An Amazing Opportunity to Save Money Now!

On Sunday, June 24th there was a fire on the third floor of our building. The fire did not touch us, but some smoke and water got into our store. We have settled with the insurance companies and are now going to We have settled with the insurance companies and are now going to launch in Hornell the greatest sale of mens clothing and furnishings ever heard of. We have our insurance and can afford to be generous with the public. Understand, not an article in this store has been touched by fire. Water trickled down the sleeve of some of the coats. They have been restored to their original condition and we defy you to tell it. But we are going to sell these suits, as well as everything else in the store at prices that will enable you to stock up for a year or more. You simply cannot afford to overlook this chance. The goods are as good as ever but the prices are cut extremely low levels. tremely low levels.

We have always sold goods at fair prices but never have we been able to sacrifice merchandise at such prices as these.
