

Clarence Witter, of Greenwood Hill, bought three cows from the obinson dairy, Tuesday.

Menzo eMade was a business visitor on the hill, Thursday.

Arline Briggs and Will Meade were in Hornell, last week on business.

Donald Vaughn, of Hornell, has been visiting friends on the hill, recently.

Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Davis spent Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. Howard Briggs, of Greenwood.

Barney Shriner, of Wellsville, spent Sunday at the home of Floyd Slocum.

Mrs. Harry Sweezy and daughter visited recently in Whitesville.

Miss Gertrude Beebe spent Saturday at the home of Floyd Slocum.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Davis attended the funeral of her aunt, at Standards Corners, Wednesday.

Elm Valley

April 25. — Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mead and little son were guests at G. Reynolds', on the Vandemark, Sunday.

Roy Fay and three children, of Olean, spent Sunday at Chas. Dodge's.

S. W. Stimpson and J. H. Hess, of Spencer, were here Monday and purchased sixteen head of registered Ayreshires of Frank and Lloyd Mead.

How well have you advertised your property for sale?

Sunny Side

April 18. — Mrs. Owen Duffy Jr. joined her sisters and father in planning the pleasant birthday surprise for Mrs. John Rockwell, Sunday.

Neighbors of Mrs. W. R. Brown attended the funeral of her father, Michael O'Conner of Wellsville.

Miss Hilda Smith was a pleasant caller in Andover, Thursday evening. Wilson Rockwell is working in the Pierce Arrow automobile plant in Buffalo.

In spite of the daily snow storm the farmers are plowing and building fence.

P. E. Fitzgerald has returned from New York City having spent the winter with his daughter, Mrs. Sinning.

Mary R. Hull is suffering with an attack of tonsillitis.

Voorhees Hill

April 24. — Mr. and Mrs. Abram Slocum attended a birthday party for his cousin, Alonzo Slocum, near Genesee, Friday night.

Dr. Fuller, the veterinary who is conducting the county tuberculosis test, is working in this section this week.

Mrs. R. B. Church and daughters were guests of her parents, at Andover, from Thursday until Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. David Slocum, of Andover, were Sunday visitors at Abram Slocum's.

Mrs. Floyd Fanton and Raymond Church called, Saturday, on their uncle, Wm. Adams, who is critically ill at his home in the Proctor District.

Angelica

April 23. — Angelica Lodge No. 425, I. O. O. F. celebrated the 104th anniversary of the order on Sunday, April 22nd, by appropriate services at the M. E. Church, Dr. Withal, Dist. Supt. of Olean, N. Y. officiating, a goodly number of Odd Fellows and Rebekahs attending.

A meeting of the Board of Directors of the Allegany County Agricultural Society was held Saturday evening, at the office of the treasurer, to discuss matters pertaining to the Fair for the coming exhibition in the week of Sept. 4, 5, 6, and 7th, 1923. This year marks the 79th annual exhibition of this society, the grounds and buildings are to be put in good shape, the new base ball grounds, which were constructed last season, will be put in A-1 condition, and it is expected that some hot contested games will be played there during the week of the Fair this coming September. The secretary, Mr. J. N. Thompson, who managed a very successful Fair last year, announces that he is all ready receiving reservations for space on the mid-way. C. B. Oliver was appointed Race Sec'y., and the track will be rebuilt as far as possible this spring. Every citizen of Allegany County should stand back of this society, and make it a real "County Fair."

Henry Loree, who was working on the barn of F. H. Rivenburg, two and one-half miles east of Angelica, fell from a scaffold Saturday afternoon and fractured both bones in the left leg, just above the ankle. He was removed to his home in the village and Dr. Batt was called on to set the fracture.

West Greenwood

Religious services will be conducted Sunday afternoon, at the West Greenwood Grange Hall, followed by a Sunday School. C. B. Ellis, of Canisteo, will have charge of the services.

For Your Summer Refurnishing

With the different mode of living in Summer, we require other than "wintry" furnishings. So when Spring arrives the Babcock Furniture, Rug, Floor Coverings and Drapery Floors are scenes of great activity. We have succeeded in gathering a truly remarkable collection of Summer furnishings for the home—few Metropolitan stores can show a finer one.

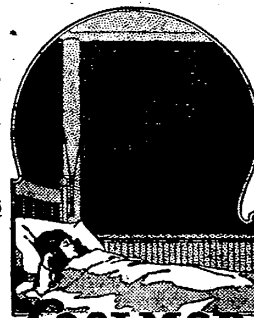

Wicker Furniture

This furniture for every summer use—indoors and out—has yielded to the charm of color and appears in soft green, rich brown, butternut blue and old gold—upholstered in highly patterned and highly colored cretonne.

3-piece FIBER SUITES—$95 and up
SINGLE CHAIRS and ROCKERS—$6.00 and up
Natural Finish PORCH ROCKERS—$3 to $7.
PORCH SWINGS—$13.00 to $85.00

Colorful Summer Rugs

Rugs of grass, fiber and rag rugs with their bright colors contribute a large part of the cheery atmosphere of a Summer home. We are showing many fine, new specimens in this type of rug.
