Farm and Stock Market

HIGHLIGHTS ON STATE CROPS

From New York State Dept.
Farms & Markets
May 6, 1924.

Hay Markets Not So Strong

Liberal hay receipts today following the two Hudson River barge loads which went on sale Monday morning have resulted in a barely steady market, according to N. Y. State Dept. of Farm & Markets. Arrivals today included 58 cars at Manhattan and 24 in Brooklyn. U. S. Timothy No. 1 Tuesday brot $30, No. 2 $28-29 and No. 3 $25-27. Butter holds advance, Eggs Steady. Following the advance made Saturday and Monday butter is holding firm at 30 1/2c wholesale for 92 score creamery salted. Eggs are steady, nearby henpery white extras bringing 29-30c a dozen and nearby gathered whites, first to extra firsts 26-28c. Cheese is also steady. Whole milk flats, average held sold Tuesday at 23-23 1/2c a pound, fresh at 16 1/2-16c.

Live Fowls and Broilers Steady
The supply of fowls continues light, but broilers were fairly liberal, especially Leghorn broilers. The demand has been rather slow but prices show no change from the end of last week. Fowls, colored or leghorn sold Tuesday at 32c per pound, broilers, colored at 55-60c and broilers, Leghorn 40-50c.

Excess Veal About Gone
Following the glutted market for country dressed calves, that accompanied and followed Easter, the surplus has slowly been moving out and is now about cleaned up. Fresh receipts early in the week were normal and the prices remain somewhat low the feeling on the market is much improved. Choice sold Tuesday at 14-15c fair to good at 10c-13c, common and small at 5-8c.

State Vegetables Generally Active
Rhubarb shipments from the Hudson Valley are growing in volume. The price so far this week ranges from 4-6c wholesale per large bunch. State carrots are somewhat lower than last week's high mark but continue to find a good outlet at 3-4c per double-headed barrel.

The potato market is dull. No. 1 round whites bringing mostly 33-35c, 33-35c per 150-pound sack.

Washington, D. C., for the week ending May 5, 1924.

Live Stock and Meats

Chicago hog prices ranged from 10c lower to 15c higher than a week ago, closing at $7.55 for the top and $7.20-7.50 for the bulk. Medium and good beef steers 40c-50c higher, at $8.50-11.75; butcher cows and heifers steady to 40c higher at $3.65-10.25; feeder steers 25c net higher at $5.75-9.75; light and medium weight veal calves 25c higher at $6.75-10.25; fat lambs 50c higher at $14.75-17; yearlings 75c net higher at $12.25-15.25; fat ewes 50c net lower at $5.50-9.

Jobbers showing little inclination to contract for future shipments bran for prompt shipment quoted in Minneapolis at $18.50, middlings at $19.50. Sea-son bran offered at $1 under spot prices with few takers. Production of oil meals light but stocks are quite ample for present needs. Corn feeds production light, demand and offerings by resellers fair.

Dairy Products
Butter markets nervous and unsettled during the week, although price changes were slight. The tone at the close of the week was steady to firm. Trading fairly active, but due more to free selling on part of receivers than to confidence on the part of buyers. Closing prices today on 92 score: New York 38 1/4c; Chicago 37c; Phila. 39c; Boston 39c. Cheese markets steady. Trading somewhat more active toward latter part of week. Latest reports indicate a tendency on the part of prices to recover slightly from recent declines. Production on the increase.
