Winners of the News Prize Essay Contest

At the commencement exercises announcement was made of the result of the News essay contest among Andover High School pupils in the discussion of the many phases of the relations of the country newspaper to the community. Three capable judges passed on the papers from which all personal names and marking had been removed by Principal Palmer and the editor. The first prize of $7 was awarded to Gertrude Beebe; the second prize of $5 to Loretta Quigg and the third prize $3 to Alice Smith. Andover did not win place in the Western New York State Press association. The first place going to Livonia, second to Newark and third to Dundee.

The News editor was gratified at the fine response by the Andover pupils and the high order of the papers submitted by them. The paper written by Miss Beebe will be found on the first page of this issue of the News.

Gave Fine Recital

The piano pupils of Miss Josephine Stone of Hornell, gave their June recital Thursday evening, June 26, at the Universalist Church. They were assisted by Miss Alice Rogers of Tulsa, Okla., a student of Madame June Reed Babcock, a noted violinist and instructor, also receiving voice training of Prof. William Earl Babcock, pianist, vocalist and composer, of Wellsville. Miss Rogers is a talented musician of rare ability and exhibits a strong evidence of a great future. She rendered very artistically Mendelssohn's "On Wings of Song" and First Movement of Handel's Sonata with skillful technique in bowing and tone coloring. Miss Rogers expects to attend Ithaca Conservatory of Music next September.

Carl Hann of Andover, baritone, accompanist and composer, a student at Alfred College, rendered several vocal solos with violin obligato by Miss Rogers, and piano accompanist by Mrs. Hayden Rogers, which were highly appreciated and enjoyed by the present. Two such fine musicians to be commended for their high ambition to become artists of high degree.

Erwin Snyder

Edwin Ellsworth Snyder, son of Frank Snyder and Angelina Green, was born in Alfred, June 25, 1877. In early life he joined the Andover S. D. B. Church, and later transferred his membership to the First Alfred Church, in the vicinity of which he spent most of his life.

On December 20, 1904, he was united in marriage with Bertha Olive Burdick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clark T. Burdick of Alfred. To this union two daughters were borne, Lillian and Edna Evelyn.

After an illness of a few weeks, Mr. Snyder passed away June 20, at the Bethesda Hospital in Hornell.

Besides the widow and two daughters, Mr. Snyder leaves to mourn his loss, his mother, and two sisters, Mrs. Elmer Roberts of Belmont, Mrs. Louise Myers of Hornell and one brother, Fred Snyder of Belfast.

Farewell services were held at the home at 2 o'clock, Sunday afternoon, conducted by Pastor Wm. M. Simpson, assisted by Rev. T. D. Holmes, and a male quartet.

Burial was made in Alfred Rural Cemetery.

Flies

I know of nothing far or high or half as nasty as a fly. His early home-life, far from pure, gives neither culture nor allure, for he is bred in horse manure. At first he is a maggot wormy, disgusting, yellow white and squirmy. You'd think that later, blessed with wings, he'd leave that unclean dump, by gings, and rise in flight toward better things. You'd think to heneved flowers he'd go, to sweet and wholesome scenes, but no—some foul uncleanly place he seeks, the better pleased the more it reeks. His feet and legs are thick with hair, he gets some germs entangled there; then off he goes to flit and flutter to light at last upon our butter, or rest awhile and take a tittle from off the baby's rubber nipple. O he is such a filthy critter that when he's walked on fruit or fritter I find it not at all surprising that folks don't find them appetizing. On every hand there lurk to kill us bacterium and bold bacillus. The fly by whom these germs are toled, a public nuisance should be voted. In every home, along the wall, let deadly swatters rise and fall. O let us all pursue the flies and hit them right between the eyes.

Why does Uncle Sam mean United States?

—because in the War of 1812, an inspector of supplies for the United States army was Samuel Wilson, nicknamed "Uncle Sam." The U. S. Stamp which he put on boxes was said by jokers to be his own initials. Now that July 4th is near, better lay in some
