

"THINGS COME EASY"

Because He Can Wait

That's the truth, most of the time, about the success, some person you know, or know about, is gaining.

You'll find chances to get ahead usually come more quickly to the man who can afford to wait for them. He's put money in bank—to be ready. Meanwhile, he doesn't have to worry about next month's rent, or the winter coal.

When his chance comes—he's ready.

You, too, can build up a reserve—in an interest-bearing account here.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

—Mrs. H. S. Young of Fillmore, observed her 97th birthday, last week.

—F. L. Bloss was unable to be at his grocery store Tuesday on account of illness.

—H. N. Hawkins of Silver Creek, N. Y., has installed a lunch car service in Wellsville.

—The Armistice Day celebration in Allegany County next year will be held in Wellsville.

—Angelica has purchased an up-to-date fire apparatus which will be delivered to that place Dec. 15th.

—Mrs. M. F. Garvin entertained five tables at bridge Thursday afternoon at her home on Chestnut street.

—Mrs. Fanny Derr of Nile, left last week for California where she has been engaged to do missionary work in San Francisco.

—E. P. Rogers finished his year's threshing Tuesday for the farmers in this locality. He has threshed about 35,000 bushels of grain in the last few weeks.

—The Ladies' Auxiliary of Thomas M. Lynch Post, American Legion will hold a meeting and election of officers, next Monday evening, Dec. 1st, at the Legion rooms.

—Mrs. Elizabeth Bess has been selling part of her household furnishings at her rooms on Church street this week, preparatory to leaving for Dansville to pass the winter.

—A great many bushels of potatoes in this locality were frozen in the recent cold wave. Many of them in the ground and in other cases where they had been dug and stored in barns.

—Andover friends are pleased to learn of the improved condition of Mrs. Getta Widger at the Jones Memorial hospital in Wellsville. It is hoped she will be able to return home the last of the week.

—Those who have not contributed a can of fruit for the barrel to be sent to the Oxford Home can do so by leaving it with Mrs. Elizabeth Hann this week. The barrel will be shipped the first of next week.

—Sheriff-elect DeForest Bennett of Allen has appointed Daniel L. Witter of Wellsville, deputy sheriff of the town of Wellsville for the next three years, effective January 1, 1925. Mr. Witter is a son of L. D. Witter of that village.

—Miss Matilda Sturtzer of Buffalo has been secured as school nurse for the second supervisory district of Allegany county. She will have charge of the work in Cuba, Belfast, Belmont and Friendship high schools and when needed will go to the rural schools.

—The Elmira Telegram contained a fine write-up of an interview with Mrs. Olivia Green who celebrated her 95th birthday in Hornell last week. The reporter says: "Mrs. Green does not look a day over 60 years old and her brain is as keen as at 18." Mrs. Green is well known in Andover. She is a member of the Andover S. D. Baptist church and until a few years ago lived on her farm in East Valley.

Father and Son Banquet

The Red Triangle boys' Father and Son Banquet Friday evening, last, at the M. E. church parlors was a very pleasant occasion, nearly 40 men and boys being present.

Besides the splendid supper served by the ladies of the boys' the feature of the gathering was a very inspiring talk by Attorney Hopkins of Cuba, in which his defense of the "Prodigal Son" brought out many interesting things proving a beautiful that applicable to present day fathers and sons and their relations, one to the other.

Prof. W. W. Palmer and Supt. Lester of Wellsville, were called upon and made very appropriate talks.

Lenford Horton presided as toastmaster in a very easy and graceful manner.

Much credit is due the boys of the Red Triangle in this effort, as they engineered the whole evening's pleasure themselves, unaided. Andover is to be congratulated that they have in their midst so efficient a lot of boys as those of the Red Triangle.

—A new section of combination boxes has been installed in the post office this week.

—In the October term of court, which closed last week, Clarence C. Cleghorn and Nellie May Hatch of Black Creek, were convicted of adultery, Cleghorn was fined $200 and sentenced to Monroe County penitentiary for 60 days. The woman was fined $150 and sentenced to Allegany County jail for 30 days.

—Lytle, the four-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Ned Harris, of Jordan Hill, Bolivar township, had his left hand nearly blown off last week. The child found a dynamite cap which he placed on a stone and struck with a hammer. The explosion that followed mutilated the hand. It is also feared he may lose the sight of one eye.

—James J. Donnelly, proprietor of a Bolivar meat market is out $20.00 on a check which he recently cashed for a stranger. The check was drawn on the Youngsville, Pa. First National Bank. It was cashed at the local bank after Mr. Donnelly had endorsed it but was returned with the notation, "no account."

—A meeting of the Board of Education of Wellsville was held Wednesday morning at 4 o'clock. Arrangements were made for use of rooms in the City Hall, Library building, American Legion rooms, Knights of Columbus rooms and a vacant store in the Bernes building. It is planned to get these rooms in readiness to resume school next Monday.

—Maxwell Stout, son of Editor and Mrs. Stout, of Friendship, was operated on at the Children's hospital last week. His broken thigh was set and silver plated. The operation was performed by Dr. Plummer, assisted by Dr. Potts. His general health is being looked after by Dr. DeWitt Sherman, child specialist. Latest reports state that he is gaining nicely.

—A community supper was served at Whitesville, for the benefit of the Wellsville and Andover fire departments in appreciation of their services at the fire which swept away several buildings in their village last week. The Whitesville News says "the sum of $90.00 was cleared which will be divided between the two companies, Andover, whose pumper arrived first will receive $50 to supplement the $50 which Mr. Chapin paid them himself and Wellsville, whose apparatus stood ready to operate if needed will be given $40."

—Buy your Christmas presents at the Baptist fair.

—Come to the chicken-pie supper in Odd Fellow's Hall, Monday, Dec. 1st.

—A Medical Clinic has been opened at the Physician's Home, Canandaigua for the treatment of patients in the vicinity. It is under the direction of Dr. O. M. Myers, a physician of large experience.

—The body of Mrs. Ella Freeman, widow of the late Jacob Freeman of Wellsville, was brought to that place from Toronto, Canada, where her death occurred. Funeral services were held Thursday afternoon.

—D. M. Green was taken seriously ill last Tuesday while at his duties at the school building, Sunday afternoon he was taken to the Steuben Sanitarium at Hornell for treatment. C. H. Watson, Jr., and W. S. Clarke accompanied him.

—The death of Mrs. Warren Harding leaves only three widows of former presidents of the United States now living, Mrs. Thomas Preston, Jr., widow of Grover Cleveland, living at Princeton, N. J.; Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt, living at Oyster Bay, N. Y.; Mrs. Woodrow Wilson, living in Washington, D. C.

—A proposition is under investigation to purchase the Simpson farm at Cuba and utilize it for the Cuba fair grounds. J. P. Mack of the General Organization Company of Chicago was in Cuba last week, looking over the grounds and will report on the proposition. If the plans now under consideration are carried out it means a "bigger and better" fair for Cuba.

—Wm. Wyckoff, a workman employed on the construction of the New York Central's building in Hornell, fell three stories, approximately 50 feet, without a break and landed in a pile of brick, without serious injury. Physicians could not believe the feat possible until a thorough examination proved the fact and Mr. Wyckoff returned to his work none the worse for the fall.

Rude Rural Rhymes

Polish

Waves come rolling up the beach, soaking everything in reach. Hear the pebbles grit and grind ere they drop and fall behind, pretty pebbles brown or pinky, pretty pebbles, white or inky. Tho they once were chunks of ledges not a one has ragged edges. Rolling over on the beach, ever grinding each on each, pulled and piled and pushed and pounded, corners all to curves are rounded. Don't those pebbles seem to be human nature's simile? Each of us a jagged block, split off from the parent rock. Waves of life, foam and another grind us upon the other. Every touch 'twixt you and me changes both in some degree. We from kindred and from neighbor, chum in play and mate in labor, gather polish all our lives, but especially from wives. Every jack who marries Jill mends his manners will or nill. So did Hannah, charming creature, smooth the roughness of my nature. But the bachelors, I wot, many corners still have got. They should read this rhyme and heed it. Married life as God decreed it, might not suit them but they need it.
