Most people consider it a great misfortune to lose their wealth, al-though such ill luck as that has its advantages. They can easily tell who are their friends.

When you think you are becoming great it is time to take heroic mea-sures to prevent shrinking.

The fellow who refuses to toe the mark has very little chance of pas-sing beyond it.

The Art of Selection

"A MAN is known by the company he keeps"—and equally he is known by the furniture he keeps and the good taste shown in the furnishing of his home.

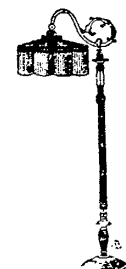

Every woman, when she is entertaining, is keenly conscious of the impression her home is making on her guests. She likes to feel the sense of assurance which comes from the knowledge that her home is furnished correctly and in good taste—that it expresses the modern note.

Contrary to the popular be-lief, expensive interior dec-oration is not necessary in achieving a well furnished home; the secret lies in "the art of selection," in choosing the right furniture for the right place—and here our experience and expert knowledge are at your service.

The Romance of Furniture

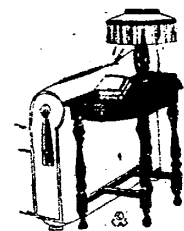

A MISUNDERSTOOD genius working in poverty in a dingy shop in London, Thomas Sheraton, created the famous straight-line style of furniture which immortalized his name, and which has never been excelled in the classic purity of its lines.

CREATE AN ATMOSPHERE OF CHARM
With New Lamps
Delightful porch lamps be-coming one to enjoy their soft light. Torchères for dark corners in the hall or foyer. Living room lamps that fit into all sorts of places. Bridge lamps that warm up the game, but keep one cool. In short, all sorts of lamps for all sorts of places and at all sorts of prices.

THE DREAM CHAIR
One reads about such chairs, yet here you have them with-in easy reach. One watches the flames from their capacious depths. Cozy, inviting—the sort of chairs that lure one to begin the new novel or to dream in absolute con-tentment.

THE DAVENPORT END TABLE
Try one beside your daven-port. What dignity and good taste it expresses! Ours are gracefully proportioned in period styles with beautifully carved legs and mellow sur-faces. A runner, a book or two, and a lamp. But equal-ly lovely severely plain. And certainly not expensive.
