McAdoo Declares He'll Be Elected

partment is now ahead of schedule for this season

Los Angeles, May 26.—California Los Angeles, May 26.—Galifornia is going to elect the next President and he is going to be a Democrat, W. G. McAdoo, candidate of the Democratic Presidential nomination, told cheering friends and political supporters who met the train on which he returned after a campaign tour. He declared:

"Within the last two weeks ninety-two delegates to the convention have been instructed for me, including all the delegates from Kentucky, Idaho, New Mexico, Oregon, South Carollina and Tenssee.

Carolina and Tenesee

"In addition, eighteen favor-able delegates have been chos-en from Michigan. During the same period, so far as I know, no delegates have been instruct-ed for any other Democratic for any other Democratic candidate. "Altho a few States. Nevada, Utah, Mississippi, Florida, and Louisians, have not yet acted, the pre-convanion campaign is practically concluded and success for the cause of progressive emidding as assured."
