

Columbus Day

October Twelfth

COLUMBUS' life and achievements are so rich with helpful lessons that it is difficult to stress any particular one upon this, his anniversary.

Shall we hold most significant that he sailed for the old Indies and found a new one, richer by far than the one that was his goal?

Or shall we pay homage to the courage that held him straight upon his course despite the influence of his companions?

Whichever we choose, no one can lose who applies to his own life the unquenchable ambition and unfaltering courage of Columbus, the discoverer of America.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

I'm gonna try to play the game,
And play it hard and play it fair,
I may not win, but just the same
I'm gonna try to do my share.
I'm gonna try to meet the test,
As well as some more clever guy,
But while my heart beats in my chest
I'm gonna try—Ex.

—Frank Jackson of Angelica has a broken arm and numerous wounds and bruises caused by a fall down the cellar stairs.

—Everyone will attend the firemen's supper at I. O. O. F. Banquet Hall, Wednesday evening. Of course you'll be there. Let's go!

—Mr. and Mrs. Van William Coombs have a little daughter, born last Monday. Mrs. Van Coombs was formerly Miss Mildred Whitcomb.

—Hunting season opened on rabbits and partridges, Monday with the usual early morning cannonading on the nearby hills, squirrel season does not open until the 15th this year.

—Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Baker and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Burgett and children moved from their residence on Chestnut Street into the basement of the Atwood apartment this week.

—We are informed by Andover's coal dealer, W. F. O'Connell, that coal will be 70 cents a ton higher this winter than last, owing to the advance in the miners wages as a result of the recent strike.

—Could Think Only of One Kind of Weight.—The young father was rejoicing visibly over the advent of his first son. Early in the morning he was proudly in evidence at the front gate when the iceman appeared.

—Mr. and Mrs. Baldwin of Wellsville formerly Margaret Paden are rejoicing over the arrival of a son, born Saturday.

—The Ladies Aid Society of the Presbyterian Church will meet Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock with Mrs. J. M. Brundage.

—Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Fuller entertained a number of young people at cards Tuesday evening, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Leo S. Snyder.

—Mr. and Mrs. Leon Eldridge have a little son, born last Saturday. Mrs. Eldridge and babe are at Mrs. Gardener's on Rochambeau Avenue, for care.

—Mr. and Mrs. Porter Richardson are moving from the Trainor building on Main Street to the flat, recently vacated by Prof. Tubbs, in the Atwood apartment, this week.

—"Billy" Sunday, will be in Buffalo, Monday evening, Oct. 8th, to give the opening address at the annual meeting of the Church of the Evangelistic Association in the Broadway Auditorium.

—Comrade C. F. Davis suffered a serious attack at his home on Elm Street, Wednesday from which he rallied later in the day. Mr. Davis has been confined to the house by ill health for several months.

—The herd of Ayrshires of L. M. and H. O. Dennis of Jasper is making a fine record at the N. Y. State Fairs. This herd took all firsts at the Cuba fair, followed it up with the premiums at the big Batavia fair.

—F. D. Rice of Wellsville is to erect a brick and concrete building on Jefferson Street in that village which is to be leased to the government for a post office. It is expected the building will be completed by January first.

—Train 8's mail is now being closed at 6 P. M. because of the closing of the Erie Depot between trains 541 and 8, leaving no place for the mail to be kept between the Post Office closing time and train time. So hereafter all mails close at 6 P. M.

—Some one careless or criminal took a shot at the truck driven by Fred Crookston, near Elm Valley recently. Harry Steinworth was in the truck beside Crookston. When just this side of Elm Valley a rifle shot came crashing thru the windshield throwing the glass all over the men.

—When the fire comes to you and the Andover department comes rushing to your property and saves you thousands of dollars of damage, don't be in a position to have to hang your head in shame because you were stingy with your patronage at their fair next Tuesday and Wednesday. Better over do it a little than to have to regret.

—The weather man served up a medley of sunshine, rain and hail on Thursday.

—Major E. Kemp has been transferred from Savannah, Ill., to Augusta Arsenal, Augusta, Ga.

—Remember the date, Oct. 25, Grange Fair and supper. Menu of supper in next week's issue of the News.

—Ruth, the young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Olin E. Jones of Wellsville fractured her arm while at play Saturday.

—Mrs. Wm. Woodruff delightfully entertained the Delta Rho Club at a 7 o'clock dinner, at her home last Friday evening.

—There will be a joint meeting of the three divisions of the King's Daughters, Thursday evening at 7:30 with Mrs. Guy S. Wood.

—A machine that picks up potatoes from the fields and crates them invented by a LeRoy man, was an exhibition at the Batavia fair.

—Remember the Hook & Ladder Company Fair Tuesday and Wednesday evening. You owe it to our gallant firemen to be liberal in your patronage.

—The canvas of the village for the Near East Relief was made by the ladies of the First Baptist and Seventh Day Baptist Churches and resulted in the sum of one hundred and twelve dollars ($112.)

—A man said this morning: "Within twelve years a majority of the oil wells in New York will be pumped by power generated by Niagara Falls. Electrical pumping is coming just as sure as the sun shines and rain falls."

—A special meeting of the Past Grands Council I. O. O. F., is called to meet at Fillmore, at Odd Fellows Hall, Friday evening, Oct. 26. Every companion in the county is requested to be present. The meeting is for the conferring of the degree upon a large class of candidates.

—The Bolivar Breeze of last week published a fine picture of the late Mrs. Mary Hatch, who passed from life Sept. 24th at the age of 102. The write-up says Mrs. Hatch was a fine old lady dearly loved in the family circle as well as the entire community. Her picture fully merits the compliment.

—$8,000 is to be expended on the swamp land between Canaseraga and Arkport, on a drainage ditch which will restore the fertility of about 700 acres of rich celery land, and add three more acres to that already drained. The money for the enterprise is being contributed by the farmers living in that section.

—F. G. Mead and son, Lloyd Mead have registered "Elm Valley" as the name of their farm with the Ayrshire Breeders Association and will hold the exclusive right to its use in registering records of their Ayrshire stock, John M. Lewis of Alfred Station has secured the same rights by registering the name of his farm as "Orchard Dale."

—Plan to attend the Masonic & Eastern Star Fair and Supper Nov. 15th.

—Edward Seaman Relief Corps Saturday night.

—Mr. and Mrs. Squire Vinton Vaughn of Cuba celebrated their Golden Wedding Anniversary Sept. 24th.

—The annual session of Allegany County Federation of Women's Clubs will be held in Belmont October 10th and 11th.

—Edward Rutherford has a peach tree on which has ripened a crop of fine peaches; the tree is five years old from the pit. It began to blossom on May 4, after that and while the tree was covered with blossoms with ice and snow two nights. Mr. Rutherford placed a lighted oil stove under the tree on occasions of very hard frost. The peaches are large and of fine flavor. —Belfast Blaze.

—It may not pay to advertise, but Henry Ford has allotted $7,000,000 to be spent during the coming year to advertise Ford products. Mr. Ford says "his advertising is not to go on billboards, nor in booklets, bills or on movie screens but every cent in newspaper advertisement," which he claims is the strongest advertising media in American, and vertising media to turn a dollar.

—Ford knows how to turn a dollar. "Twenty-five pounds?" inquired the iceman.

—"No," said the excited parent "eight and three-quarters."

—An interesting program is being prepared for the Masonic and Eastern Star Fair, Nov. 15th.

You can't make good vinegar with poor mother. It should be light colored and clear. If it is tough, leathery brown mass don't put it in the barrel.

OFFICIAL VISITS

Mrs. Mary Warfield, Rebekah District Deputy President is making her official visits to the lodges in her district and installing their officers. Mrs. Warfield is accompanied by her suite, Mrs. Clara Childs, Mrs. Frances Beebe, Mrs. Emma Clair, Mrs. Mertie Trowbridge, Mrs. Laura Witter, Mrs. Vinnie Vickers, Mrs. Fannie Backus. Monday night they were at Belmont, Wednesday night at Whitesville and tonight at Wellsville.

TWO FIRES IN AN HOUR

The Andover fire department was called out twice within an hour Sunday morning to extinguish fires from burning automobiles. The first was an Overland owned by Peter Johnson. He was filling his tank at the Parker Garage, allowing the engine to run idle. A spark from the wiring set fire to the gasoline. The second was a car at the Henry Joyce farm home about 2 miles from Andover. The car was destroyed before the firemen arrived, but they assisted in keeping the fire from spreading to the buildings.
