Fall 1924 Exhibition of Fabrics for New Costumes

An event planned to assist the women of Hornell and vicinity in the selection of appropriate materials and patterns for their Fall and Winter costumes.

In our magnificent displays of American-made textiles and foreign fabrics you will find inspiration and in Standard-Designer Patterns you will find an abundance of ideas and valuable guidance. Everywhere in the store are incentives to home-sewing—everything for the making of smart apparel will be found and in addition a corps of salespeople eager to be of assistance to you in your planning.

COLORS

Fallow, deer, partridge, sandalwood, cowboy, toast, zinc gray, castor, mode, tile blue, hague, Persian blue, empire blue, sapphire, and the darker shades, lizard green, terragon, wild rose, mandarin, canna, Vienna Rose, burnt orange, and all light tints in addition.

COLLECTION EXTRAORDINARY DRESS ACCESSORIES AND DECORATIONS

Very much thought and preparation has been expended on these articles so necessary to the finished gown. Buttons that are now used in great quantities, Braids of silk, chenille and leather. Banding of embroidery of silk; bead ornaments of great variety. Cabochans. Rhine Stone Disks and ornaments. Flower motifs of great beauty.

We believe with this ensemble your shopping will be eminently satisfying and pleasing. We invite you to this really representative showing for Fall and Winter and trust it will prove a delight to you as it will be a pleasure to us.
