

True Forethought Makes Price the After-thought in Buying Clothes

No man was ever sorry that he paid the price of Quality. He gets something that can't be reckoned in dollars and cents — deep pride of appearance — and he gets something that can be so measured — long and honorable service far beyond what the price equitably entitles him to expect.

Stein-Bloch Smart, Clothcraft Guaranteed and Griffon Ultra Clothes for Spring add lustre and a reputation that already outshines any others. Their enduring tailor-work makes the Style Stay in the garment as long as it stays in use.

Contendin' voices rant an' roar, to warn us of our danger. . . Nobody's honest any more. CONFLICT—the Golden Rule's a stranger!

I reckon if we don't elect a rabid politician, we needn't ever much expect to better our condition.

And so—each candidate declaims in hate against the other, without a callin' any names—that he's the Devil's brother.

I reckon that it's nip and tuck between contendin' forces—but I would sooner pass the buck, than hear their crime-discourses.

Why can't we have two honest men, to run against each other—who'd serve the people now an' then, an' treat 'em as a brother?

It seems to me, that politics has got so awful rotten, that we'd be in a better fix with all of it forgotten!
