

MOTHER'S DAY May 13th

Every day is Mother's day, of course, but one day a year has been set aside for national acknowledgement of our debt to the Mothers of the nation.

May 13th will be observed this year as Mother's Day.

Honor yourself by honoring your Mother on that day.

Reportorial

—Measles are prevalent at Andover.
—Seven cases of measles were reported last week at Nile.
—Some of Rushford's merchants are to conduct a community auction sale this week Saturday.
—The homes of H. S. Thorne and Henry Bennett, on Water Street, are being improved by fresh coats of paint.
—Don't forget Dr. Cleary's lecture at the Baptist Church, to-night. Subject: "Hawaiian Islands and Army Experiences."
—H. W. Jones, of Sandusky, is still doing good work as an auctioneer, even tho he has passed his 80th birthday. Going some!
—In accordance with our established custom, the News office will be closed every Saturday afternoon from now until Labor Day.
—The Home Bureau class in millinery, which was to have met to-day in the Methodist Church parlors, has been postponed until farther notice.
—The next regular meeting of the Past Grands Council of Allegany County I. O. O. F. will be held at Alfred, on the evening of June 20, 1923.
—Edward Seaman Relief Corps have ordered markers to be placed on the graves of their departed members. They will be placed before Memorial Day.
—How are your headlights? The State Police have been instructed to stop all cars and see if they are properly equipped, and comply with all the provisions of law.
—The home of W. V. Rich in Canadea was destroyed by fire last week. The greater part of the furnishings from the first floor were removed from the building.
—A Teachers Training Class will be conducted in Wellsville next year. The application to re-establish the work in Wellsville having been approved by the State Education Department.

Enjoy Best Health by Eating Best Food

If people would eat correctly and of the right kind of food one-half of the doctors would be sitting around idle.
Eating correctly is your business. Our business is to sell you the right kind of foodstuffs—the pure and wholesome foodstuffs that enrich the blood and put pep into your mind and action.

The dealer who buys only guaranteed articles can not well sell you an imitation. This fact is worth keeping in mind when you go marketing.

THE STORE OF QUALITY

—Hear Dr. Cleary's lecture at the Baptist Church, to-night (Friday).

—The Independent Order of Odd Fellows have a membership of 250,000 in New York State.

—Some one has discovered that it takes 140 nuts to hold a Ford together and only one to hold it in the road.

—Much interest and rivalry has been apparent at Cuba in a window-trimming contest by pupils of their public school.

—Miss Anna Jarvis, of Philadelphia, Pa., is the founder of Mother's Day, which has become so universally observed.

—Belmont has been decided upon as headquarters for this section for the government survey to be made during the coming summer.

—The City of Hornell has granted a franchise to a new bus line to run between Hornell and Rochester by the way of Wayland and Springwater.

—Bolivar will give you a fine of $25 if you exceed the speed limit in that village. President Wilbur means to stop unsafe driving in the streets.

—Children's night at Rebekah Lodge was a most interesting meeting. A fine program was given and supper served. There were twenty-four at the children's table.

—The Motor Vehicle Bureau of the State Tax Department will hold a test at Hornell, Friday, May 11th, at the Armory. The test will start promptly at 9:30 a. m.

—Charles B. Stilson, of Rochester, a newspaper man, has prepared and published a life of Peter Gruber, better known as Rattlesnake Pete, who has studied snakes for forty years.

—Roger Stillman, at one time foreman of the News plant, is now numbered among the office force of the Wellsville Reporter. "Rog" is one of the few old time, all around newspaper men.

—A story is going the rounds of a man who recently died and left a will in which he named six bankers to be his pall bearers. "They have carried me for twenty years," he explained, "and they might as well finish the job."

—Henry Ford's income for a year is placed at $50,000,000. An official of the Treasury Department has estimated that his annual income, if piled in dollars in shape of an obelisk, would build a silver shaft the size of the Washington monument.

—$4,000 worth of young Mongolian pheasants have been secured from the State Game Farm, by Hornell parties and will be placed in the best sections possible for their development. This is the largest consignment ever issued to a single locality.

—The machinery, woodworking shop and moulding department of the Carter foundry at Canisteo, was badly damaged by fire Monday.

—Sparks from the cupola, as men were making casts, caused the fire. There had been no insurance on the building for three years.

—Simon B. Van Wageneu, Republican Assemblyman from Ulster County, cast the deciding vote to repeal the Mullen-Gage law. The repeal has been staunchly fought by the dregs of the state and the people will now be able to judge for themselves which side was in the right.

—Don't fail to have $40 with you if you want to drive your automobile faster than 20 miles an hour in the streets of Hornell. Judge Rathbun has no soft spot in his heart for auto speeders, and it might be embarrassing for you if you didn't have the kale when the judge passes out his hat for your collection.

—The Walker bill, requiring secret societies to register the names of their members passed the Assembly by a vote of 76 to 50. The bill was amended to exempt such organizations as the Masons, Odd Fellows and Knights of Columbus, but hits the Ku Klux Klan, who will no longer be able to hide their identity behind a mask and robe.

—Miss Frances Barrett, of Hammondsport, found a woodchuck near her home in the spring of 1922 and taking the animal to her home tenderly cared for it. Last October the woodchuck went back to its woodland haunt. Recently Miss Barrett saw a woodchuck near her home who showed signs of recognition and she discovered it was the same one.

—The remains of Mrs. Huldah Green, widow of the late Maxson J. Green, of Alfred, were brought to Alfred May 1st for interment in the family plot in Alfred cemetery. Mrs. Green was 90 years of age. She leaves two daughters, Mrs. Frank Hill, of Ashaway, R. I. and Mrs. DeWitt G. Wilcox, of Newton Centre, Mass., where her death occurred April 28th.

—Considerable excitement has been caused by the alleged chastisement of the eight-year-old daughter of Mrs. Gertrude Perry, of Howard. That the affair has so preyed upon the mother as to cause a serious mental condition is the claim of her family. The teacher, Mrs. Jessie Nash, denies the charge, and says "it is simply a hallucination on the part of Mrs. Perry."

—Earl Franklin is Belfast's new postmaster, taking the office over May 1st. Frank Mc Mahon, the retiring postmaster, served in that office over nine years. The Belfast Blade in speaking of his work, says: "Not one complaint has been entered against him and the authorities at Washington have never had to serve notice on him of any delinquency in the affairs of the office."

—After being out ten hours, the jury in the Orville Higginbotham vs. Dr. H. P. Jack Estate, brought in a verdict in favor of the plaintiff for the full amount asked $1,800 with interest and all costs.

—A bad accident occurred at Farmersville Station, last week Sunday morning, when a south-bound passenger train of the B. & P. railroad struck a Ford coupe at the milk station, occupied by H. E. Smith and three children. With the exception of one child, whose injuries were fatal, the other four occupants of the car escaped with minor cuts and bruises. The car was demolished.

MRS. BURTON E. SMITH

Leah Ardell Smith was born October 3rd, 1896, at Scio, N. Y., daughter of Jarius and Pruda Woodward Whitcomb, and died at the family home on Greenwood Hill, Wednesday morning, May 9th, 1923 of intestinal tuberculosis and pneumonia. November 4th, 1922 Miss Whitcomb was united in marriage with Burton Edward Smith, of Dalton, N. Y.

Deceased was a girl of bright intellect and charming personality. She was a student of Andover High School and had been engaged in teaching at Whitney Corners prior to her marriage. She was taken from her home to a Hornell hospital last Fall for treatment and later brought to the home of relatives in this village until weather conditions made possible her removal to the farm home.

She is survived by her husband, parents, one sister and a brother, a twin sister having preceded her in death a few years ago.

Funeral services will be held Friday afternoon, at 2 o'clock, at the Methodist Church, and interment made in the Brewster Cemetery on Greenwood Hill.

Forsythia, pussy willow and apple buds will expand into blossom if the twigs are brought into the house and put in water.

If the painter gets too frisky with his brush, turpentine will take of the spots he's splashed on the hardwood floors. Rub briskly and then wipe the floor with a soft cloth wrung from lukewarm water.

PARENT - TEACHERS' MEETING

May Meeting Will Be Entertained by Debate and Community Chorus

The special May meeting of the Parent-Teachers' Association will be held at the High School building, next Tuesday evening, May 15th at 7:30.

A debate has been planned for this meeting, topic: "Resolved: That more good will be done by the establishment of industrial training in our school than by the employment of a community nurse."

Affirmative: Mr. Emmett Dawson, Mrs. Edward Cable, Mrs. O. A. Robinson.

Negative: Mrs. Hervey Thorne, Mr. Geo. Barrett, Mrs. McFetridge. The Community Chorus are planning to sing at this meeting. Refreshments will be served at the close of the program.

These meetings are both entertaining and profitable and it is hoped that many who have not been attending will come to this meeting next Tuesday night.
