

Sign-Boards on the Up-Road

By Hamilton B. Williams

THE FLAG.

Dawn's red-coated phalanx charging the darkness;
Campfires lurid among pine-trees;
Fire-spirits' writing abandon of freedom;
A flame of wild azaleas;
O pale and garnets and rubies;
Pionettes;
The glow of the heart-fire on the traveler's homing-track;
Bruised feet; torn hands;
Love's kiss so like a red rose at dawning;
The martyr's gate of exit: The prophet's garment ..... stained;
The Cross.
The Red in the Flag, my comrades.
A field of daisies rhythmic of vagrant winds;
A blooming cherry tree;
Lightning dancing upon cumulus clouds;
Star lanes;
The wings of homing doves flying into the west;

Moon-gleams upon a cirrus-sea;
Noon drowsing upon a lake of lilacs;
The sun's kiss upon the snows of high mountains;
A hedge of white roses;
The eyes of a girl when her lad came marching home;
The hair of a mother of warriors who died in a glorious battle;
The White in the Flag, my comrades.
Serene above the storm-blackness;
The deep heavens through rifted clouds;
Laurel slopes when the topaz turns to purple;
A clear lake and a June-twilight;
Bluebirds darting among hyacinths;
The loyal heliotrope;
The poet's Blue Star;
Azure-garbed souls of so valiant ones who climbed the hard road to the Morning Star.
Whence to their still-loved world they come to keep the sentry-go;
The troth of the Dreamer-behind-the Stars.
The Blue in the Flag, my comrades.

FORD IS THE POPULAR CANDIDATE FOR PRESIDENT

Full Report of Andover Voting Given Next Week

A noticeable steadying of the Harding vote was the outstanding feature of the third week returns in the Andover News nation-wide Presidential Voting Test.

Coming as it did with the President's start on his Alaskan trip and his speeches en route to the Pacific Coast, it indicates that the majority piled up by Ford in the first weeks of voting does not mean so much when his chief opponent swings into action. It also indicates that the President hit home on some of his recommendations and policies when he himself could explain them to the voters.

Ford maintained a steady pace in all sections of the country, but in few places, except in the Democratic South, his lead, if any, was by bare majorities, which would leave the choice in doubt until the last vote is counted.

This Presidential Election Voting Test, which the Andover News is conducting through its membership in the Publishers Autocaster Service of New York, closed Saturday evening, June 30. The final results from all states, and especially the Far Western states, will be published in these columns at an early date.

While Ford is leading Harding at this writing, 91,044 to 39,453, it is very likely the returns from the West and Northwest, where Harding was making speeches during the last week of the voting test, will cut down the lead very materially.

Ford majorities are very positive in Florida, Oklahoma, Pennsylvania, Minnesota, Missouri, Michigan (his home state), and Idaho. But in other states, where he is not led by the President, the vote is fairly even, and can not be accurately judged until the final votes are in.

Harding has a lead over Ford in New York, Illinois, Washington, Ohio, New Hampshire, Massachusetts and Maryland.

Early returns from Idaho gave Borah (its favorite son) 961 votes, but went to Ford with 1,117. The President is running a poor third there, with 112 votes.

The remarkable vote piled up for former President Wilson is of course a complimentary vote inasmuch as he will not be an active candidate for office.

The vote for McAdoo indicates a strong sentiment which Democratic leaders will undoubtedly give serious consideration.

True, Al Smith of New York is in third place and running close to Harding in this third week tabulation, but it must be considered that his own state, New York, has given him more than two thirds of its total vote to date. In the country at large McAdoo is running far ahead of Smith—and it would seem that he stood in a fair way to carry the Democratic banner if Ford is not the selection.

First returns from California show Ford and Harding in a neck-and-neck race the former 235 to the President's 221. Hiram Johnson, the favorite son, is running third with 175, while Herbert Hoover, another Californian, is given 24 votes.

Senator Reed of Missouri is a red-hot favorite in his own state. He leads Harding 1,537 to 341, but is himself topped by Ford with 2,473.

Oklahoma is overwhelmingly for Ford, but casts consistent ballots for former Governor Haskell.

Everyone of the twenty-nine states so far heard from, casts many and varied ballots for state sons and local favorites. The total of 5,291 votes, so cast, have been classified at this time. It must be admitted, however, that election is more than a full year away, and as to whether the voters will feel the same way and can force their choice through a major party convention, is of course another story.

DOGS

All Dog Licenses Expire on June 30. The 1923 License Fee is Due July 1st

Every dog must wear a tag of the current dog license year. A dog without a tag is presumptive evidence by law, and no action can be maintained for its injury or destruction.

An unlicensed dog may be seized and killed, and the fact that a dog is without a tag is presumptive evidence that the dog is unlicensed.

Dog licenses must be obtained from the Clerk of the city or town where the dog is harbored or kept.

License Fees are as Follows:
Male dog ..... $2.25
Female dog ..... 5.25
Spayed female dog ..... 2.25

These amounts include clerk's fees. No license can be issued for less than the full license fee.

The owner of a dog who fails or refuses to obtain a license for the dog as required by law incurs a penalty of $10.00 and costs.

The assessors of towns and the police departments of cities are required to prepare in June of each year a list of dog owners. The omission of the name of an owner from the assessors' or police list will not excuse the owner from obtaining a license.

Dog licenses in the Town of Andover are issued by Robert L. Brundage, Clerk, P. O. Address, Andover, N. Y.
