Sallie's Temptations

(Copyright 1924—By Gladys Baker)

CONCERNING SALLIE

Sallie is a modern, pretty young creature, with all the emotions and desires you yourself had when you were at that glorious age that lies somewhere between sixteen and twenty-five. Sallie is everywhere. The eyes of the world are upon the ultimate outcome of her moral code. Is she going to weaken her creed of right and wrong and stretch her philosophy to that of the girls who have a "good" time?

Your little girl is just where Sallie is. She must decide for herself. They are all Sallies at heart. Sallie's experience, put down truthfully from the pages of her life, may help your Sallies. Each chapter is complete in itself. Read it this week. You will enjoy it.—Editor.

ANNE CODDINGTON GOES TO CHURCH

"This is my idea about it," I heard Curtiss Wright say the next morning as his voice drifted in to me from the sun porch where he and Dad were deeply engrossed in conversation.

The Florida East Coast will have one of the most attractive and modern settlements for their workmen of any town in the South, if our plans carry," he supplemented, "it is my desire to design simple and substantial houses for the men and their families, but, at the same time, each one of those houses will have its distinct and separate individuality. These people will have pride in their homes if they are not built exactly like hundreds of others in the same village. Their sense of the beautiful should be encouraged. It's effect is far-reaching. Parks too," he went on, his voice rich with the interest he felt in his subject, "will be kept by a committee of women in a turn-about system so that they will feel the flowers are very own. Put your shops in a village of this sort," he summed up his argument, "and your men will be more efficient. Furthermore, everyone coming to Florida will view it with interest."

"I think your plans are splendid, Mr. Wright," my father was talking, "and as president I have the privilege of giving them our acceptance with our heartiest congratulations. I shall want you to take entire charge of this end of the work however, and because we shall probably have frequent consultations, it will be most pleasant to have you as our guest while your sketches are in the making."

I waited expectantly. Suppose he had changed his mind and decided not to stay after all.

Then came the answer. "I shall be more than delighted," Mr. Wright responded.

Curtiss Wright in the house. Our guest. I contemplated the future with a glow of enthusiasm. Propinquity... bright conversation... golfing... dancing and the whole town buzzing. The woman hater. My bet with Marjorie. Oh, it was thrilling!

"Good morning to the glad new day," came a cheerful voice and Anne Coddington stood in the doorway. At the same time Father and Mr. Wright entered.

"Miss Coddington?" Mr. Wright inquired during the introduction which followed, "have we not met before? The name and face are hauntingly familiar."

"No, I am sure you are mistaken," Anne answered hurriedly, and with what I thought unnecessary decision, "I have an uncanny trick of remembering names and yours is not registered. I'm sorry," she concluded, her voice more excited than usual, then changed the subject.

"Et vous, Miss Sallie? We missed you at breakfast," Mr. Wright said, coming over to the chaise-longue where I was reclining.

"Couldn't make it," I replied.

"I'm just dragging one foot after the other this morning," I announced when father had gone with his golf sticks and some friends to his beloved Timuquana.

"A hectic party, Anne darling," I explained. "We all got razzle-dazzled, except Mr. Wright who was my

HIGHLIGHTS ON STATE CROPS

From New York State Dept. Farms and Markets Sept. 30, 1924.

Jewish Holidays Bring Dull Market

In many commodities trading was practically non-existent during the first two days of the week, says the State Department of Farms & Markets, due to two causes, the Jewish holidays and the steady downpour of rain. Quotations in many instances were purely nominal.

Eggs, Butter and Cheese Steady

The market continues firm and high for top grades of nearby white eggs with nearby hennerly white average extras quoted Tuesday at 63-66c a dozen. The butter market continues low but steady. Latest prices for creamery salted higher score, 38 1/4-38 3/4c a pound. Cheese remains at the price established two weeks ago. Fresh average run—whole-milk flats are selling at from 20 1/2-21c a pound.

Country Veals Slow But Steady

Receipts of country-dressed calves have been light and the market inactive but steady on the top grades. Present quotations are per pound: Choice 18-20c; fair to good, 13-18c; common and small 6-10c and some even lower.

Trading in Live Poultry Stops

With most of the wholesale live poultry establishments closed for the Jewish New Year's there was no market for the first two days of the week. Prices the entirely nominal, were quoted as follows per pound: Colored fowls, average run, 26-28c; leghorn, average run, 15-18c; chickens, colored 25-26c; leghorn 22-24c.

Hay Receipts Liberal, Market Slow

The hay market is slow with plenty on hand. Two barges which arrived late Monday night were not unloaded Tuesday morning because of weather conditions and lack of interest. Present quotations per ton: U. S. Timothy, No. 1, $27-28; No. 2, $24-26; No. 3, $21-23.

Fruit Markets Inactive

Because it was known that the markets would be inactive the supplies of fresh fruit sent in were very light. Except for peaches the markets were dull. State Elberta peaches met a fair demand and brot from $2-2.75 per carrier of six four-quart baskets. A carload of New York state peaches brot mostly $1.25 per one and one-half bushel-basket. Apple receipts were liberal and the market dull. There were too few sales of state offerings to establish a market.

Vegetable Market Dull

The potato market continues dull with most sales of No. 1 up-state round whites in bulk at $2.25 per 180 pounds. Tomatoes on Tuesday brot from $1.50-3.25 per carrier containing six four-quart baskets. Stock in bushel baskets brot from $2-2.50. There were no fresh arrivals of celery. Lettuce was limited and the market firm. Cabbage remained steady at $10-16 a ton.

Washington, D. C., for the week ending Sept. 29, 1924.

Fruits and Vegetables

Eastern potatoes closed the week steady to 5-10c lower. New Jersey Irish Cobbblers mostly $1.35-1.50 sacked per 100 pounds. Long island bulk Cobbblers and green mountains $1.45-1.55 in New York. Pa. sacked round whites $1.35-1.50 in Philadelphia and Baltimore. Northern sacked and bulk round whites steady at $1-1.10 carlot sales in Chicago; slightly weaker at shipping points at 80-85c. Sweet potatoes weakened in leading markets. Eastern shored Virginia yellow varieties ranged $3.50-5 per barrel top of $5.75 in Chicago. Tennessee Nancy Halls $1.75-1.85 per bushel hamper in Cincinnati and Chicago. Cabbage irregular. New York domestic type mostly $12-16 bulk per ton in city markets; $7-9 f. o. b., Rochester.

STATE OF NEW YORK ALLEGANY COUNTY CLERK'S OFFICE,

NOTICE is hereby given that on Friday the 10th day of October, 1924, at 9 o'clock, a. m., a panel of TRIAL JURORS will be drawn at this office, to serve at a term of COUNTY COURT to be held in and for the County of Allegany, at the Court House in the village of Belmont, on Monday, the 27th day of October, 1924.

Farm and Stock Market

Onions generally weaker. New York and midwestern yellow varieties sold at $1.50-2 sacked per 100 pounds in consuming centers; $1.35-1.50 f. o. b. New York Elberta peaches weakened to $2-2.75 per bushel basket in leading markets; $1.60-1.85 f. o. b., Rochester. Apples generally lower. New York wealthys ranged $1-1.50 per bushel basket in eastern cities; $1.35 f. o. b., Rochester. Eastern Grimes mostly $4-4.50 per barrel in city markets; $3.75-4 f. o. b.

Live Stock and Meats

Chicago hog prices ranged from 30-50c higher than a week ago, closing at $10.70 for the top and $9.50-10.50 for the bulk. Medium and good beef steers 20-35c higher at $7-10.50; butcher cows and heifers steady to 25c higher at $3.35-10.50; feeder steers steady to 15c higher at $4.90-7.75; light and medium weight veal calves 25c-$1 higher at $9.50-12.25. Fat lambs steady to 15c higher at $11.25-13.40; feeding lamb steady at $11-13.25; yearlings $7-7.50-10.25; fat ewes steady at $3.50-6.75. Stocker and feeder shipments from 12 important markets during the week ending Sept. 19 were: Cattle and calves 127,976; hogs 3,691; sheep 198,751. In eastern wholesale fresh meat markets beef ranged from steady to $1 lower; veal and lamb weak to $2 lower; mutton $3 lower to $2 higher; and pork loins 50c lower to $2 up. September 29 prices good fresh meats: Beef $14-17; veal $15-21; lamb $19-22; mutton $13-15; light pork loins $27-29; heavy loins $10-19.50.

Dairy Products

Butter markets barely steady to firm following a week of unsettled trading. Buyers restricting their purchases to "current" needs. Receipts slightly lighter than last week but considerably heavier than a year ago. Production conditions good and point to a continued heavy fall make. Storage holdings show a slight decrease. Foreign markets firmer and higher with small amount of export business developing. Closing wholesale prices on 92 score butter today: New York 38c; Chicago 35 1/4-35 1/2; Boston 38c; Phila. 39c.

Cheese markets steady to firm with trading irregular. Price advances at Wisconsin markets last week not reflected to any extent on distributing markets. Production conditions continue good but a gradual drop is apparently under way. Wholesale prices at Wisconsin primary markets Sept. 27: Twins 20 1/4c; Single Daisies 21c; Double Daisies 20 1/4c; Longhorns 22 1/4c; Square Prints 22 1/4c.

Grain

Grain market continues unsettled. Wheat firm, reaching new high for crop year on continued export business and strength in foreign markets. Corn futures up about 7c for week on bullish government crop summary but with weaker tone at close. Oats up with corn. Good demand cash grains and offerings readily absorbed. Quoted Sept. 29: No. 1 dark northern spring Minneapolis. No. 3 red winter Chicago $1.42. No. 2 hard winter St. Louis $1.37 1/2. No. 2 mixed corn Chicago $1.11 1/2-1.12. No. 2 yellow corn Chicago $1.12 1/2-1.13. No. 3 yellow corn Chicago $1.10 1/2-1.11 1/2; St. Louis $1.11. No. 3 white corn Chicago $1.11-1.11 1/2; St. Louis $1.12. No. 3 white oats Chicago 48 1/2-49 1/2c. St. Louis 49-50c.

Hay market uneven. Low grades drug on market and hard to move even at sacrifice. Timothy weaker account heavy receipts most marketed. Alfalfa strong with heavier offerings. Prairie steady with good quality offerings readily absorbed. Quoted Sept. 29: No. 1 timothy Boston $27.50; New York $27.50; Pittsburg $21.50; Cincinnati $18.50. Chicago 24; St. Louis $24.50. Kansas City $16.50; Memphis $24; Denver $19; Minneapolis $20. No. 1 alfalfa Kansas City $22; Omaha $17. Denver $15; Memphis $29. No. 1 prairie Kansas City $11.25; Omaha $13; Chicago $16; St. Louis $14.50; Minneapolis $17.

Feed

Upturn in wheat and corn failed to stimulate the demand for feed stuffs or advance their prices. Buyers appeared well supplied and with larger mill offerings resellers reluctantly made concessions to offset sales. Gluten feed production good. Hominy feed offerings were larger than the demand and prices were lower. Stocks and the movement were heavy. Quoted Sept. 27: Minneapolis spring middlings $24.50 spring bran $22.75; 34% linseed meal $44. Memphis cottonseed meal $37. Chicago gluten feed $40.80; yellow hominy feed $40; 60% digester feeding tankage at various shipping markets $60.
