Cuba Post of the American Legion will make a great day of it and wishes the co-operation of every Legion member, every ex-service man and every citizen who can come to Cuba on November 12. A wonderfully complete program has been prepared to last from Reveille to Taps (which will not be sounded until long after the usual time). There will be a liberal supply of hot dogs, confetti, and everything that goes with a good time.

The program will be as follows:

This Is Going to Be One of Those Days You Couldn't Forget if You Tried

The Military Parade at 1 P. M. Monday will include all Legion Posts and ex-Service Men in the county, the Women's Auxiliary, various Societies, and floats designed by business houses, organizations or individuals. Also a 50-Piece Fife and Drum Corps from Olean High School.
Prizes will be awarded the Post having the largest number of uniformed men (either Legion men or other ex-Service Men to be counted), for best floats and best trimmed auto.
The Parade will be the largest of its kind ever appearing in the county, and will be well worth seeing.
The afternoon parade will terminate at Chamberlains Park.

where a mighty battle will ensue—on the gridiron: Cuba High School vs. the Legion team. According to all accounts, while the old-timers are a bit short on wind, they have a barrage of forward passes, on-side kicks and other crafty plays, and their supporters, it is rumored, will launch a gas attack from the side lines, led by Cheer Leader Hopkins, which will drown out even the adjectives of the Maroon and Gray.
The Luncheon at 6 P. M. will be served in the Legion Rooms and is for all ex-Service Men, whether Legion members or not.
At the Mardi-Gras Parade, 7 P. M., all Cuba and neighboring towns will be out in masquerade costumes. If you have ever wondered what might be the sensation of being a King, a Queen, a Jack, a Mermaid or even the Old Boy himself, now is your chance to find out. And don't forget to provide yourself with plenty of confetti for the Mardi-Gras Parade—remember, your best protection from attack is to have plenty of good ammunition yourself.

The Grand Masquerade Ball at 9 P. M. will be in Keller Hall. Those who have heard the Williams Brothers Orchestra will appreciate that here will be some real music and a jazzing good time.
