Sallie's Temptations

(Copyright 1924-By Gladys Baker)

CONCERNING SALLIE

Sallie is a modern, pretty young creature, with all the emotions and desires you yourself had when you were at that glorious age that lies somewhere between sixteen and twenty-five. Sallie is everywhere. The eyes of the world are upon the ultimate outcome of her moral code. Is she going to weaken her creed of right and wrong and stretch her philosophy to that of the girls who have a "good" time?

Your little girl is just where Sallie is. She must decide for herself. They are all Sallies at heart. Sallie's experience, put down truthfully from the pages of her life, may help your Sallies. Each chapter is complete in itself. Read it this week. You will enjoy it.—Editor.

Mr. Wright to the Rescue

Mr. Wright to the Rescue

I shrieked loudly as Ted Billings 1 say, PERSONAL nature. I assure lunged forward. In some mysterious way, strength was given me to use my legs, which had been quaking beneath me, and I tore heading across the hills toward the ocean. Gaining the beach, I glanced over my shoulder. Ted had not followed. The heavy sand of the duner, must have proven too much for him in his besteted condition. Fright to lowed. The heavy sand of the duner, spurred me on, and I dashed into the water, shivering as the white caps reached out to me with their try fingers. Soon I was swimming beyond my depth in the moon-swept ocean.

Then suddenly I feit the steady pull of the undertow and realized in my spent condition, I was not able to resist it. I turned nervously shoreward and saw a lone masculine figure coming at top speed thru the breakers. I recognized the swimmer It was Curtiss Wright, and I called to him in utter exhaustion, feeling the last shred of my vitality weaten "What's the matter, trying to trying the last shred of my vitality weaten "What's the matter, trying to the cover in his protection.

When we had left the fierce current behipd us, I slipped from his surns as one as I was able to to the beas meddlesome in the future, and if you will promise to the latell earn in the future, and if you will promise to the latell earn, I will bring my raincoat in a life. "Nice way to treat you guest," he laughed pleasantly, "sending me off for refreshments, while you run away and have our swim by your-

"Why you poor kiddy," he continued gently, noticing for the first time that my arms and shoulders, rising from the dark depths of the water, were bare. "What's the matter? Did you have an accident?" he questioned.

"Apropos of what, may I ask?"
"Nothing, I was just thinking out loud. A sign of tottering old age, is tit?" I responded. "Go get the bottle. I'm worn to a frazzle."
He looked at me with searching escretiny.
"Yes, right at this moment you do look like an old woman," he announced critically and save for his innate refinement, which one tight, and the impersonal tone in which he had spoken, his remark would have been rude; as it was, it hurt me, for I knew he was serious.

During the drive home I rested my head against Curtiss Wright's coat sleeve and slept soundly.

HIGHLIGHTS ON STATE CROPS

From New York State Dept. Farms and Markets Sept. 23, 1924.

Eggs High, Butter Low

Fresh egg prices have advanced from 4-6c per dozen since a week agg, says the State Department of Farms & Markets, and at present stand about 10 cents higher than one year ago. The fancy grades are rather less than sufficient for the demand. On Tuesday nearby hennery white average extras sold wholesale at from 62-65c a dozen. The butter market is unsettled and the price low. Quotations are almost 10c cheaper than a year ago. Latest prices for creamery salted, higher score, 38-38 te a pound. Cheese continues strong and aver ages one cent higher than a week go. Fresh average run, whole milk lates are selling at from 20 ½-21c a pound.

No. 2, $25-26 and No. 3 at $21-23.

Heavy Grape Tonnage
Grapes are now arriving in great quantity, the most of them from California. Monday's receipts alone totaled 265 cars. There is no lack, however, of demand. Western New York plums and prunes on Tuesday were in liberal receipt. There was a fairly good demand for prune, and moderate from Service, and steady for firm of fancy Bartlett pear from New York, Arrivals were light from the Hudson Valley and moderate from Western New York points. Fancy brot $2.50-2.75 per bushel. Hudson Valley and Western New York apples were in liberal supply Tuesday and trading less active. Consequently the market barely held steady. Price changes were slight for strictly fancy but the trend was downward for the off-grade stock. "A" grade 2 1-2 inch Wealthy apples sold at from $4.50-$5.50 per barrel, Alexander and Wolf Rivers from $4-5.
