—The S. D. Baptist Ladies Aid Society met with Mrs. Will Bines Tuesday afternoon for a business and social meeting. A thirteen supper was served.

—Mrs. C. R. McGill and Mrs. Robert Dean entertained at the home of Mrs. Eliza Doran on Chestnut street, Thursday evening in honor of Miss Mary Raufenbarth.

—Mrs. M. F. Schuknecht of Friendship and Miss Emma Ross of Wellsboro were the delegates from Allegany county to the W. C. T. U. convention at Oneonta, October 2-7.

—London Jamison, an Adrian farmer, lost $500 worth of beans in the flood week before last. He had ten acres of beans pulled and stacked when the high water came and carried them off.

—Marshall Dennis of Jasper had the misfortune to lose one of his prize Ayrshire cows. This cow had taken first prize at the fair this fall. It had choked on an apple and when found was past help and died soon.

—F. A. Collier of Whitesville got his legs peppered with shot while hunting rabbits with a companion who fired at the game thinking Collier was out of range. The wounds, while painful were not of serious nature.

—A picture of Cuba's new library building appeared in last week's Patriot. The building was a gift to the village from the late Mrs. Elizabeth Sheldon. The building is of irregular red brick, with sections of stucco in half-timbered effect.

—Dorothy, aged four and one-half years, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George D. Green of Bolivar, had her collar bone broken and was somewhat bruised Saturday afternoon, when she was struck by an auto driven by John H. Kernan of that village.

—A new society to be composed of half of Protestants and half of Catholics has been formed at Utica. It is called the Hamilton-Jefferson Club. Members are admitted in pairs, one of each faith. Its object is to foster patriotic ideals and a spirit of tolerance in economics, politics and religion.

—The forty hours devotions were held at Blessed Sacrament church this week, ending Wednesday. The out-of-town priests assisting in the services were: Right Rev. Monsignor Richard O'Brien of Wellsboro; Rev. Peter W. Leonard, S. J., Conesus College, Buffalo; Rev. Charles O'Donnell, Immaculate Conception Church, Buffalo; Rev. M. J. Schaefer, St. Elizabeth's, Buffalo; and Rev. Robert O'Hara, O. S. M., St. Bonaventure College, Allegany.

—Regular meeting Edward Seaman Relief Corps, Saturday night.

—Mr. and Mrs. Richard Smith have moved from Almond to Andover and are located on Grove street.

—Mrs. Carl Butler of Alfred was badly burned while working at her cook stove recently.

—Mrs. Mary Lewis of Alfred, aged 94 years, had the misfortune to fall this week, dislocating her hip.

—Miss Ruth Taylor was in Hornell over the week-end where she had her tonsils removed. Miss Emma Folsing is teaching her grade school.

—The noted Warsaw Third Degree team is to work the third degree at Masonic temple, Wellsboro, Friday evening, October 24th.

—The Semi-Annual meeting of the Western Seventh Day Baptist Association will be held at Petrolia, N. Y., October 24-25, 1924. Program will be given next week.

—The silver dollar is coming back into circulation. Recently the government put one each in the pay envelopes of the 5,000 government employees; the output will reach $30,000,000.

—Mr. and Mrs. John Lever were given a surprise visit, Wednesday evening, October 14th, at their home on Dyke street by members of the O. E. S., in honor of their twelfth wedding anniversary.

—Two large auto busses passed thru town Friday, enroute to Hornell. They carried forty men composing the Mendeshans Glee Club of the Lutheran church of Worcester, Mass., and were on a concert circuit.

—Mrs. J. L. Carpenter of Whitesville had a close escape from death last week when she alighted from her car and stepped directly in front of one driven by Fred Nye of Whitesville. She was knocked down and bruised and cut about the head.

—The Rev. Robert G. Armstrong will be installed as pastor of the First Congregational church of Wellsboro on Thursday afternoon and evening, October 23rd. Dr. Dan Bradley of Cleveland will preach the installation service in the evening.

—Arthur Senita, proprietor of the Cuba hotel, has been ordered to close up the business and leave Cuba. The place which has 30 or 40 boarders, mostly employed on road and sewer work, had become such a nuisance that protest was made by residents in that vicinity to the authorities.

—Leon B. Cameron, editor of the Wellsboro, Pa., Gazette and son of County Judge and Mrs. D. E. Cameron of Wellsboro, died at 2:30 o'clock Thursday morning, October 2, at his home, following a five days' illness from anthrax, believed to have been caused from using a new shaving brush.

—The Allegany County Christian Endeavor societies will hold a rally in the Baptist Church at Belmont on Monday afternoon and evening, October 27. Carlton M. Sherwood, the State Field Secretary, has been invited to be one of the speakers. A banquet will be given at 5:30 in the afternoon, at twenty-five cents a plate. All the local Christian Endeavor societies are invited to attend both the afternoon and evening services.

—Archie White of Whitesville, Democratic candidate for sheriff, was calling on his many friends in Andover Wednesday. While he says the odds are too heavy against him to give hope of election, he believes he is going to get a nice vote. Archie is some mixer and has many avenues of contact with the people. He still maintains active membership with the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, is a Mason, an Odd Fellow and was seven years master of his local Grange, teaches a Sunday school class and is active in Dairymen's League affairs. When he gets all around it doesn't bother him much to find some common ground of approach to any red-blooded American citizen. He says that if he should be elected sheriff of Allegany county, he will do his level best to enforce all the laws on he statute books, regardless of what they are.

WILL HOLD CLINIC IN ANDOVER

At the request of Miss Teresa C. Bumpster, Allegany County Tuberculosis nurse, Dr. J. J. Mahoney, district state health officer, has arranged with the New York state department of health to hold five consultation clinics for diseases of the lungs at the following places:

Oct. 20—Andover, Library.

—The mountain Clinic in Olean for an operation for acute appendicitis, October 11th, Miss Bernice Taylor of Rushford suffered a scalp wound in an automobile collision and she was treated for the head injury while being prepared for the operation at the hospital. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Taylor and Dr. H. K. Hardy of Rushford were cut and bruised when the automobile overturned.

Tidbits From Our School

The Seniors and their guests held a weiner roast near the pump station last Thursday evening. After which a social time was enjoyed in the school "gym."

Miss Myrtle Smith has left us to return to her home in Florida. No school was held Monday because of Columbus Day.

The Seniors held a very successful bake sale last Saturday morning. They wish to thank all who helped to make it so.

Friday the Seniors ordered their invitations and cards for commencement.

The Athletic Association held its second meeting Friday. The report of the County Athletic Association at Belmont was given by Lenford. A new and better constitution was adopted and two new basket balls ordered for the coming season.

Arthur Downer, George Dean and George Gavin are absent from school digging potatoes this week.

We see that one of the two ladies' pencils received by Arthur as a reward for selling "Country Gentleman" subscriptions is now residing in Andover. Ask "Dutchie" if she knows where? The other one is "cabbably" in Hornell at the present time.

Kenneth:—"I got something for nothing the other day."
Lenford:—"How was that?"
Kenneth:—"Oh, I bought you a pencil."

This is the last time you will have a chance to read the great and learned writings of the Seniors. From henceforth and forever more as far as we are concerned, this duty will be kindly bestowed upon our junior classmen.
