J. D. Cheesman & Co.Tidbits From*Our School

At the fourth annual prize-speaking contest of Allegany County, which was held in the High School Auditorium, at Wellsville, N. Y., Miss Olive Chase, of Andover, N. Y., won first prize over the other girl contestants of the county. Her selection, by Gilbert Parker, entitled, "The Going of the White Swan," was given with the most excellent skill and ability. She proved herself from the first to be the best of the evening. Words could not clearly express the superb and magnificent way in which she captivated the audience. She received a gold medal as a reward.

The first prize among the boys went to the entrant from Wellsville with the selection entitled "Our Martyred Presidents."

The judges of the contest were: Dr. Paul E. Titsworth, Dean of the Alfred University, Alfred; Rev. Royal E. MacGowan, Andover; D. D. Dickson, Wellsville.

The Base Ball Team journeyed to Almond last Friday afternoon. The next game to be played will be at Wellsville, this afternoon. On Decoration Day the Friendship H. S. nine invaded our territory. The game will be played on the Silk Mill Diamond. Remember this game and attend.

A Parents-Teacher's Association meeting will be held in the High School building, on Friday afternoon, June 1, 1923. The meeting will begin promptly at 4 o'clock. All people are urged to be present.

The fourth annual Track and Field Meet of the Allegany Athletic Association was held in Wellsville, last Monday, May 21, 1923. All the races and events were held despite the wet and slippery condition of the field. Cuğa carried off the honor of the day by collecting 74½ points to their standard. Wellsville came second with a total of 61. Lack of a good track and good weather made the meet slow.

Remember the base ball game scheduled for Decoration Day. Support your High School Team by seeing this game. Silk Mill diamond, May 29, 1923.

A Day in Philadelphia

After breakfasting, we started out for our last day of sightseeing in large buses, which conveyed us through the city. After riding thru the principal streets, in which our guide pointed out to us the principal stores, noteworthy buildings and other points of interest, we went thru Fairmount Park.

This park is very large and very beautiful, covering about two hundred acres. The drive is very picturesque, winding in and out among the hills and all along the roadside are placed statues, among which are the Cowboy Statue and the Pam o' Shanter Group; two famous monuments, the Washington Monument and the Smith Memorial Monument are also located in this park. New Buildings were being erected and the grounds improved in preparation for centennial exposition, which will take place in 1926.

The home of William Penn is located in Fairmount Park. This is a small two-story house, and the first brick house built in America.

After leaving the park we went to Independence Hall, where Liberty Bell is kept, together with many other interesting things, among which was a silver ink-stand used by the signers of the Declaration of Independence.

We saw the United States Mint, but were unable to enter it, because of a new regulation made since the "hold-up" at the Denver mint, forbidding all visitors from entering the mint.

From the mint we went to a restaurant for lunch, after which we visited the Navy Yards. After our visit to the Navy Yards we went to John Wanamaker's store where we heard a concert on the pipe-organ, which is considered the largest in the world.

After eating dinner we went to the Pennsylvania Central station, where we took a homeward-bound train.

WHEN EVERY MOVE HURTS

Lame every morning, achy and stiff all day, worse when it's damp or chilly? Suspect your kidneys and try the remedy your neighbors use.

Ask your neighbor:

Extra Zeff, carpenter, Water St., Andover, says: "Heavy lifting and exposure weakened my whole system and as a result, I began to suffer with my kidneys. Every muscle in my back was drawn up and as lame and sore, as it could be. It was torture for me to bend over, because awful pains would catch me in my back every time I attempted to do so.

My kidneys were congested, and irregular in action. The secretions were highly colored and I had to get up several times at night to pass them. I began to use Doan's Kidney Pills and before long, they cured me of the trouble."

Price 60c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Zeff had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.
