GREENWOOD

N. E. COSTON IS TAKEN BY DEATH

Vice-President of Hornell Fair and Leading Business Man Dies Suddenly

N. Emmet Coston, a life-long resident of Greenwood, died quite suddenly about 8:30 o'clock Monday morning at his home in Greenwood. He had been sick since last Tuesday.

Mr. Coston was perhaps one of the best known residents of that locality. He was born in the town of Greenwood and for upwards of forty years had resided in the village. However, he was an active business man and was well known throughout this section.

For years he was a successful farmer and cattle breeder and the Coston farm on the Bennett-Greenwood road is one of the finest in this section. Although Mr. Coston did not live on the farm himself, he was perhaps best known as a breeder of high-grade Holstein cattle having been an active member of the Allegany - Steuben Holstein - Friesian Breeders Club. He was at one time president of the club.

He was also treasurer of the New York & Pennsylvania railroad and a member of the board of directors. For years he has been a vice president of the Hornell Fair Association and up to a few years ago one of the principal exhibitors. He was president of The Coston Company which has stores in Hornell, Greenwood and Addison and identified with many other business enterprises.

Although he had taken no active interest in politics of late he was at one time supervisor from the town of Greenwood and served a term as postmaster of the village under President Cleveland. He was a staunch Democrat, however, and always stood loyally by the party.

He was a member of Sentinel Lodge F. & A. M. of Greenwood and besides his widow is survived by two daughters, Misses Mary and Sabra Coston of Rochester and a son, Pitt Coston of Hornell. He also leaves a sister, Mrs. Fernis Williamson of Hutchinson, Kan., to mourn his loss. The funeral was held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the house in Greenwood and interment was in the Greenwood cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Fisher and Madam Reynolds of Hornell, were callers in town Friday.

Ordo Williamson was a caller at Young Hickory, Saturday. The divorce suit of Mrs. Sara Brownell against her husband, James Brownell, was tried in Hornell last week. The jury returned a verdict of no cause for action.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Caffery passed the week-end with her aunt, Mrs. Clara Emery of 171 Woodward avenue, Buffalo.

Mrs. Fay Taylor passed Thursday with Mrs. Clair Updyke.

Ed Spencer of Bennetts was a caller in town Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Stephens passed Friday with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cook of Woodard Hollow.

Monroe Ackley of Erskins Hollow went to Hornell, Saturday to meet his daughter, who is on her way from New York to Chicago.

Matt Rogers and Jesse Atkins of West Hill, passed Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. John Rogers, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Davenport of Canisteo, called on friends in town Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Stephens and George Stephens were business callers in Hornell Saturday.

Vena King and Sam of Slate Creek were callers in town Saturday.

Miss Mary Coston of Rochester and Miss Sabra of Newark, N. J., were called home Sunday by the illness of their father, N. E. Coston.

Pointees are moving freely here at seventy-five cents.

Dr. Vaughn of Arcade was called to see Mr. Coston Sunday.

Mrs. L. M. Bennett is very ill at this writing.

Medium and good leaf steers 15c lower to 40c higher at $8.10-11.35; butcher cows and heifers 15-25c lower at $3.50-11. Feeder steers steady to 25c higher at $4.50-8; light and medium weight veal calves 50c-$1 off at $9-12. Fat lambs steady to 5c higher at $11.75-13.85; feeding lambs 25c net higher at $11.25-13; yearlings steady at $9-12 and fat ewes steady at $5-8.25. Stocker and feeder shipments from 12 important markets during the week ending Jan. 14 were: Cattle and calves 25,639; hogs 5,922; sheep 22,689. In eastern wholesale fresh meat markets beef is 50c to $1 lower; veal $2 higher to $4 lower; mutton $1 lower to $1 higher and pork lions weak to $1 lower. Jan. 14 prices good grade meats: Beef $15-18; veal $16-22; lamb $21-25; mutton $14-17; light pork lions $15-17; heavy lions $11-14.

Fruits and Vegetables

Potatoes firm in New York. 35c-10c lower in Chicago. Eastern round whites closed at $1.75-2 sacked and bulk per 100-pounds-east.

A. L. Trowbridge, J. G. F. E. Carney, P. G. Menzo Knight, R. S. V. G. Clarence Webster, L. S. V. G. After the installation, supper was served by a committee.

Markets mostly $1.65 f.o.b. situation, as lifeless. Few important changes in prices. Activity noted in southwest where mixers absorbed substantial lots of wheatfeeds not reflected in northwest and northeast. Stocks of oil meals liberal but owners do not appear to press offerings. Prices of oil meals shade easier.

Grain

Wheat markets steady, future prices practically unchanged for week. Good demand for cash wheat and receipts very light. Corn prices very firm, future prices up 2c for week and cash prices about 3c higher. Oats market steady. Receipts both corn and oats light. Quoted Jan. 14: No. 1 dark northern spring Minneapolis $1.14-1.28. No. 2 hard winter Chicago $1.09-1.12; Kansas City $1.09-1.20; St. Louis $1.10-1.11. No. 2 red winter Chicago $1.13.
