

AMONG OUR NEIGHBORS

South Hill

May 2. — Welcome the May days. On Veterinary Fuller's second visit to the dairies to which he had given tubercular test, he pronounced them all O. K. which was very satisfactory indeed to our dairymen.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Youngs came home from Wellsville Sunday, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Bert Youngs of Greenwood. Mr. Youngs is slowly improving from his long illness.

Frank Holmes, of Andover, was a Sunday visitor on the hill.

Fred Potter, of the post office force, was over this mail route with Carrier Church on an inspection tour, last Friday.

Dan Appier motored from Andover Sunday for a visit on the hill.

A. M. Mings, of Andover, drew potatoes from his farm one day last week.

Mrs. Robert Dean was a week-end guest of Hornell friends, Mr. Dean going for the day on Sunday. They motored home Sunday evening in their car which had received a new dressing out in that city.

Mr. and Mrs. Randall Youngs were doing business in Greenwood from Sunday until Tuesday.

The reported real estate deal now being consummated, will make for more changes on our hill.

Independence

April 30. — Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Crandall were on the hill over the week-end.

Mrs. Fred Stewart, of Canadea, the county clothing leader, was a guest of Mrs. Floyd Clarke, Wednesday.

Mrs. R. A. Clarke is home from Alfred for a few days.

Mr. Green, from Washington, is visiting his brother, Rev. W. L. Green.

E. R. Crandall and family were guests Saturday, of Mrs. Nora Burdick, of Alfred.

Mrs. Linford Potter and children spent Monday in Andover.

Alfred University

(Press Club)

The Inter-Class Track Meet, held last Friday, resulted in a tie between the Frosh and Sophs. The coaches were well pleased with the results since several records were broken. This offers a good prediction on the meet with Alleghany, this Saturday.

Many improvements are being made on the campus, especially in back of the library. The planting of the shrubs and trees is under the supervision of Prof. Remsen of the Agricultural School.

Dr. Norwood is to fill the Professorship of History next year. The Professor of Economics has not been chosen. It will be remembered that both of these positions have been filled by Dr. Norwood in past years. The Footlight Club gave its annual play Saturday evening. The play presented, "The Ages of Romance," was arranged to be part of the Hi-Y Conference.

Plans are being made for a novel Commencement Week. This year the date is moved up a week so that the Seniors will graduate during the examination week of the rest of the school. Now the alumni who attend the exercises will have a chance to see the student body in action. President Davis has worked for this plan and is eager to see it work well.

The A. J. Deer Co. of Hornell, have let the contract for the building of a new building, 100 feet long by 20 feet wide, in addition to their present plant, to enable them to handle their present volume of business.

Practically every kind of a nut that grows upon the fact of the earth can be found on the nut farm of O. F. Withe, at Amherst, Ohio. Mr. Withe has seemingly defied all laws of nature and grown nuts that are natives of Florida and California by grafting them so as to withstand the hard winters in his section.

The State Highway Department has ruled that no trucks having a capacity of more than 2 tons can use the state road between Belfast and Fillmore.

WHEN GUESTS COME

This Charming 4-piece
BEDROOM SUITE—$195

This handsome suite gives one an idea of how little it really costs to furnish a guest chamber luxuriously. The suite is of American Walnut and has a beautiful bow-end bed, semi vanity, dresser and chiffarobe. Truly, it is one of the most graceful of period designs.

Grey Enamel—Hand Decorated
BEDROOM SUITE—$325

A suite that suggests the June Bride and the present she merits. One of the most beautiful of recent boudoir creations. You will have no idea of its charm until you see the bow-end bed, glass top dressing table with triple mirror, chiffonette, dresser and bench for lady's use. The price is modest, indeed, for a five-piece suite of this type.

4-piece Birdseye Maple
BEDROOM SUITE—$198

For those wishing something different than their other bed rooms, a room in birdseye maple has a strong appeal. Here is a suit consisting of bow end bed, semi-vanitie, dresser and chiffarobe—four beautiful pieces for $198.00.
