

SPEEDING THINGS UP

From New York to Robert Fulton, the horse was the fastest mail carrier. And in Colonial days a weekly mail between Boston and Philadelphia was a wonderful advance.

Then the steamboat, the railroad, the motor truck and the airplane came along—speeding things up.

Banking-by-mail is a strong, efficient, helpful institution such as this is an out-growth of this development. Through the quick, far-reaching Postal Service we serve many people living miles outside Andover, as well as many right in town.

A Postal, a phone call or a visit—and we'll tell you how easy and convenient it is to bank-by-mail.

—A card received by a News representative from Dr. W. J. Grenolds, tells us that they were sailing for home March 27th. The Doctor had completed his studies in Vienna and Berlin and at the writing they were spending a month in travel thru Italy and France. They wrote that "Italy is beyond description." Andover people will be glad to welcome them home.

What God Says about The Man Who Never Took Bad Advice

"Blessed is the man who walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly."

Did you ever know a man who never took bad advice? Who gives bad advice anyway? Why the world, the flesh and the Devil, and the Devil stands back of the other two and is responsible for all.

Well, then, did you ever know a single man who never took bad advice? Surely you are not the man. No, nor I either. But I know one man who never did and I thank God for that man every day I live. He never walked in the counsel of the ungodly one and day I live. He never walked in the counsel of the ungodly one and day I live. He never walked in the counsel of the ungodly one and day I live.

You remember, don't you, how the Devil told Him to take the short road to reach His goal—"You can have the kingdoms of the world and the glory of them if you will fall down and worship me." But He said, "It is written, thou shalt worship the Lord thy God and Him only shalt thou serve." And straightway He took the long and the cross and through the grave, having borne our sins, through and past the wrath of His Father into God's forgetfulness, and He came up with a full pardon for every one of us wayward ones.

Thanks be unto God for the one man who never took bad advice. He is my Saviour. Is He yours?

*Psalm 1-1.

From Our School

The speakers for the week are Anna Lynch, Angie Edwards, Harold Church, Juliet Faisant and Georgia Bines.

A reading room has been established in the library for student reference work during school hours. It is profitable and has become popular among the pupils.

Jokes

Miss Wright: "I'll have to give you a zero for this recitation."
Arthur: "That means nothing to me."

Johnny: "I hear Wayland went to sleep in the bath tub with both faucets running."

Ronald: "Didn't it run over?"
Johnny: "No, luckily Wayland sleeps with his mouth open."

We Wonder

We wonder why Georgia don't want bobbed hair. Where Johnny is keeping himself evenings, and why Eva don't sit still. Where Florence A. was Sunday evening. Where Florence and Meta get their taxis and why taxis don't wait. Why Fern don't stay home when Gerald H. calls. Why Mrs. Thorne always calls on "Nat" and why Arthur was afraid of being April fool. Who sent the boys after Ella and Ellen Monday night, and if Ronald has his life insured.

—Mrs. J. Q. Welsh of South street was taken to the Wellsville Memorial hospital the past week for treatment for an infected foot.—Belmont Dispatch.

—Mrs. Welsh was a sister of the late U. W. Stratton of Andover and well known to many of our residents.

—The farm home of E. D. Cran-fall and family in Foreman Hollow, town of Bolivar, was destroyed by fire shortly before 6 o'clock Friday evening, resulting in a heavy loss.

—There was an insurance of $1,000 on the house and $400 on the contents. The loss included 200 bushels of potatoes and 200 quarts of canned fruit, vegetables and meats, which were in the cellar and all of the furniture and clothing on the second floor.

—A letter from Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bines changes their News back to Andover this week. They write "We are on the home trail x x x We have looked forward to the coming of our home paper with much pleasure, for, altho we have had many letters from many friends, we always find a lot of news in the paper that no one wrote us. We are spending a few weeks at Jacksonville. The weather is hot, eighty in the shade, and like our mid-summer. We will make a short stay in Washington with Lawrence and Jesse Hunt and then on to Andover."

—One hundred and ten James-ville residents have scarlet fever, according to figures given out last week by Dr. J. J. Mahoney, who is busily trying to combat the epidemic in that city.
