Make it an Old Fashioned Xmas

Out of Town Folks
Week
September 7 to 14th

We want more out-of-town folks to come to this great Christmas Store than ever before. We want them to come early while assortments are most complete and shopping conditions more pleasant than during the last great rush. We want to make their visit here an enjoyable one.

And so we have chosen Friday, Dec. 7th to Friday, Dec. 14th, as Out-of-Town Folks Week and will serve

A Delicious Luncheon
In Our New Tea Room
WITHOUT CHARGE

to all out-of-town folks who make purchases in our store amounting to ten dollars or more. This proposition is but one of the many Christmas Time Services provided by this store.

When you arrive in the store ask for an Out-of-Town Folks Buying Ticket. Upon this will be entered your various purchases and you will be entitled to a delicious luncheon served in Our Tea Room if your purchases amount to $10.00 or more. If there is more than one in your party there will be a luncheon certificate provided for every ten dollars purchased, so that all will be served if the combined purchases average ten dollars for each one in the party. This also affords you an opportunity of becoming acquainted with our New Tea Room.

We also invite you to make use of our rest rooms, telephone and other conveniences found here for the use of out-of-town patrons.

Come to Babcock's
Out-of-Town Folks Week
Dec. 7th to 14th

How vital a thing is the spirit of Christmas! Into the drabness of a work-day existence it infuses its vivid cheer and hearty fellowship.

The spirit of Christmas permeates The Babcock Store and the Babcock organization once more. Cuttings wait from the south seas have been collected. For we have drawn upon our widely diversified sources to bring you fine gifts, unique, exquisitely personal gifts which will carry delight to the possessor and remain a satisfaction to the giver.

And there is a variety that only a great store like this can provide.

We place ourselves at your service whole-heartedly—and invite you to make use of the cordial and genuine Christmas spirit of this store.

Let's make it an old-fashioned Christmas.
