

Make Clothes Comparisons

What we have to offer you in Suits is just this: individuality of pattern instead of insignificance; assurance of style instead of assumptions; a fit instead of a forfeit and—not least—good attention, instead of merely good intentions.

Nowhere else at an equal price can you find such intrinsic fine tailoring and such extrinsic fine looks as in our Stein-Bloch Smart, Cloth-craft Guaranteed and Griffon suits. It is the fine mettle of handiwork, not the dead metal of machine shirt.

Georgia peaches, Uneddas, sixes $1.75-3 most markets, $3.50-4 in Boston, $1.50-1.75 f. o. b. shipping points.

Dairy Products

Butter markets unsettled and irregular during week. Firmness early in week was followed by decline and later slight advances. At the close markets were no more than steady.

Foreign arrivals during week include 10,900 casks of Danish butter, 1,000 boxes of New Zealand unsalted and small shipments from Estonia and Ireland. Closing prices, 92 score butter: New York 39½c; Chicago 39c; Phila. 40½c; Boston 40½c. Cheese markets about steady. No active buying for storage has developed. Hot weather has affected quality of current productions and conditions of pastures are not the best despite recent rains. Wisconsin production close to peak. Prices at Wisconsin primary cheese markets June 9th: Daisies 24½c; Longhorns 24½c; Square Prints 26c.

Grain

Lack of outside interest and buying support counted heavily against values at times but local sentiment much less bearish and the close for the week was higher. Main influences were: Strength in northwestern markets; excessive rains in winter wheat territory and government report on wheat. Wheat advanced early on the 11th, but lost later under commission houses selling and profit taking. Trade light. Visible supply of wheat 31,315,000 bushels this year compared with 25,808,000 bu. last year. Visible supply of corn 5,246,000 bushels this year compared with 30,313,000 bushels last year. Closing prices in Chicago cash market: No. 2 red winter wheat $1.25; No. 2 hard winter wheat $1.14; No. 2 mixed corn 83c; No. 2 yellow corn 84c; No. 3 white oats 44c. Average farm prices: No. 2 mixed corn in Central Iowa 70c; No. 1 dark northern wheat in Central North Dakota 96c; No. 2 hard winter wheat in Central Kansas 94c. Closing future prices: Chicago July wheat $1.11½; Chicago July corn 81½c; Minneapolis July wheat $1.14½; Kansas City July wheat $1.03½; Winnipeg July wheat $1.16½.

Hay

Markets remain unusually firm for timothy and clover mixed hay because of light receipts. Clover dull and weak. New alfalfa being delayed by wet weather. Few cars arriving at Kansas City mostly out of condition. Old alfalfa and prairie stocks light.

Quote June: No. 1 timothy Boston $27, New York $27, Phila. $23, Pittsburgh $22, Cincinnati $20.50, Chicago $23.50, St. Louis $23.50, Atlanta $26. No. 1 alfalfa: Kansas City $25, Omaha $21.25, Memphis $20.
