Error in last week's paper made us say that Dr. S. L. Stallard left city life for the country town because of his wife's death. It should have been said because of his wife's health. Mistakes will happen and we are always only too glad to rectify them.

HELP THE OLD FOLKS

A Helping Hand Extended to Many Old People in Andover.

The infirmities of age are many. Most people have a bad back. The kidneys are often weak. Or worn out with years of work. Backache means days of misery. Urinary troubles, nights of unrest. Doan's Kidney Pills have helped to make life easier for many. They are doing so for old and young.

Andover people are learning this. Read the following local endorsement.

Henry Horan, farmer, Chestnut Street, Andover, says: "I had dull pains in my back and when I stooped over, I was taken with sharp, stabbing pains across my kidneys which made it hard to straighten. Lots of mornings I was hardly able to get around as my muscles were lame and stiff. My kidneys became weak and caused me to rise several times

If you can't smile, don't scowl. You can generally get by on a poker face.

Farm and Stock Mart

eastern wholesale fresh meat markets beef weak to $2 lower; veal $2 lower; lamb $2-4 lower; mutton weak to $1 lower and pork $4 net lower for the week. On Oct. 1 at Boston choice lamb was $1 higher; New York lamb and pork $1-2 higher, beef 50c to $1 and veal steady to $1 higher. At Philadelphia beef, veal and mutton $1 higher; lamb and pork $2 up. October 1 prices good grade meats: Beef $15-17.50; veal $18-23; lamb $21-25; mutton $13-14; light pork $22-25; heavy hams $15-21.

Hay

Central western hay markets generally firm. Eastern markets slightly lower except for No. 1 timothy the supply of which is reported low. Light receipts in all markets. Farm work restricting movement. Southern buying of small volume because of present prices. Quoted Sept. 29, No. 1 timothy, Boston $28, New York $28.50, Pittsburgh $24.50, Memphis $26, Cincinnati $23, St. Louis $24.50.

Feed

Markets continue quiet. Demand for wheatfeeds slow, offerings liberal. Flour trade good and heavier production of wheatfeeds looked for. Corn meal stocks and movement heavy. Mills experiencing difficulty in obtaining shipping directions. Corn feeds production heavy, demand fair, prices firm. Prices most feeds easier with interior trade fairly well stocked and buying only small quantities.

Grain

Wheat closed higher and lower alternately during the week nevertheless prices worked upward and finished at net gains. Strength in corn reduced Canadian wheat estimates and farmers relief measures principal factors. Oct. 1 wheat advanced to new high on present upturn after small decline early. There was buying by strong commission houses which discouraged short selling but principal factor was strength in corn. Visible supply of wheat 63,932,000 bushels compared with 32,354,000 bushels last year. Visible supply of corn 2,052,000 bushels compared with 12,206,000 bushels last year. Closing prices in Chicago cash market: No. 2 red winter wheat $1.08; No. 2 hard winter wheat $1.12; No. 2 mixed corn 93c; No. 2 yellow corn 93c; No. 3 white oats 43c. Average farm prices: No. 2 mixed corn in central Iowa 80c; No. 2 hard winter wheat in central Kansas 95c. Closing future prices: Chicago December wheat $1.06 3/4; Chicago December corn 74 1/4 c; Minneapolis December wheat 1.16 1/4; Kansas City December wheat $1.04 1/4.

Dairy Products

Butter market firm at the close today at prices about 1/2c higher, following breaks in prices and uneasiness earlier in the week. Decline in the make has apparently been checked but production is not showing any important increase. Foreign butter in this country being held for better market, with no new arrivals. Wholesale price 92 score today: New York 47c; Chicago 45c; Phila. 48c; Boston 47c. Cheese markets firm at prices about 1c higher than a week ago. Demand somewhat dull as the result of the advance, but up to the time these occurred it was good; even including some speculative buying. Heaviest trading took place at distributing markets with business at country points a little quiet. Wholesale prices at Wisconsin primary markets Sept. 29: Single Daisies 26c; Longhorns 26 1/2 c; Square Prints 27 1/2 c.
