What God Says about-SELFISHNESS

"Lay up for Yourselves Treasures in Heaven."

This is something that might be called divine selfishness. It's rather startling, isn't it? Here is a definite and deliberate word of God telling men to lay up something for themselves. Well, how shall we go about it?

The first thing we think of is that our hands are dirty and we cannot handle heavenly treasure. You know that's so, you earthy man you, don't you? How about getting them clean just as you would for handling any precious thing you don't want to soil?

It's strange, but the best way to cleanse your hands is to get your heart clean and the only thing that can cleanse that is the blood of Jesus. God says that the blood of Jesus Christ, His Son, cleanseth us from all sin,—us, who believe that it does. So earthy man, believe what God says about His Son, and your hands will be clean and you will immediately be able to lay up treasure — with divine selfishness.

It's reasonable, isn't it, and the treasure — well, it's some treasure,—believe me,—no, don't believe me, believe Him.

Read the Bible for yourself and see what treasure it unfolds.

*Matt: 6-20.

—Mr. and Mrs. John Steward are moving from the home on Barney Street into the new home owned by Mrs. Martha Bloss on Water Street.

—Arrangements are being perfected whereby an address will be given Wednesday afternoon, June 18th, at the Baptist church by Hon. Oliver W. Steward. Mr. Steward is a speaker of ability and for many years was associated with ex-Governor Hauley of Indiana in the work of the Flying Squadron. Keep the date in your mind.

—At the speaking contest held in connection with the field meet at Cuba the awards were as follows: Boys—First prize, Richard Fuller, Friendship; second prize Julius Averill, Belmont; third prize Corbette Benton, Wellsville. Girls—First prize Louise Prescott, Wellsville; second prize Aileen Laidlaw, Belmont; third Kathryn Maybe, Friendship.

SURPRISE FOR PASTOR

About fifty people, parishioners of Rev. A. D. Shepard of the Baptist Church, gave their pastor a surprise by a birthday visit, Wednesday evening. A fine birthday cake had been prepared for the occasion and a jolly good time was enjoyed by the company.

GRANGE NOTES

Andover Grange will hold a regular meeting next Wednesday evening. The third and fourth degrees will be worked.

Tureen supper. Bring sandwiches and one other article for the supper. Come and enjoy the evening.

A Pleasant Surprise

About forty neighbors and friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Rollins, it being Mrs. Rollins' birthday, Saturday, May 31st. Games and music were enjoyed. Refreshments were served and a fine time was reported by those in attendance.

Bolivar Lad Killed

Vincent Eberl, eight-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Eberl, of Bolivar was killed May 26th, when the wheels of a truck carrying a load of oil casings, passed over his body. The boy attempted to leap on the truck as it was passing his home, missed his footing and fell under the rear wheels.

A Unique Curio

George Cook uncovered a unique curio while plowing on the David Bullard farm, Friday. It was a perfectly formed Indian hatchet head, sharp and well preserved. It is a very good specimen of Indian relics, and its history would be most interesting.

Hann — Caple

Floyd L. Hann and Clara M. Caple were united in marriage, Thursday evening, May 29th, at the Methodist parsonage in Wellsville, by Rev. Ernest E. Davis. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stebbins of Andover.
