

AMONG OUR NEIGHBORS

South Hill

The week past has been one of extreme winter weather, one zero blizzard following another in quick succession, but with a good gas supply we have survived.

The stork weathered the blizzard last week to deposit a new babe at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Ordway.

Mrs. Robert Dean spent some days recently with her mother and sister in Andover.

Mr. and Mrs. Eggert are enjoying a fine new radio set which was installed in their residence recently by Frank Graves of Andover.

Francis Casey of Genesee was a business visitor on the hill last Thursday.

Mrs. J. Sauter of Hornell and Mrs. J. D. Wagner of Wellsville spent Thursday and Friday of last week at the P. A. Dean home.

Dr. Wells of Andover was a professional visitor on the hill last week.

Frank Halsey is a frequent visitor on the hill where his father is seriously ill, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Kenyon.

P. A. Dean died last Friday at his home here after a three-week illness. He was our oldest and one of our most prosperous farmers, closely identified with South Hill, having spent nearly his life time of 76 years here. His death leaves a void in the home, indeed, and in the very thin ranks of our "older" residents and we each mourn him as a friend and a good neighbor in every sense of the word. Our people honored his memory by attendance at the funeral services at Blessed Sacrament Church, Andover on Tuesday. Owing to the very bad condition of the hill roads it was that wise to remove the remains to the home of his daughter, Mrs. M. T. Garvin of Andover, from whence the funeral was held Tuesday.

Lane School District

Mrs. Ralph Perry spent last week visiting relatives in Belmont.

John Briggs was a caller on Davis Hill Sunday.

Clarence Slaght was a caller in Purdy Creek Friday.

School was closed Wednesday Thursday and Friday for teachers' conference at Hornell.

Carl Childs was a guest of Wilmer Crook and family Sunday night.

Mrs. Francis Bloss spent Friday in Andover.

Those taking and passing state exams were Gertrude Briggs and Virgil Slaght.

One passing Regents was Howard Pease.

The highest number earned in Health Club was 76. Four received this mark.

Perfect spellers for this week: Clifford Walden, Virgil Slaght, Gertrude Briggs, Willie Pease, Gordon Pease, Everett Briggs, Jessamine Briggs.

Perfect attendance for this month: Howard Pease.

To indicate good "business sense" in the way you advertise for work is a strong recommendation, of itself.

Miss Ruth Bartlett is attending teachers conference at Hornell three days this week so the pupils are having a vacation.

Jesse Grossman and daughters were in Wellsville on business Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Clarke entertained at dinner Tuesday it being their wedding anniversary.

Prof. Ralph Felton Specialist in Recreation from state college of agriculture will hold a community meeting at Standards in the Methodist Church, Feb. 5 at 8 o'clock P. M. Everybody come for fun for all old and young.

R. R. Murry of the Clover Leaf Oil Co., spent several days last week on the lease.

Mrs. George Colebert and Mrs. Carl Tracy attended Ladies' Aid work meeting last Thursday at Mrs. David Chapins of Whitesville.

Our cold wave which registered below zero for three different days last week, has caused the pumps lots of extra work.

Mrs. Alvin Edwards is confined to her bed at this time of writing.

Adam McGraw continues about the same.

Sheridan Austin spent Thursday at his oil lease, below Whitesville.

ing prices on potatoes and quoted figures to prove his statement. He invited New York State potato-growers to come to Caribou, Maine, to look into the Maine Exchange thoroughly. He stated that their books were open at all times and that he personally would be glad to assist in every way possible in the formation of a New York State potato and cabbage association.

Mr. E. H. Babcock, Manager of the G. L. F. Exchange was next called upon for remarks. Mr. Babcock stated he believed the plans for organizing New York State cabbage and potato growers are sound. He urged every one present to take a hold of the campaign aggressively. He pointed out that the leadership of Messrs. Farrar, Livermore and Steele was not enough, but it was necessary for every one present to take an active part in the campaign.

Manager Babcock stated that New York State farmers own the co-operative associations of this state and it is to their own interest to support them vigorously and aggressively.

The Executive Committee which met following the meeting of the General Organization Committee elected the following officers: Chairman, K. C. Livermore, Honeyoy Falls; the first vice chairman, S. T. Strivings, Castile; second vice chairman, Ora Lee, Knowlesville. The other members of the committee elected were Messrs. E. P. How It Is Built, Is the Thing to Build On!

WHY put up with makeshifts, when masterpieces cost but little more?
Why buy furniture that merely looks good, when it is easy to own the kind that really is good?

Why pay money for mere wood and varnish when you can have genuine quality that goes through and through?

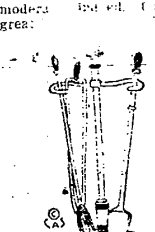

Why be satisfied with anything less than the sound, sincere craftsmanship that assures a ripe old age to any piece of furniture you buy here?

Why, indeed? The only way to build satisfaction through the year is to build your investment on furniture that is built RIGHT!

The Fireside Chair

On long winter evenings the fireside chair is perhaps the most appreciated bit of furniture in the home. It is in the air and a real comfort reached from their cozy depths. Plans, too, become clearer. We have these chairs upholstered in various materials. Their prices are moderate. The old, the new, the great.

Small Pieces of Furniture are Large in Importance

Certainly not commensurate with their size, is the importance of these small bits of furniture. For they play a large part in furnishing the home with beauty and charm. We could tell you of the delightful tables in all shapes and sizes. Of the lamps that shed their light in all tones. Of the chairs that are as useful as they are decorative. But we won't for only by seeing them for yourself can you realize their charm. Can't you drop in and see?

BOOKS Are Needed More After Christmas

The books you receive as gifts: the books you save bought for winter reading: the books that have not an appropriate reading place as yet, suggest the purchase of a new bookcase. Sectional bookcases to match those you have or the start of a new stack; portable bookcases to carry out an artistic scheme in furnishing; you may choose here at most easy prices.
