ALFRED MAN IN

AUTO ACCIDENT.

Prof. Wm. H. Thomas of Alfred was a business visitor in Andover Saturday. "Bill" and his wife and son are just home from a visit in Scranton, Pa. On their homeward journey the "jinks" got them.

On the newly completed "Lackawanna Trail" running from Binghamton to Scranton, Pa., the top was of the asphalt type, and very slippery. Riding along as smooth as a top, the first thing he knew their car began to skid and was bottom side up. Mrs. Thomas received a broken collar bone. The son was thrown clear and Mr. Thomas was caught underneath but not seriously injured.

After the accident they were told that it was an every day occurrence on that road. Some times six or seven cars a day turned turtle.

The party was most fortunate to escape with their lives.
