WILL ERIE TAKE OVER RAILROAD?

Directors of N. Y. & P. to Urge That it be Included in Merger.

The Canisteo correspondent of the Hornell Tribune Times is authority for the following:

Canisteo, March 3.—A meeting of the board of directors of the New York & Pennsylvania Railroad will be held in this village tomorrow afternoon to consider the including of the railroad in the consolidation plan of the Interstate Commerce Commission. It is also reported that ways and means for keeping the road in operation until the consolidation is put into effect will also be discussed.

The future of the road depends almost entirely on what happens to it under the consolidation scheme that is now being worked out. If the road is consolidated with the Erie and made a part of the huge system it will mean new life for the line but if it is left out in the cold it will probably mean its death.

Consequently the directors are to meet here tomorrow to consider what effort will be made to see that the road is included. If it is linked up with the Erie it will probably be rebuilt so that it will be able to handle some of the heavy traffic, leaving the main line here and joining with it again at Olean. It is a low grade road and could be used to good advantage by the Erie but not until it had been practically rebuilt.

It is also quite certain that passenger service will be provided if the Erie should gain control and no doubt the trains would start from the Hornell station. The conference tomorrow will be an important one for the future of the line depends largely upon what is done. It is expected that ways and means will be provided for keeping the road in operation until a definite decision is reached for to abandon it now would mean complete loss.

WASTED EFFORT

Baby was going on at a great rate and the father of the family finally demanded to know what the youngster was crying about.

"He wants his own way," responded the child's mother.

"Eh?"

"And he can't have it."

"Yes, he might as well get that idea out of his head at the start," said the old man, grimly.

We welcome YOU to all the services of OUR church.

OSTAL CARD GETS YOU THIS STORY

"The Desert Healer," a smashing new love-romance by Edith Maude Hull, who wrote "The Sheik," has just started in the daily New York American. In many respects "The Desert Healer" is a greater novel than "The Sheik." It is a story of love and passion in the desert and a succession of thrills from beginning to end. If you will send a postal card request addressed to the Fiction Department, New York American, New York, N. Y., you will be forwarded a free tabloid reprint of the first six days' installment of "The Desert Healer," by return mail. It's a story that everybody who loves excitement will enjoy. WHAT IT COSTS AMERICA TO BE AMUSED

Approximately $715,170,000 was expended in the United States during the twelve months ended with August for entertainment at the movies, circuses, prize-fights, music and dramatic performances, baseball and other varieties of professional entertainment, according to data compiled by the Treasury Department. Although this total is an estimate, it is known to be decidedly close to the actual expenditure, since it is based on taxes received from admission to places of entertainment. The tax, being a flat levy of ten per cent. on all admission charges exceeding ten cents per person, means a Federal revenue of approximately $6,000,000 a month. The average is rising.

As an instance, expenditures in August, for amusement rose to $55,610,000, a gain of eight per cent. over July, and an increase of nearly twenty per cent. over August 1922.

Since then the increase has been steady. December, according to tax receipts, represents the peak month for the theater business. Last December, a total of $68,250,000 passed into the tills of the theaters. The flow this December will run above $75,000,000, it is predicted.

Feed

Slightly firmer tendency noted for wheat bran but other feeds draggy. Linseed oil meal strong as a result of better export inquiry. Cottonseed meal dull and lower. Gluten feed steady at recent advance of $1 and hominy feed price unchanged to 50c per ton higher.

Dairy Products

Butter markets unsettled during week. Operators lack confidence and current demand sufficient to clear heavy arrivals on the markets. Production apparently somewhat lighter, but quality better. Heavy imports continued. Closing wholesale prices on 92 score butter today: New York 48 1/2; Chicago 47 1/2; Philadelphia 49c; Boston 49 1/2. Cheese markets continue unsettled with trading quiet. Buyers cautious and critical. Further slight declines in prices have occurred. Closing prices at Wisconsin primary markets March 1: Flats 21 1/2; Single Daisies 21c; Double Daisies 20 1/2; Longhorns 20 1/2.

JACKSONVILLE POWER FORD SELLS FERTILIZER TOO MUCH RELIGION A 50 MILLION DOLLAR BRYAN OUR RUM RUNNING PROBLEM

To Mayors of Cities:

Go to Jacksonville, Florida—this is written in that city—call on Mayor Alsop, and learn about Jacksonville's municipally owned electric light and power plant.

There is no cheap water power in Jacksonville—oil is used, at a cost equivalent to $6.50 a ton for coal. But the people of Jacksonville buy their current at a price lower than anywhere in the United States, except, perhaps, Seattle. So says John H. Perry, whose newspaper, the Jacksonville Journal, prints this column.

Selling at a low cost, the people of Jacksonville make a profit of three-quarters of a million on their plant. They are building an addition to the plant costing eleven hundred thousand dollars, and their taxes are low.

Henry Ford, who will shock the nerves of big financiers as quickly as he would chop off the head of a leghorn hen, has recently startled gentlemen that manufacture fertilizers here.

The Ford agent at Jacksonville get word that so many carloads of sulphate of ammonia in bags ready for distribution to farmers would presently arrive and they must sell it.

Shipments came and have continued. Jacksonville understands that Ford's ammonia sulphate is a by-product of his coke plants. What interests the farmers is the fact that Ford sell his fertilizer, of the highest grade, $19 a ton below the market price.

Apparently Ford is trying his hand at cheap fertilizer without waiting for Muscle Shoals.

"Not too much, not too little," said Aristotle.

Even in religious emotion, excess is a mistake, and brooding leads to trouble. Frank McDowell got it into his head that he had committed the unpardonable sin.

The idea stayed, and by way of "expiation," he killed his two sisters, burning them as they lay asleep in their beds. That also preyed on his mind and added to his religious worries. So, by way of further "expiation," he shot his mother and father to death.

Such religious hallucinations were not unusual in the old days. They drove men and women into the desert where they lived in filth and semi-starvation, imagining that such conduct pleased the Lord.

It didn't occur to them to ask why the Lord had provided a fertile earth and clean water if it pleased Him to see hermits dirty and hungry.

Many have seen the "holy man of Benares," a deluded pagan, sitting on sharp spikes, and accepting little contributions, convinced that it pleased his particular God to see him sitting there.

The calming down of our religious emotions is a most important forward step in civilization. Men begin to realize that the mysterious Power above gave us this beautiful planet, that we might take care of it like faithful gardeners and find happiness in the process, leaving the hereafter to a higher judgment.

Will the state of Florida accept or reject fifty million dollars worth of free advertising?

If Florida sends William Jennings Bryan to the National Convention he will go at his own expense and Florida will get free of charge in all the newspapers in the United States advertising as could not be bought for fifty or a hundred million dollars.

If Florida allows herself to be deceived by political gentlemen who belong to the East Coast Railway, which doesn't want Mr. Bryan to go to the convention, then Florida will lose valuable advertising.

President Coolidge asks thirteen millions for the coast guard to deal with smugglers. The authorities intercept five per cent. of the whiskey now. Spending ten millions more they might intercept seven per cent. of it. They can't stop it. Smuggling cocaine and other drugs is a part of rum running.

The questions are, what is this Government going to do about it? And how long will the public be content to let things drift?

SOLDIERS' HOME AT BATH VISITED BY LEGISLATORS

Bath, Feb. 29.—The condition and administration of the New York State Soldiers' and Sailors' Home here was commended today by the Legislative Committee which made an inspection. At a luncheon, Col. J. C. F. Tilson presided and ad-resses were made by Senator E. E. Cole, of Bath, of Broome county, Assemblyman Cuvillier, of New York, and Dallas Newton, of Genesee, treasurer of the home Board of Trustees. The speakers dwelt upon the desirability of upkeep of the institution, not only to provide for present membership, but to care for World War veterans who in a few years will seek the home.

The visiting committee included Assemblyman Congdon, of Allegany; Messer, of Steuben; Fiske, of Schoharie; Johnson, of Wayne, and Wheaton, of Steuben.

DAYS OF DIZZINESS

Come to Hundreds of Andover People

There are days of dizziness. Spells of headache, languor, back-ache.

Sometimes rheumatic pains. Often urinary disorders.

Doan's Pills are especially for kidney ills.

Endorsed in Andover by grateful friends and neighbors. Ask your neighbor!

Mrs. E. J. Howland, No. Main St., Andover, says: "I over-did around the house and was bothered with a pain in my back. When I stooped, I was taken with a sharp, knife-like pain across my back and could hardly straighten. I had dizzy spells, too, and specks appeared before me. I was troubled with kidney weakness. Seeing Doan's Pills advertised, I tried a box and in a short time I was cured entirely. I have never had a return attack since and give Doan's all the credit."

Price 60c. At all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Pills—the same that Mrs. Howland had. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y.
