WELLS ADVOCATES 100 PER CENT. VALUATIONS

owners, farm owners and small business men. You can hardly measure the value and benefit derived from these small meetings. It was surprising. They opened up their minds. They gave them something to realize that they were a part of this great system of taxation that goes to maintain their government.

Our held work completed grievance day was near at hand, the next big problem that confronted us all was moral courage and manhood. Could we maintain at grievance time what we had gained thru those months of labor?

We had discovered nearly four million dollars worth of property value that up to that time had not been assessed, and, remember had never paid one dollar of tax.

The air was blue down in Wells-ville, and excitement was running wild.

Believe me, when I say no future can dim my memory of those long days in August 1918. Just three weeks from that day we closed our books.

The battle was over, and the people were victorious. We did maintain thru courage and reason, the values we had made thru those long months of labor, and the people of Wells-ville are contented and happy and have no desire to return to that old system, void of reason and justice.

I am sorry to say that we were much displeased at first with the credit we received at the hands of our county equalization committee. But, thru the wise judgment of the State Tax Commission, by applying reason and co-operation to all concerned, our differences were soon adjusted very satisfactorily, and remain so up to the present time.

No town in the county need have any fear in the future, if they raise their valuation, in not receiving a fair adjustment at the hands of our equalization committee, for you will.

The old system of political distribution and guess work, I want to say to you tonight, has passed on where all political shame should go. I know, for I was one of the fellows that was on the job March 30th 1920, the day we packed it up and kicked it out of Belmont forever.

I will now answer you a question that you all will be interested in. I have had this question presented me so many times its getting to be a joke.

The question: What benefit have you people down in Wellsville received, out of all the efforts and excitement you have put in this particular case, by placing your property on the assessment roll properly equalized and at 100 per cent. of its true value?

My answer:

First: It is the law and the law requires it. Second: In 1919 our state and county budget was in round numbers $160,000. Our state and county tax rate on $1,000 assessed valuation was $5.90. In 1923 our state and county budget was in round numbers $310,000. Our state and county tax rate on $1,000 assessed valuation for this year is $6.31.

You can readily see the rapid increase in the budget from 1919 to 1923 of $150,000, only cost our people around forty-one cents on $1,000 assessed valuation to carry it. Don't misunderstand me to say that some people in Wellsville today are not paying more taxes than they were back in 1918 for they do. Many times more.

They are principally the owners of the large industrial and revenue producing properties. The relief came largely to the home owner, the farm owner and small business man.

The results of our efforts in obtaining 100 per cent assessments and destroying the old system used so long by our equalization committee are forcing their way forward until today they have reached the center of every tax district in our county, and I can safely say the rate. So much so that our county has increased sixty-three per cent. in valuation in the last five years. There is no county in the state that can say as much.

Do you think there is a reason that could be applied to the people of Wellsville that would induce them to return to that old system of assessing property. No, never. There any good reason why the property of this state should not be equalized and assessed on 100 per cent. of its true value, as the law requires? In all of my experience, I have never been able to find a reason why any assessor should not obey the law of the state in performing his duty.

PROCLAMATION

State of New York
Executive Chamber,
Albany.

Pursuant to section twenty-four of the stock corporation law, as added by chapter three hundred and fifty-three of the laws of nineteen hundred and twenty-two, I, Alfred E. Smith, Governor of the State of New York, do proclaim and declare that the corporations named in the following list, which has been transmitted to me by the Secretary of State, are dissolved and their

Texas, flat and round types $50-70 bulk per ton city markets; $25-28 f.o.b. Florida strawberries in 32 quart crates and pony refrigerators best 60-75 per quart leader. Louisiana Klondikes, $7.50-Sper 24 pint crate in midwestern cities. New York apples unsettled with a lower tendency in New York. Baldwins sold at $3.50-4.50 per barrel leading eastern markets. $3.50-3.75 f.o.b. Northwestern extra fancy Winesaps $2.10-2.50 per box. The estimated total stocks of marketable potatoes available for shipment March 1, 1924 for 11 leading states were 33,613,000 bushels compared with 32,145,000 bushels on March 1, 1923.

Live Stock and Meats

Chicago hog prices ranged from 15-20c higher than a week ago, closing at $7.75 for the top and $7.50-7.70 for the bulk. Medium and good beef steers, 15-20c higher at $8.15-11.90, butcher cows and heifers 10c lower to 25c higher at $3.90-10.50, feeder steers steady at $5.25-8.50, light and medium weight veal calves 25c lower to 25c higher at $7.75-11.50; fat lambs 15-25c higher at $14.75-16.75; yearlings lambs steady at $12-15; fat ewes steady at $12-15; and feeder shipments from 12 ending March 21, were: Cattle and important markets during the week calves 34,583; hogs 9,942; sheep 18,925. In eastern wholesale fresh meat markets beef is weak to 50c lower; lamb and mutton $1-2 lower and pork hogs 50c lower to 50c higher. March 31 prices good grades meats: Beef $15-18; veal $17-20; lamb $26-29; mutton $18-22; light pork hogs $16-17.50; heavy hogs $12-14.50.

Wheat market regains some of its good demand for medium and good milling grades. Export demand for small volume. Cash corn market one to three cents higher for week. Good demand for best grades. Cash oats one to three cents lower for week. Light offerings well absorbed. Quoted March 31, 1924: No. 2 hard winter Chicago $1.02 1/2-1.04 1/2; St. Louis $1.02 1/2-1.06 1/2; Kansas City 98c-1.12. No. 2 red winter St. Louis $1.12 1/2-1.15. No. 3 yellow corn St. Louis 79 1/2-80c; Kansas City 74-74 1/2c; No. 3 white oats Chicago 44 1/2-45 1/2c; St. Louis 42c; Kansas City 47c.

Hay

Best grades of hay continued in good demand in practically all markets and prices averaged slightly higher at the close of the week. Lower grades moved somewhat slowly but prices remained firm. Quoted March 29, 1924: No. 1 timothy Boston $27.75, New York $30, Pittsburgh $27, Cincinnati $25, St. Louis $26.50, Kansas City $26. No. 2 timothy Boston $25, New York $27.50, Pittsburgh $25; Cincinnati $24, St. Louis $22. No. 1 alfalfa New York $31.50, Cincinnati $28.75, Kansas City $25.50. No. 2 alfalfa: St. Louis $19.50, Kansas City $14.50.

Feed situation dull and weaker. Mills offering wheatfeeds freely. Middlings quoted at one dollar discount from bran prices. Season shipment bran quoted at $2.50-3 under prevailing prices. Oil meals quoted a shade lower. Lack of storage space at mills and falling off in export demand for linseed meal responsible for further decline.

Dairy Products

Butter markets unsettled and sensitive regardless of consumptive demand which pretty well absorbed current receipts. Prices at the close today weak. Prices of different grades show close ranges. Closing prices on 92 score butter: New York 40 1/2; Chicago 38c; Phila. 41c; Boston 41 1/2c.

Cheese markets weakened during week. Trading at all times quiet and at the close was dull and draggy. Feeling of trade is indicated by general tendency to keep receipts moving. Wholesale prices at Wisconsin primary markets lower. Although reports of actual selling prices at the close of the week not available on account of storms interrupting wire service. Latest reports were for Thursday, March 27 as follows: Single Daisies 80c; Double Daisies 19 1/2c; Longhorns 19 1/2c; Square Prints 19 1/2c.
