The Something Our Customer Gets is More Important Than the Sum He Pays

In the make-up of every American there lurks an inborn, irreplaceable desire for Quality. This admiration of the genuinely and enduringly fine applies especially to clothes, bound up as they are, with art, fashion, taste, pride, self-approval and the approval of others. This season when Price has assumed an inverted and inflated importance in much Clothing advertising, it is all the more the obligation of the Retail Clothier with standards and stability to riddle the pretension that Price alone constitutes value and to point out to his customer, that the something he gets is far more important than the sum he pays.

STEIN-BLOCH CLOTHES, both by tradition and volition, are dedicated to the principle of the Finest Tailoring from which there never has been and never will be any departure.

HOW OFTEN SHOULD A MAN CHANGE HIS SOCKS?

In the solemn atmosphere of Judge Edgar A. Jones' court in Chicago, the other day, in a little suit by a men's furnishing shop, some strange and unexpected things were developed which are of national interest.

Mr. Joseph Leiter, the picturesque Chicago and Washington multi-millionaire, declared that he had so many pairs of $12 silk socks that he really had no idea how many he owned.

Mr. Leiter astonished the court by nonchalantly remarking that he always changed his socks twice a day, and the manager of the haberdashery firm still further surprised Judge Jones by revealing the fact that $500 a pair was not an unusual price for women to pay for silk stockings.

The interesting story of the haberdasher's suit for the 120 pairs of silk socks at the $12 a pair, and the picture of the $500 women's silk stockings, appears in next Sunday's New York Sunday American.

When you are worried by backache: By lameness and urinary disorders—Don't experiment with an untried medicine. Follow Andover people's example. Use Doan's Pills. Here's Andover testimony. Verify it if you wish. Ask your neighbor!

Mrs. L. M. Trowbridge, Cor. Greenwood & 1st Streets, says: "I was troubled with an awful weakness in my back. Right across the small of my back there was a constant bearing down pain that aggravated me from morning until night. Dizzy spells came over me and spots and specks seemed to float before my eyes, blurring my sight. I felt tired out and listless. One box of Doan's Pills cured me and I felt strong and well again. (Statement given Aug. 14, 1919.) On July 19, 1923, Mrs. Trowbridge added: "The cure Doan's gave me has lasted. I am only too pleased to confirm my former statement."
