

It's Keeping it Up That Counts

In saving, like in so many things, it's keeping it up that counts.

Your first few deposits won't take you far, but regular deposits can eventually take you anywhere you want to go.

Don't let anything interfere with your savings program. If the weather is bad, or you are too busy to come personally to the bank, send your deposits by mail.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

—Old papers 5c per bundle at News Office.

—The Eastern Star and Masonic Fair last Thursday was well attended and netted the fraternity $370 above expense.

—Arthur W. Shaner of Bolivar has been appointed Supervisor from that town to fill out the unexpired term of E. M. Strayer who has resigned on account of ill health.

—The defeated side entertained the winners of a contest in Edward's Seaman Relief Corps at G. A. R. Hall, Tuesday evening. A jolly evening was enjoyed by the company.

—Work of the repair gang on the State Highway has been closed down for the winter. The state road is in fine condition this fall and unless the winter's frosts put it out of commission will be in good shape to begin another seasons grind next spring.

—Thanksgiving Day promises to be a very pleasant event at Odd Fellows Hall for the members of Rebekah Lodge and their families. The committee in charge are looking after all details to insure a good time and request that all members wishing to attend hand their name to Mrs. Wm. Childs, Chairman.

—In renewing his News, Maj. E. E. Kemp says: "Time flies! by glancing at your old records you will note that this is the twentieth year that the News has followed me from place to place in Uncle Sam's service." Major Kemp is among those of our men who have made fine records of their life work and of whom we are justly proud. Mr. and Mrs. Kemp have always been loyal to Andover and her interests a fact which we appreciate.

God's Word Regarding Present Conditions and a Charge to His Children.

"This know also, that in the last days perilous times shall come. For men shall be lovers of their own selves, covetous, boasters, proud, blasphemous, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy; ever learning and never able to come to the knowledge of the truth. Continue thou in the things which thou has learned; and hast been assured of, knowing of whom thou hast learned them; and that from a child thou hast known the holy Scriptures which is in Jesus Christ. All Scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness; that the man of God may be perfect and thoroughly furnished unto all good works. I charge thee therefore before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, who shall judge the quick and the dead at His appearing and His kingdom, preach the Word. For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine, but after their own lusts will they heap to themselves teachers having itching ears; and they shall turn their ears from the truth and they shall be turned into fables. (II Timothy 3:1-4:4.)

THE BAPTIST CHURCH
Stands for Loyalty to the Word of God

—The annual fall crop of epidemic colds are prevalent about the village.

—Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Hann have both been ill the past week with grippe.

—The Five Hundred Club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Regan Wednesday night.

—Mrs. Grace Brodie, wife of Supervisor Frank Brodie of Ward township died at the Wellsville hospital Monday morning.

—Edward Seaman Relief Corps shipped a barrel of canned fruit and a basket of apples to the Oxford Home last week. Oxford is the state home for the wives and widows of Civil War Veterans.

—Hubert Whitney has moved his family from the Kellenberger home on Water Street into the house with his mother, Mrs. Hattie Whitney, on Grove Street.

—Wesley Irish, 16 year old son of Wallace Irish of Centerville was killed while hunting last week. The ad tripped and fell, discharging the gun and receiving fatal wounds.

—Nearly every weekly newspaper, in a list of many reviewed the past week, contained a shooting accident of some nature. Hunters should use every precaution while in the woods, which are now filled with others out for the same purpose.

—A Ford car, driven by Edward Eger of Hornell, went over the bank at Tip Top last week Thursday night, to the railway track below. Several friends of the city were with him while all were bruised and shaken. Francis Watt, of Elmwood Place was the only one seriously injured.

—The next meeting of the Andover Chamber of Commerce will be held at Masonic dining room, Dec. 6th. It will be ladies night when all members will bring along their "girls" and get acquainted with the other fellows "better halves." A fine good time is being arranged. The entertainment committee will put you wise to all arrangements.

—Andover had a wave of excitement Monday afternoon when policeman Wyckoff was called upon to take care of Jimmie Sweet and a lad from the gypsy camp above town who, it is claimed were intoxicated and using foul language on the street. The gypsy was locked up but Sweet got away from the officer and last seen was sprinting toward Wellsville. Several shots, fired by the officer brot people to the street and created some discussion.

RED TRIANGLE LEAGUE RUN

The boys of the Red Triangle League of Wellsville, Andover, Alfred Station and Alfred Center on Thanksgiving morning will carry a message by relays from Wellsville to President Davis at Alfred University. Each boy will carry the message for one-half mile. Get out and cheer the boys along.

JOHN B. RATTO

For nearly twenty years John B. Ratto, famous impersonator, has devoted himself to the Lyceum and Chautauqua. During this time he has filled over 3,500 engagements and has earned an enviable record of achievement not only through his splendid artistry, but also because of his earnest attachment to the ideals of these two great institutions.

Mr. Ratto presents his characters in make-up, penning in full view of his audience, telling an appropriate story the while. Penning finished, he turns to the table mirror, adjusts his wig and faces about to surprise his audience with the accuracy of a character distinct in appearance, speech and action, and with a personality all its own.

Mr. Ratto's programs are full of life and action with not a dull moment. They consist of the types of characters one meets in everyday life or of men past and present.
