TOPCOATS

A topcoat is as necessary as a suit—the new spring coats are especially so. When you're not sure of the weather and you don't know whether to lay your stake on the sun or rain, make sure you are properly protected by one of our topcoats. There are pleasing fabrics and styles to please the most exacting tastes, and values to exact the most exacting pocketbook.

Jokes

Mary had a little lamp, and I was well trained, no doubt. For every time that Ronald called, The little lamp went out.

We wonder what Lenford means by "arm" and "elbow."

Two is a couple, and three is a crowd, even on Sunday night. Ask "Art," he knows.

Horton seems very joyful lately.

We wonder why. Maybe Anna T. could tell us.

Five of the girls have to carry knives. Mr. Palmer wants us to "cut out" talking.

Question:—What is peculiar about Emmett?

Answer:—His heart is on the (W)right side.

Ellen has the Junior Class' will made in case they pass away during the coming year.

The jokes are very brief this week because the editors did not have time to interview Mary O. Boyle.

The second team of A. H. S. defeated the Congregational of Wells-ville on the Wellsville court last Monday night by the score of 30-27. The game was fast and clean, Alford was the individual star, scoring twenty points.

The line-up for Andover is as follows:

R. F. Downer	2	0	4
L. F. Alford	10	0	20
G. Livermore	3	0	4
R. G. Horton	0	0	0
L. G. Theetge	0	0	0
Total	15	0	30

Referee: Dawson.

The same night, after resting a short time, the second team defeated the Lutherans of Wellsville on the same court by a score of 23-18.

Line-up for Andover is as follows:

R. F. Downer	4	1	9
L. F. Alford	4	2	10
G. Livermore	0	0	1
R. G. Horton	0	0	1
L. G. Theetge	1	1	3
Total	9	5	23

Referee: Dawson.

Friday evening of last week the Lutherans came to Andover to play the return game and were sent home with a long face. They were outclassed by the Andover players and were defeated 28-16.

The line-up is as follows:

R. F. Theetge	2	0	4
L. F. Alford	5	1	11
C. Downer	6	1	13
R. G. Horton	0	1	1
L. G. Dunnigan	0	0	0

HIGHLIGHTS ON STATE CROPS

From New York State Dept. Farms & Markets
April 15, 1924

FIRST BARGE OF HAY

Seventeen hundred bales of hay arrived at the foot of West 34th street, North River, on Monday, the first barge load of the season, according to the State Dept. of Farms & Markets. The hay was in large bales of medium and low grades and met a good demand. Prices ranged from $20 to $28 a ton. At the present rate of sale it all will be disposed of before the end of the week.

LITTLE CHANGE IN APPLES OR VEGETABLES

New York State apples and vegetables show little change from a week ago. A grade 2 1-2 inch Baldwins the first two days of this week sold at from $3.25 to $4.00 per barrel, the same price as on Monday a week ago. McIntosh, have advanced, the range now being from $8 to $13 per barrel. Greenings lately have ranged from $2.50 to $6.00.

Muckland carrots continue at $3.25 to $3.65 per 100 pound sack. No. 1 yellow onions at $1.00 to $2.50 and red at $1.50 to $2.00 per sack. New State potatoes show a somewhat wider range. In bulk No. 1 round whites sold on Tuesday at from $2.85 to $4.00 per 180 pounds.

FRANK GANNETT BEING HONORED

Governor Names Him As Commissioner and Cornell University as Trustee.

It is with great pleasure and satisfaction that newspaper publishers of the state are taking note of the fact that honors are being showered upon Frank E. Gannett of Rochester, publisher of the Rochester Times-Union and five other New York State newspapers. Mr. Gannett, who is a native of Ontario County has just been named by Governor Alfred E. Smith as a member of the newly-elected commission to administer park matters for the state in the Finger Lakes region. The new commission is expected to expend $100,000 and more a year for at least eight years to come, and preserve and make available to the public all the important beauty spots of Central New York.

Alumni of Cornell University have just placed Mr. Gannett in nomination for the office of alumni trustee of Cornell. This is considered one of the highest honors which can come to a Cornell man. The Andover News wishes Mr. Gannett success in the election which will be participated in by 20,000 alumni of Cornell.

Frank E. Gannett has served as president of all associations of newspaper publishers of upstate New York. He was president of the New York Associated Dailies in 1916, the New York Press Association in 1917 and 1918 and the New York State Publishers Association since its organization in 1920. He has the distinction of being president of the only state organization of publishers which maintains a school for the training of printers and linotype operators. The Empire State School of Printing at Ithaca is doing much to relieve the labor shortage in the printing industry. The school is indicative of the type of man who heads the organization supporting it. Cornell University would be fortunate in adding the name of Mr. Gannett to its board of trustees which is made up of such distinguished men as Charles M. Schwab, George F. Baker, Judge Frank H. Hiscock, Judge Cuthbert W. Pound, Robert H. Treman, Henry H. Westinghouse, Colonel Henry W. Sackett, Ira A. Place and Walter P. Cooke.

EASTER TRADE LIVELY ON POULTRY

Poultry has enjoyed a better demand under the influence of Easter, while country dressed calves have suffered. Prices for live birds have been very firm and for heavy fowls, slightly higher. Heavy clored fowls of five pounds and over at 28c and leghorns at 25c. Staggys chickens brot 28c, springers 30 to 34c, old roosters 18c, up-state ducks 27c to 28c and Long Island ducks 30c. There were 8,700 of these young Long Island birds on the market Tuesday with perhaps 13,000 or 14,000 to come. In veal calves only the choice and extra fancy appear to be wanted. Choice on Tuesday brot 16c to 17c per pound, fair to good 11c to 15c, small and common 6c to 10c. Rabbits have brot a good price but the usual after-Easter slump is expected to catch the late shipper.

BUTTER, CHEESE AND EGG RECEIPTS HEAVY

The butter market is irregular and at this writing tends to go still lower. Creamery salted higher score sold at 38 1/2 c to 39c a pound Tuesday. Eggs are coming in heavily, 83, 189 cases on Monday. Prices continue at 31c to 32c a dozen for nearby henner white, extra firsts, and 29c to 31c for nearby henner browns, extra fancy. Cheese is having an irregular market. Whole milk flats, average run for several days has brot 23c to 24c a pound for held and 16c for fresh.

Washington, D. C., For the week ending April 14, 1924.

Live Stock and Meats

Medium and good beef steers 25c lower to 40c higher at $8-12.25; butcher cows and heifers 15c lower to 25c higher at $4-10.75; feeder steers steady to 25c higher at $5.25-9; light and medium weight veal calves 75c-$1 lower $7.50-10.75. Fat lambs 25c net higher at $15-17.10; feeding lambs steady at $10.25-15.50; yearlings 25-50c higher at $10.50-$12.85 and fat ewes 25-50c higher at $8-12.50. Stocker and feeder shipments from 12 important markets for the week ending April 4 were: Cattle and calves 38,318; hogs 1,000; sheep 10,418. At eastern wholesale fresh meat markets beef is firm to 50c higher; veal is $2 lower to $2 up; mutton weak to $1 lower and pork lions $2 lower to 50c higher. April 14 prices: good grade meats: Beef $15.50-18.50; veal $15-19; lamb $26-30; mutton $20-22; light pork lions $17-19; heavy lions $14-17.

Fruits and Vegetables

Eastern potatoes 15-35c higher in New York, Boston and Phila., steady to firm elsewhere. New York round whites closed at $1.75-2 sacked per 100 pounds in leading markets. Northern sacked round whites firm in Chicago at $1.25-1.45; mostly $1.10-1.15 at Michigan shipping points. Florida Spaulding Rose generally $1-2 lower, selling at $9-12 per double head barrel. Texas Bliss Triumphs $7 sacked per 100 pounds in St. Louis and Kansas City; mostly $6 f.o.b. Eastern onions sold firm in New York and Baltimore $2-2.50 sacked per 100 pounds. Texas yellow Bermudas $2.35 per crate in Kansas City, $2.30 f.o.b. Florida pointed type cabbage stronger at $2.50-3 per 1 1/4 bushel hamper in eastern cities. Texas new stock advanced $20-30 bulk per ton in leading markets, selling at $70-80 in St. Louis and Kansas City and $90-100 in eastern cities, top of $120 in Phila., $40-45 at shipping points. New York apples Baldwin steady to firm at $3.50-4.50 per barrel. Northwest extra fancy Winesaps $2-2.50 per box. Louisiana strawberries Klondikes firm at $6.75-7 per 24 pint crate in Chicago. April estimates show an increase of about two per cent. over 1923 in intended watermelons acreage in early states mostly in Texas. A forecasted crop equivalent to about 4,000 cars of Texas Bermuda onions show an increase of about 300 cars over March estimates. Production of early and midseason strawberries and acreage of midseason cabbage appear practically unchanged from last year's estimates.

Grain market dull. Future markets lack support and prices slightly lower for week. Cash prices fairly steady. Good milling demand for wheat. Receipts all grain light but country offerings of corn larger. Oats steady. Quoted April 14, 1924: No. 1 dark northern spring: Minneapolis $1.12-1.27 1/2. No. 2 hard winter Chicago $1.05 1/2-1.07; St. Louis $1.04. No. 2 red winter Kansas City $1.09; St. Louis $1.13-1.14. No. 2 yellow corn: Chicago 80c. No. 3 yellow corn Kansas City 76 1/2. St. Louis 80-81c. No. 3 white corn Kansas City 73c; St. Louis 78 1/2-79c. No. 3 white oats—Chicago 47 1/2-49 1/2c; Kansas City 49c; St. Louis 48 1/2c.

Dairy Products

Butter markets unsettled and lower, with prices down to the lowest of the year. Sentiment an important influence. Foreign butter continues to be of importance with sizeable quantities available. Closing wholesale prices on 92 score butter today: New York 38 1/2c; Chicago 37c; Phila. 39c; Boston 39c. Cheese markets very weak following price declines averaging a full cent on Wisconsin cheeses—boards. Trading light as usual on a falling market. Wholesale prices at Wisconsin markets April 12: Twins 16 1/2c; Single Daisies 17 1/2c; Double Daisies 17 1/2c; Young Americas and Lorchorns 17 1/2c; Square Prints 18c.

Hay

Hay market rather dull. Receipts light but demand limited. Better grades of timothy slightly higher in eastern markets but declining in central west. Warmer weather restricting feeding demand for alfalfa and prairie. Quoted April 12, 1924: No. 1 timothy Boston $29, New York $30.50, Pittsburgh $27, Cincinnati $26, Chicago $27, Minneapolis $19.50, St. Louis $26.50, Atlanta $32.

Feed

Feed prices steady to a shade higher. Slightly improved demand noted in most sections as result of reduced local stocks. Wheatfeeds quoted about 50c higher because of light offerings. Soft winter bran in good demand. Middlings still quoted at discount under bran.

This store was opened forty years ago—it was a small store—it was unpretentious in appearance, but with a determination to become the leader in Ready-to-Wear for Women and Girls, it issued a promise that its merchandise would be better, and quality for quality, its prices would be lower than at other stores.

How well this promise has been kept is obvious, otherwise we could not proclaim the fact, that this Anniversary Sale is backed by forty years of public confidence.

Everything in the sale is new Spring and Summer apparel—everything in the sale will be sold, at a

20% Discount

Quality is the first consideration at all of our sales—we never buy cheap goods to make cheap prices, for by so doing our good name would be compromised—we do not tell you that articles are made to sell for "so and so" much, and then quote a ridiculous low price, for that would be a violation of one of the fundamental principles of this store—"truth in advertising."

You will enjoy a trip to this sale—you will be pleased with the substantial saving—you will be delighted with the distinctive and exclusive Coats, Suits, Dresses, Blouses, Hats, dainty Silk and Voile Underwear, Silk Hose, Gloves and other ready-to-wear for Women and Girls.
