I, too, have suffered chills fatigue and kindred ills, trying to pay the bills since thou wert mine. Gone is my bank roll now; no more 'twould choke a cow, as once before. Yet if I had the yen, son help me John—amen! I'd buy a car again and speed some more. (Adapted from Bay City Motorist.)

ANTHEM

My auto 'tis of thee, short cut to poverty—of thee I chant. I blew a pile of dough on you three years ago, now you refuse to go—or won't or can't. Thru town and countryside I drove thee full of pride; no, charm you lacked. I loved your gaudy hue, your tires so round and new—now I feel mighty blue, the way you act. To thee, old rattlebox, came many bumps and knocks; for thee I grieve. Badly thy top is torn; frayed are thy seats and worn; the croup affects thy horn, I do believe. Thy perfume swells the breeze, while good folks choke and sneeze, as we pass by. I paid for thee a price, 'twould buy a mansion twice; now
