HIGHLIGHTS ON STATE CROPS

From New York State Dept. Farms & Markets July 8, 1924.

Poultry Declines Following Holiday

Following the Fourth of July, a slump in the live poultry market began at once and it has continued well into this week, says the report of the State Department of Farms & Markets. The effect of a lessening demand was accentuated by heavier receipts and the net result has been a decline of from 4-6c a pound from one week ago. Live fowls today sold at 23-24c a pound for colored and 20-22c for leghorn. Broilers, colored, brot 35-38c; and broilers, leghorn, 27-34c.

Veals Recovering Gradually Country dressed calves have been in light receipt during the past week and also in light demand. Choice calves, however, have been scarce consequently slightly higher. Today's prices: Fresh, choice 15c a pound, fair to good, 11-14c, small and common, 8-11c. A few really fancy milk-fed brot premiums considerably above the top quoted.

Butter Higher—Cheese Unchanged Butter which was down last week has recovered in price and sold today at 42-43c a pound for creamery salted higher. Cheese continues at practically the same figures as were quoted a week ago, 19-19½c a pound for fresh whole-milk flats and 23-24c for held.

Eggs Continue Steady The price of eggs continues unchanged with nearby hennerly white extra firsts bringing 33-35c a dozen and nearby hennerly brown extras 34-39c. The market is steady to firm and receipts are heavy.

New Crop Fruits and Vegetables New York State fruits sold today at the following figures per quart: sour red cherries 10-14c, red cur-

HELP THE OLD FOLKS

A Helping Hand Extended to Many Old People in Andover.

The infirmities of age are many. Most old people have a bad back. The kidneys are often weak. Or worn out with years of work. Backache means days of misery. Urinary troubles, nights of unrest. Doan's Pills have helped to make life easier for many.

There are doing so for old and young.

Andover people are learning this. Read the following local endorsement:

Henry Horan, farmer, Chestnut Street, Andover, says: "I had dull pains in my back and when I stooped over, I was taken with sharp, stabbing pains across my kidneys which made it hard to straighten. Lots of mornings I was hardly able to get around as my muscles were lame and stiff. My kidneys became weak and caused me to rise several times at night. I bought a box of Doan's Pills at the Brundage Drug store and they gave me relief. I am never without Doan's around the house."

Poem by Uncle John
I've allers been an advocate of fairness in a fight. . . . To rain my blows on weaker folks, I never thought was right. . . . I've fit my weight in wild-cats, by the law of give an' take, and when I got the knockout, they was welcome to the stake!
To-day I'm scrappin' varmint of a meek an' lowly class. . . . I met their red battalions at the picnic, in the grass. . . . When fiends attack my person in an underhanded way, there's apt to be red pepper in the compliments I pay.
There ain't much show fer romance in a bug-infested patch, where all a feller gets to do—is, set around an' scratch. . . . It lends an inspiration which it wouldn't do to tell, when we land a batch of chiggers—from the mustard-pots of hell!

Hay

Market steady and dull. Light receipts better grades caused firmer tone in some markets but poor hay is hard to move. Heavy clover mixtures dull. Some demand from south for new timothy at southwestern markets. New prairie and new second cutting alfalfa arriving in Kansas City. Quoted July 5, 1924: No. 1 timothy Boston $32, Pittsburgh $25.50, Cincinnati $24.25, St. Louis $25.50, Memphis $27, Chicago $26-25.50; No. 1 alfalfa Kansas City $18-50, Memphis $25, Omaha $18.50.

No. 1 prairie Kansas City $12, Omaha $13.50, St. Louis $16, Chicago $17.

Feed

Wheat feeds eased off on increased offerings from southwest and northwest. Middlings ruled fairly strong. Linseed meal shade easier with stocks in excess of present requirements. Cottonseed meal also in better supply and mill showing disposition to contract for future delivery. Corn feeds firm but demand is apathetic and offerings only fair. Production and stocks most feeds good. Storage holdings of wheat feeds continue large. Quoted July 5, 1924: Minneapolis spring bran $21 standard middlings $23; 34% linseed meal $42. Cincinnati soft winter wheat bran $26.50; soft winter wheat middlings $29.25. Kansas City hard winter wheat bran $20.25 Gray shorts $25.50; 41% cottonseed meal $49. No. 1 alfalfa meal $21-50. Memphis 36% cottonseed meal $38, Chicago gluten feed $36.40; white hominy feed $37.50.

Grain

Wheat market lower as receipts of new wheat increase in southwestern markets. More favorable weather conditions in spring wheat area in United States and Canada also added to weakness. Corn higher at Chicago and St. Louis but lower at Kansas City where receipts were fairly heavy and demand less active. Oats steady and prices practically unchanged. Quoted July 7, 1924: No. 1 dark northern spring Minneapolis $1.23½-1.47½. No. 2 hard winter Chicago $1.15¼-1.22½; Kansas City $1.06-1.25; St. Louis $1.12-1.13. ## Extracting Taxes From Water

Few politicians were ever more ingenious in devising new methods of taxation than Necker, the hard-pressed finance minister of Louis XVI of France.

Perhaps he never even heard of Niagara Falls, lost in the wilderness of New France, but if he did, he certainly never dreamed that one day taxes would be extracted from its rushing, roaring waters.

Even today few people realize that Niagara power is taxed at the source of production. Out of every dollar The Niagara Falls Power Company receives for the electricity it sells, 17 cents go to pay for taxes.

The Niagara Falls Power Company sells electricity at the lowest average price received by any generating system on the North American Continent.
